

Frosh Queen Contest to Get New Deadline

The deadline for pictures of candidates for freshman queen has been extended until noon Saturday.

Pictures should be turned in at the Hetzel Union desk with the name and campus address of the coeds. All freshman women, except those on the Freshmen Advisory Committee, are eligible.

Five finalists will be chosen by the advisory board previous to the dance. The winner will be selected by applause at the annual Freshman Hop, to be held from 9 p.m. to midnight Feb. 25 in the HUB ballroom.

The winner will be awarded an engraved trophy and the four finalists will receive necklaces bearing the University crest.

Music will be provided by the Lamplighters and dress will be semi-formal.

Tickets are free at the Waring Hall desk. They will be available at the Hetzel Union desk beginning Friday.

IFC Board--

no available land in State College to build on.

In addition, he said, the committee will send questionnaires to each house asking its opinions and plans for future building. He encouraged all houses to fill out the form and return it to the committee.

IFC also heard reports from Howard Thompson, editor of Toga Tales, and John Seastone, student member of the fraternity Marketing Association board of trustees.

Thompson told the meeting that Toga Tales would be published every two months in the future instead of every month. He said the type face had been changed to give the paper more space and an effort would be made to include more useful information in the paper.

Seastone gave a progress report on FMA and urged non-member members was decided, Beidler said, by agreement of the two clique chairmen. If any stalemate had come about, he added, it would have been settled by a flip of the coin, he added.

The decision on the elections dates means that the first clique meeting will have to be held on Feb. 26, the second on March 4 and third on March 11. The Elections Code states that each party must hold three clique meetings prior to the elections.

Old Cards Are Void
Beidler emphasized the fact that the clique cards from the fall elections will be void for the spring elections and that to be eligible to vote in the coming meetings clique members will have to register with the Elections Committee and receive new clique cards.

In order to be eligible to vote for the party's slate of candidates at the third clique meeting a clique member must have attended at least two of the three meetings.

After a clique member has received his clique card he need only present it to an Elections Committee member at the clique meeting to be admitted.

To Interview 24
The Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee will interview 24 applicants for the four vacant spots on the Elections Committee tonight. The four that are chosen will likely be brought before Cabinet for approval Thursday night.

Beidler also appointed Pugal to head a committee to work with the Central Promotion Agency on publicity for the elections. Other members of the committee are Dolores Jones, Robert Krakoff and Robert Heck.

houses to join the group which acts as a buying agent for member fraternities. He pointed out that this year's sales showed a 30 per cent increase over the past year.

TIM to Accept Contest Entries At HUB Desk

Entrants for the Town Independent Men ping pong tournament, to be held the latter part of March, may register at the Hetzel Union desk.

All students are eligible for the free contest. Men and women entrants will be placed in separate categories. The winner of each group will be crowned All-University ping pong champion in his respective class.

The contest will be on a single elimination basis. Winners will be determined on the best-of-three games basis. Each contestant must provide his own equipment. Final and semi-final matches will be played in the HUB ballroom. Other matches will be played at the discretion of the contestants.

A trophy will be awarded to the winner of each division. The three runner-ups in each division will also receive awards.

No plans have been set for the start of the tournament. Robert Cole, TIM president, said the final match will be played sometime before Easter vacation.
