Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, University chaplain, said the need for such a publication has been felt for some time but this is the first semester that one has been tried. The Campus Call will be published once a month this semester as an experiment, with the hope that it will broaden into a magazine at some later date.

The newsletter is edited by Richard Frantz, junior in dairy science from Allentown. The business manager is Heather Davidheiser, freshman in education from Pottstown; art editor is Elizabeth Crouse, freshman in applied arts from Littlestown. The first issue appeared Sunday.

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young manager handles finances for $40,000,000 business

General Electric is made up of more than 90 product departments that operate as individual "businesses" — each conducting its own legal, financial, manufacturing, engineering, marketing and research activities.

One of the most important of these businesses is the Technical Products Department that makes broadcasting and communications equipment and semi-conductor devices. Responsible for managing the finances of this $40 million business is Robert H. Platt.

Platt's Work Is Important, Responsible

In the next ten years, the Technical Products Department is expected to reach the $100 million mark — more than doubling its present size. This is a big job. And it requires Platt to keep tabs on everything from tax, cost, and general accounting to payrolls, budgets and measurements, credits and collections, and internal auditing.

25,000 College Graduates at General Electric

Experience gained in the Business Training Course and as a traveling auditor gave Platt a variety of financial experience. Like each of our 25,000 college-graduate employees, he was given the chance to grow and realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: When fresh young minds are given the freedom to make progress, everybody benefits — the individual, the company, the country.

Educational Relations, General Electric Company, Schenectady 5, New York.

ROBERT H. PLATT joined G.E. in 1941 after receiving his B.A. at Colgate University. He served 2 years in the Navy, attaining the rank of Lieutenant (J.G.). He is also a graduate of G.E.'s Business Training Course.

Progress Is Our Most Important Product
