

Raider's 2d Half Defeats Lions, 75-66

The second half nemesis plagued the Nittany Lion cagers again Saturday night as the Colgate Red Raiders pulled away from a two-point half time lead to defeat the Lions 75-66.

The loss, which was the fourth in the Nittanies' last five games, was the third in the last eight days in which a slow second half cost the Lions the game. Syracuse held a narrow one-point margin over the Blue and White at intermission Friday night and the previous Friday evening Temple led by two at the half. In each case Lion opposition jumped off to a quick lead in the second frame and held it to the end.

Play Army Tomorrow

The Lion cagers will leave at noon today for West Point where they will encounter the Cadets at 4 tomorrow afternoon.

Five men hit for double figures for the Red Raiders but the biggest surprise came from sophomore guard Russ Brummer. Brummer, making his first start for Colgate, collected 18 points to lead the winners. The Lions held 12th ranked scorer and rebounder Jack Nichols to 14 markers, eight of them on free throws, but Brummer stood outside the Nittanies' zone defense and dropped in seven long set shots.

Second Half Drive

As the second half got under way with the Raiders leading 33-31, the hosts started an offensive drive which netted them eight straight points. The Lions could do no better than to draw within five points in the closing minutes 65-60 which wasn't enough to overcome the determined Raiders.

Earl Fields again led the Lion scoring as he hit on seven field goals and six fouls for a total of 20 points. Rudy Marisa, who hadn't scored under 18 points in the previous four games, was held to two fielders by Colgate. Captain Bob Hoffman shook his scoring slump as he collected 15 markers and Bob Leisher contributed 13.

During the first ten minutes of the game, the Lions hit on only one field goal in 20 attempts before they could gain their scoring eyes. The loss was the Nittanies' 13th. They have won nine.

Elmira Baseball Franchise Shifted To Syracuse

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Feb. 20 (AP)—Joe Reardon, new owner of the Elmira franchise of the Class A Eastern Baseball League, announced today he had switched it to Syracuse.

Reardon made the announcement after the Syracuse Common Council had paved the way.

The Common Council agreed to pay the former owner of the International League Syracuse Chiefs $18,000 for lights he installed at city-owned MacArthur Stadium and approved transfer of the two-year, paid-up stadium lease to Reardon.

Thus, Reardon has no rent to pay directly to the city for two years. But he said he had made a "satisfactory" private agreement with Martin D. Haske, who sold the Class AAA International League franchise to Miami.

Reardon said Glenn (Red) McQuillen, former St. Louis Browns outfielder, would be player manager of the club.

"We have no other players on the roster yet, but we are working on a major league affiliation and have every reason to believe that an announcement will be made in a very short time," Reardon said. He declined to name the major league club.

Skaters to Renew Battle

GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Feb. 20 (AP)—The battle between America's Tenley Albright and Carol Heiss for the year's figure skating honors will be renewed next month in the American National championships at Philadelphia.

There Miss Albright, 21, of Newton Center, Mass., winner of the Olympic championship, will match skating artistry again with Carol Heiss, 16, of Ozone Park, N.Y., who beat her out for the world championship here over the weekend.

Both girls insisted they would not turn professional in the immediate future.

The American championships are scheduled March 14-17. This will mark the "rubber" meeting between the two girls who are bitter rivals for the women's figure skating throne held previously by such stars as Sonja Henie and Barbara Ann Scott.

The girl who establishes herself as queen of the rinks can demand virtually her own figure when she decides to turn professional.

Philadelphians also are to see a hot contest for the American National men's title.

Olympic and four times world champion, Hayes Jenkins of Colorado Springs, Colo., who made his final appearance in an international contest here, has announced he will quit amateur competition after the American Nationals. He also has had many pro offers but so far his big ambition has been to study law at Harvard.

The man out to beat him in Philadelphia is Ronnie Robertson, 19, student from Long Beach, Calif.

Moore-Pompey Fight Postponed

LONDON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The world light heavyweight title bout between champion Archie Moore of San Diego, Calif., and Yolande Pompey of Trinidad has been postponed from March 13 to June 5, promoter Jack Solomons announced tonight.

The London fight has been the subject of much controversy in the past few weeks. Moore has encountered difficulty. Solomons has said, in meeting the weight limit for a light heavyweight bout.

Solomons said tonight he had agreed to postpone the fight in a telephone conversation with Charlie Johnston, Moore's manager.

Johnston agreed to put up a "substantial deposit" to ensure that Moore would keep the new date, Solomons said. The promoter added that Moore would arrive in England four or five weeks before the contest.
