

Lions Rebound; Capture 4 Firsts to Down Navy

The Penn State gymnastic team proved it had it in the clutch Saturday night, and rebounded from a West Point defeat by rolling over previously undefeated Navy, 57-39.

The Lions, who started their downhill slide against Syracuse and hit the bottom at Army, proved they had the ability to come back from a demoralizing defeat by capturing four of six first places—Navy winning the sidehorse and the flying rings.

The big surprise of the meet came in the side horse—one of the Lions weakest events. Navy's undefeated captain and defending eastern titlist, Steve Arnold, broke in the middle of his routine, placing him fifth in the event.

Sophomore Jack Biesterfeldt, on the other hand, was impressive on the horse. He was second to Navy's Pat Ford with a 227 score, just six points shy of first.

Phil Mullen came back after a poor performance at West Point to win the rope climb in 3.7 seconds.

Slips in 2nd Try
A slight slip in his second attempt prevented Mullen from tying or bettering 3.7. The sophomore faltered in the beginning of the climb but recovered quickly enough to scale the rope in 3.9.

Junior Dick Rehm, a last minute replacement for Bob Boudreau, impressed Wettstone by placing third in the rope climb in 3.9 behind the Middies' Herb Doby who did it in 3.8.

Weissend Improves
Junior Dion Weissend showed signs of breaking his two-week slump by grabbing first place honors in the horizontal bar and finishing second in tumbling.

Armando Vega again sparked the Nittany attack with 12 points on the basis of a first in the parallel bars, second in the flying rings, and fourth in the side horse. His 262 total in the p-bars was the second highest individual score of the meet.

Sidwell Ties White
Sophomore Ed Sidwell pulled another rabbit out of the Lions' hat when he tied Navy's defending eastern champ Larry White for third place in the flying rings with a 236 total.

Navy's Fred Hoerner won the event with 268 points in a crowd-thrilling performance. The summaries:

Oberly, Krufka Cop Pins in 25-3 Rout

By FRAN FANUCCI

Only one left and its the biggest! This was and still is the attitude of every Lion wrestler, including Coach Charley Speidel, following the 25-3 rout of Maryland Saturday night at College Park, Md.

The one left, of course, is Pittsburgh, the Lions' arch-rival. This meet will highlight and close the season for Penn State Saturday at Recreation Hall.

The Lion matmen made Maryland their seventh consecutive victim with an awesome display of mat skill and plain brute force.

Johnny Johnston, John Pepe, Dave Adams, Joe Humphreys, and Ernie Young provided the skill, while Joe Krufka and Bill Oberly provided the brute force.

Smith Loses
The only Lion to lose was George Smith, who replaced Sid Nodland at the 123-pound division. Smith was nosed out 7-6 by John McHugh.

Four Lions stretched their undefeated streak to seven meets with Ernie Young notching his second straight. Johnston, Pepe, Krufka, and Oberly all hold unblemished records. Nodland, out with a slight injury, has six straight wins without a loss.

Humphreys, on the rebound after a poor start, grabbed his third straight win shutting out Leroy Kennedy, 6-0.

2 Score Shutouts
Two other matmen scored shutouts while Krufka and Oberly closed the meet with pins. Johnston beat Charlie Kerler, 8-0, and Pepe decisioned Ed Weatherly, 7-0.

Amazing Krufka didn't bother to work up a sweat as he pinned Joe Wozunk with an arm bar and body press in 2:45 of the first period. Krufka was leading 2-0 before the pin.

National Champion Oberly took slightly longer to pin his cocky unbeaten opponent, Mike Sandusky. After going through a scoreless first period, Oberly cradled Sandusky with one and a half minutes gone in the second stanza. It was good enough for the pin and five Lion points.

Saturday's meet with Pitt will match the battle of the unbeaten. Pitt has a streak of 16 straight wins. Its only loss was to Michigan early in 1955.

- The summaries:
- 123—McHugh (M) decisioned Smith, 7-6.
 - 138—Johnston (PS) decisioned Kerler, 8-0.
 - 137—Pepe (PS) decisioned Weatherly, 7-0.
 - 147—Adams (PS) decisioned O'Jurkin, 6-3.
 - 157—Humphreys (PS) decisioned Kennedy, 6-0.
 - 167—Young (PS) decisioned Amato, 10-1.
 - 177—Krufka (PS) pinned Wozunk, 2:45, first.
 - Hwt.—Oberly (PS) pinned Sandusky, 1:45, second.
