Perry Wins IC4-A Hurdles; Lions 5th

Rod Perry made his second IC4-A bid for the 60-yard high hurdles championship a successful one Saturday night at Madison Square Garden by defeating Manhattan's Lou Knight for the title. Perry finished second to the Jasper's Charlie Pratt in last year's IC4-A competition.

Both Perry and Knight—who comes from Jamaica—won their qualifying heats with times of 7.4 seconds.

The final heat was a nip-and-tuck race all the way with the Lion star crossing the wire an instant before Knight. His time was 7.3 seconds.

The Lion team entry finished fifth in the meet with 10 and 1/2 points. Manhattan won team title over the highly favored Villanova entry, 36-34.

Ogier Norris, a sophomore competing in his first season of varsity track, was the surprise of the Lion squad when he placed in both the pole vault and the high jump.

Norris finished in a tie for third place in the pole vault with Mike Keating of Army and Bill Smith of Pittsburgh with a leap of 13'. He also finished in a tie for third in the high jump with St. John's Bob Gardner and Manhattan's Dick Shipley with a jump of 6'1".

Charlie Blockson was the only other Lion entry to break into the scoring column. The veteran trackman tossed the shot put 49'-3 1/2"—the best he has done all season—to finish third.

The frosh medley team—Clem Schoenebeck, Fred Kerr, Dick Duswalt and Ed Moran—finished second in the finals to St. John's entry.

The Nittany yearlings ran the course in 7:37.7 to St. John's 7:35.7. Coach Chick Werner said that Moran did an outstanding job in both the qualifying and final heats with a time of 4:21 each race.

Werner said that he was pleased with the showing his team made. "The boys did a good job. I have no complaints," he said.

Cagers' 13-Point Rally Downs Rutgers

By ROG BEIDLER
The Nittany Lion cagers avoided an embarrassing defeat Saturday night as they came to life midway through the second half with a 13-point rally to down a much improved Rutgers quintet, 82-72.

The Lions, victors over the Scarlet in an earlier contest 108-78, lost a half-time lead as the second period opened, but rallied from a seven point deficit to take a six point lead. The Blue and White went unthreatened for the rest of the game to gain its second win in a row and the 11th of the season.

Play Tech Wednesday

The Nittanians will remain on the road Wednesday night when they travel to Pittsburgh to attempt to avenge an earlier setback at the hands of the Tartans of Carnegie Tech. Saturday they will make their first appearance in Recreation Hall since they defeated Bucknell where their opponents will be the Pitt Panthers, also owners of a win over the Lions.

The Nittanians took a 43-39 lead over Rutgers at the intermission, but saw it quickly erased as the upset-minded Scarletmen spurred to a two-point margin with six minutes gone. Rutgers increased its margin until at the 10:35 the score stood at 60-53.

Reserve forward Norm Hall started things for the Lions with a free throw and a rebound. Bob Hoffman cut Rutgers' lead to two with a set, and sophomore Steve Baidy tied the game with a push-shot. Ron Rainey added a foul toss and Hall's push shot put the Blue and White out in front 63-60.

Rainey dropped in another foul and Hoffman hit on a driving lay-up before Rutgers could recover. From that point on, the Lions were never pressed as they increased their lead to 10 as the final whistle sounded.

Hoffman and Marisa were the big guns for the cagers in the final period as they each contributed five field goals. Hall chipped in four fielders and a charity toss.

First Half Lead

The Lions showed signs of running away in the first half but Rutgers started an offensive drive to keep them in the game. At one point the Nittanians had a 12-point advantage, but the Scarlet cut it to four at the half.

Earl Fields collected four two-pointers and a pair of fouls in the opening half and Hoffman added an equal number of fielders. Hoffman was the top scorer for the cagers with 18 and Marisa was right behind with 17. Fields had 10, all in the first half, and Hall finished the game with nine, all in the final period.
