

Weekend Gym Clashes Hold Key to Title Hopes

Weekend gymnastic activity at Annapolis, Md., and Recreation Hall will determine the final outcome of the race for the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastic Title.

The Nittany Lions host an upset-minded Pittsburgh team while undefeated Army, currently on top of the pack, visits once-beaten Navy.

The Lions must defeat the Panthers and rest their hopes on an Navy upset in order to win the crown for the fourth consecutive year.

A Navy win would throw the three clubs—Penn State, Army and Navy—into a three-way tie for the championship. An Army win automatically gives the Cadets the championship.

If team records were any indication of the outcome of the meet, the Lions should win rather easily.

However, as is the case in most heated rivalries, records go out the window when Pittsburgh and Penn State get together.

Last season, an undefeated Nittany team managed to gain a shaky 54-42 victory over the Panthers who finished with a 1-5 record.

Pitt knows that the Lions must win to remain in title contention and will shoot its big guns in hopes of upsetting the Nittanians. Sophomore Tom Darling tops the Panther scorers in seven meets with six first places.

Darling won the flying rings against Army, Navy, Lock Haven, and West Chester. His first at Army was the only Panther first of the meet.

He also won the high bar against West Chester and Temple.

Another sophomore, John Hammond, follows Darling in the scoring column with first places in tumbling against Navy, West Chester, and Lock Haven.

Hammond also took the parallel bars against Lock Haven and the flying rings against Temple. Jim Mulvihill won the high bar against Lock Haven and West Virginia and the parallel bars against Temple.

Joe Lamartine, who was the team's second highest scorer last season, has two firsts in the side horse against West Chester and the Mountaineers to his credit.

Frances Rosenfield made 11. Pi Beta Phi beat Tri Sig 37-28 after clinging to a slim 15-13 halftime lead. Peg Boyd, Nancy Thompson, and Joyce Gardner netted nine, eight, and seven points. Judy Feldmiller and Shirley Rosser each made five points for the losers.

Zeta Tau Alpha gained a 2-0 forfeit win over Thompson 4.

3 Teams Take Bowling Tilts
Delta Zeta rapped up the highest total in the second round of the bowling league by beating Thompson I, 584-506. Mary Gower and Terry Flynn rolled 134 and 132 to pace the DZ's.

Audrey Jersun equalled Gower's total for the frosh team. Rachel Waters was second with 127.

Leonides stomped Alpha Chi Omega, 450-390, with Gail Lundgren getting the highest average of 112 for the winners. Suzanne Loux's 92 score was the best for the AChiO's.

Atherton Stops Thompson II
High scores were scarce when Atherton Southeast and Northeast beat Thompson II, 424-394. Bev Dunbar rolled 110 and Helen Cunnings an even 100 to pace the winners. Kathryn Petrosky was the losers' best with 96.

Sigma Delta Tau and Theta Phi Alpha won forfeits over Mac Hall and Thompson III.

8 Fraternity, 4 Indies Win In IM Handball

While eight more fraternity men advanced to the second round of intramural handball play Wednesday, four independent handballers won their first round games in the independent section.

Phi Sigma Delta's Elliot Fox took two games from Vince Carocci. Pi Kappa Phi, 21-1, 21-2. Phi Kappa Tau's Sam McKibben dropped a pair to Phi Gamma Delta's Don Ferguson 21-10, 21-4; and Chuck Berkley of Kappa Sigma defeated Sigma Phi Alpha's Jim Byrne, 21-6, 21-1. Phi Delta Theta's Dick Eldredge beat Russell Mandeville, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 21-1, 21-1.

In the independent division, Don Millhouse defeated Don Parker 21-7, 21-5; John Campbell dropped two to Bill Beezer 21-6, 21-17; and Don Hartnett beat Art Carroll, 21-12, 21-17. Ron Siders forfeited to George Podrasa in the fourth Indie contest.

Phi Kappa's Don Zugates had to come from behind to defeat Delta Upsilon's Bruce Johnson, 21-16, 17-21, 21-10. Theta Xi's Jim Macklan defeated Garry Crothers, Kappa Delta Rho, 21-18, 21-17; and Beta Sigma Rho's Sheldon Amsel took two from Ralph Brower, Alpha Sigma Phi, 21-10, 21-15.

But the final match of the night was the most exciting. Phi Epsilon Pi's Mike Shapiro won the hardest fought contest of the young tourney from Sigma Nu's Tom Law, 21-19, 16-21, and the final and deciding game, 20-21.

IM Bowling --

pa, 3-1. Beaver House won on a slim 27-pin margin, 2333-2306. Phi Kap picked up its lone point in the first game of the match with 828 points. Beaver House now stands in second place with an 11-5 slate.

Theta Delta Chi registered the only shutout of the night in winning 4-0 over Phi Mu Delta. Theta Delt scored a high game of 868 points for a 2431-2109 point advantage. Theta Delt holds third place with a 10-6 mark.

The other B League match ended in a forfeit with Delta Theta Sigma getting the nod over Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 4-0. The forfeit gives Delta Theta Sigma a 5-11 record.

Leu Bidding High

Gilbert Leu, Penn State freshman gymnast, will make his first bid for national honors in the AAU championships and Olympic tryouts here, April 27-28. Leu is an exchange student from Zurich, Switzerland.

3 IM Cage Quintets Cop League Crowns

By LOUIE PRATO

Kappa Delta Rho, the Trojans, and the Tribe captured intramural basketball league crowns Wednesday to qualify for playoffs next week.

KDR, defending fraternity kingpin, turned in a spectacular performance trouncing Alpha Chi Rho, 63-23. George Simpson, with 25, was followed by Billy Kane in the scoring with 20. KDR finished with a 7-0 slate.

The Trojans, league H, and the Tribe, circuit J, finished with 8-0 cards.

Bill McDade and Dave Watkins, each with 12, led the 34-27 Trojan win over the Yum Yums. Eight men dented the scoring column for the Tribe in its 34-21 victory over the Grooveology Five.

Theta Kap, SPE Tied for Lead
Four other quintets remained in the running for league crowns. Theta Kappa Phi and Sigma Phi Epsilon each registered wins Wednesday to dead lock for League F lead.

Theta Kap stopped Sigma Nu, 34-25, with Bobby Oleski's 14 points leading the way. Its counterpart—SPE—edged by Triangle, 16-10.

In Indie League G, Dorm 9 and the Playboys stayed in the running for the loop title scoring relatively easy wins. Dorm 9 topped Stalag 10, 31-14, while the Playboys dropped the A.H.'s, 31-20. The victors are in a threeway tie with Canadian Club. Tau Kappa Epsilon, with only one defeat, finished in the runnerup spot to KDR in loop A trimming Zeta Beta Tau, 28-10. Mike Znachko led the victors with 10 points.

Three other fraternity League A games were played. Phi Kappa Psi rallied from a 14-point halftime deficit to knock off Delta Sigma Lambda, 28-27.

Farls Scores 33
With Jack Farls ripping the cords for 33 points, Alpha Phi Delta romped to a 49-36 win over Lambda Chi Alpha. In the other game, Delta Upsilon, paced by Dean Mullin's 16 markers, topped Sigma Pi, 28-18.

In other games Wednesday Sigma Chi squeezed by Delta Tau Delta, 24-21; Phi Epsilon Pi rallied to defeat Tau Phi Delta, 23-18; Dorm 42 lost to the Rocks, 21-17; the Gems beat Dorm 39, 23-14; the Nematodes edged Pollock 12, 18-17; the Chiggers coped a forfeit win from the Titans.
