Four Champions Defend Titles

By JOE CHEDDAR
 Defending champions Tom Webb, Armour Black, Paul Brown and Jack Stuart won their opening matches last night as this year's IM wrestling tournament got underway at Recreation Hall.

Black flashed the form that took him to the crown last year as he pinned Don Asendorf of Alpha Tau Omega with a reverse nelson in 3:38. Black had a 4-2 lead over his willing opponent when he got the fall.

Brown, last year's 155-pound champ, had his hands full with Phi Epsilon Pi's Ted Cohen before pinning him.

Cohen wrestled defensively in the first period and was able to fend off several takedown attempts by Brown. Brown reversed him soon after the beginning of the second period however, and gained the pin at 2:27.

Stuart, also of DU, had Pi Sigma Upsilon's John Price in trouble from the start. Stuart got the takedown and three near falls on his outgunned opponent, then pinned him with a half nelson and wrist hold.

Webb, of Chi Phi, the other defending champion, got a forfeit win over Jim Harper of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Ralph Cryder of Beta Theta Pi, a finalist last year, gave the on-lookers a fine exhibition of wrestling finesse in pinning Leroy Varettoni of Phi Kappa Tau. Cryder was all over his opponent from the outset, and pinned him with a reverse nelson and arm bar.

Duane Campbell of Sigma Phi Epsilon established himself as a contender in the 145 pound class by pinning Frank Strauss of Phi Kappa Psi. Other 145 pound class winners were Ed Palmer of Sigma Nu, who pinned Bob Evanko of Theta Kappa Phi, and Bob McMillan of Delta Tau Delta, who pinned George Goldstein of Sigma Alpha Mu.

Jack Frey of Beta Theta Pi, and Sigma Nu's Dave Barney scored impressive wins in the 155 pound class. Frey needed only a minute and 17 seconds to pin Ed Olsen of Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Barney needed even less, pinning Phi Kappa Psi's Chuck Carabell in a minute and 5 seconds.

Also in the 155 pound division, Norm Whitehouse of SPE, and Jim Brubaker of Delta Upsilon, won by forfeit. Whitehouse won over A.G.R.'s Bob Neff and Brubaker over Phi Gamma Delta's Jim Lessig.

Don Wright of Alpha Zeta paced the 165-pound entries, winning a 3-0 decision over Don Dowden of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Wright rode his opponent throughout the entire match.

Fritz Condon of Theta Delta Chi, Willis Kuhns of Chi Phi, and Jack Winterbottom of Phi Kappa Psi got forfeit wins.

The 175 pound division featured the program's outstanding bouts. Beside Brown's win, three other falls were registered. Phil Sieg of Chi Phi pinned John Bruno of Lambda Chi Alpha in 17 seconds, and Dan VanDuynne got a fall over Theta Delta Chi's Bill Snyder in 56 seconds for the quickest pins of the night.

Alpha Sigma Phi's Harry Brown pinned Don Tinsman of Acacia, and Ben Lentz of Sigma Phi Epsilon pinned Bob Barette of Sigma Chi in other 175 pound class matches.

Football players Clint Law and Walt Mazur scored falls in the unlimited division. Law pinned Alpha Chi Rho's Paul Felton in

Phi Tau Leads Keglers; AGR Splits in A-Loop

Phi Kappa Tau strengthened its hold on League A in IM fraternity bowling Tuesday night defeating Alpha Zeta, 3-1. Phi Tau now leads Alpha Gamma Rho by two games.

Although Alpha Zeta took the first game of the match with a 725 score, Phi Tau came back with an 813-point rally to go on and win, 2192-2083. The one-game loss dropped the Phi Tau bowlers from the undefeated rank, but wasn't enough to diminish its lead. Phi Tau now holds a 19-1 record, and dropped AZ to the 500 mark, 10-10.

Alpha Gamma Rho, held to a 3-1 victory last week, could only muster a 2-2 split with Delta Sigma Phi. The Delta Sig keggers took the first game with a 784 score, and although AGR took the two remaining games, it was not able to overcome the deficit. Delta Sig outscored its opponents, 2199-2104. AGR now owns a 17-3 slate with Delta Sig tied for third with 12-8.

Sigma Phi Epsilon also tied for third place honors, downed Alpha Phi Delta, 3-1. Alpha Phi Delta picked up its lone point in the second game with 765 pins. SPE won the match, 2333-2075, and now holds the highest match rolled in the A loop.

Delta Tau Delta beat Alpha Epsilon Pi, 3-1, pulling its record to 9-11. DTD registered 2032 points to the loser's 1943. AEPi took the first game, but relinquished its advantage in the second game, and was never able to overtake the Delts.

In the other A League match Tuesday, Tau Phi Delta collected three points in the win column, beating Alpha Gamma Rho, 3-1. Phi Gam won the first game, but lost the match, 2120-2095. Tau Phi Delta pressed its attack with a high game of 750 pins. Tau Phi Delta and AEPi are now knotted for fifth place with 7-13 slates.

IM Handball —

 John Pepe beat Triangle's Jim Henry, 21-6, 21-3. Phi Delta Theta's Milt Plum defeated Alpha Gamma Rho's Ralph Heister 21-4, 21-4.

The most exciting match Tuesday was between Alpha Tau Omega's Howard Van Matre and Alpha Chi Sigma's John Iddon. Van Matre took the first game 21-15, lost the second 14-21, then came back to win the match in the deciding frame, 21 to 20.

In Monday night's activities, 12 wins were posted including Sigma Nu's Bob Schrader over Dick Wagner, Phi Kappa Tau, 21-19, 21-14. Alpha Zeta's John Wright defeated Phi Mu Delta's Jim Bender 21-0, 21-2.

In two close matches, Tau Kappa Epsilon's Walt Fresch edged Phi Gamma Delta's Bob Bookman, 21-18, 21-17, and Delta Sigma Phi's Lloyd Mengle had to come from behind to defeat Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Jake Timbers 15-21, 21-9, 21-16.

Phi Gamma Delta's Terry Hutton won by identical 21-10 games over Sigma Chi's John Haas. Sigma Pi's Bill Taber defeated Sid Grobman, Phi Epsilon Pi, 21-8, 21-13; Kappa Delta Rho's Dave Hamrick beat Bob Weiss, Alpha Tau Omega 21-3, 21-17; Theta Kappa Phi's Ron Grapsy defeated George Seiders, Triangle, 21-1, 21-0; and Ed Henrie of Sigma Alpha Epsilon lost to Sigma Alpha Mu's Al Rose, 21-4, 21-3.
