

Religion

Fellowships to Have Dinner, Discussion

The Roger Williams Fellowship will be host to the Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship for dinner at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Fellowship room of the church. A discussion will follow concerning the basic beliefs of the Evangelical United Brethren and the Baptist Churches.

Chaplan Edwerth Korte, chaplan at Gettysburg College, will speak at a meeting of the Lutheran Student Association at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Lutheran Student Center.

Sunday

Colgate Prof Will Deliver Chapel Speech

Dr. William H. Hamilton, assistant professor of theology at the Colgate Rochester Divinity School since 1953, will speak at the Chapel Services at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

His subject will be: "The Goodness of the Body."

The Chapel Choir, directed by Willa C. Taylor, will sing as the anthem, "Christ, Be Thine the Glory" by Schuetz.

Barry S. Brinsmaid, organist, will play as the prelude, "O Lamb of God, Pure, Spotless" by J. S. Bach, and as the postlude, "Toccata" by Buxtehude.

Prior to his appointment at Colgate Rochester Divinity School, Dr. Hamilton was dean of the chapel and served on the department of religion faculty at Hamilton College, Clinton, N.Y.

An undergraduate at Oberlin College from 1940 to 1943, Dr. Hamilton received his bachelor of arts degree after a three year interruption for service in the Navy. He continued his education at the Union Theological Seminary where he was conferred the bachelor of divinity degree.

Dr. Hamilton did his graduate work at Princeton University and St. Mary's College of the University of St. Andrews, Scotland, where he received his doctor of philosophy degree.

He is a member of the National Council for Religion in Higher Education and of Christian Action.

ZBT's and Dates Will Be Married For Tonight Only

Zeta Beta Tau fraternity will hold its annual marriage party tonight.

The ZBT's have given the party for the part two years and include in it everything from the certificate to the ring.

The evening is planned so that following the evening meal the brothers and guests form a procession to the women's dormitories, throwing rice. The dates are called for, and the brothers and their "temporary brides-to-be" return to the chapter house.

The evening reception is in celebration of the recent "marriages" but at 1:00 a.m. the brides must return to spinsterhood for another year.

Sophomores to Be On 'Hubzapoppin'

Sophomore weekend will be the theme of "Hubzapoppin'" to be broadcast from 7:30 to 8 tonight by station WDFM in the Hetzel Union assembly room.

Six sophomore men and women will compete against each other in the weekly quiz, with questions written by different professors.

The Association of Independent Men Band, directed by Eugene Magill, will present musical entertainment. Three tickets to the current Players' production, "Thirteen Clocks," will be given away through a drawing.

Doors of the assembly room will open at 7:20 p.m. for the audience warm-up.

"Hubzapoppin'" is directed by Robert Zimmerman; technical adviser, David Ellis; production managers, Richard Christian and Robert Bingaman.

Alpha Delta Sigma to Meet

Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary advertising society, will meet at 7:30 tomorrow at Phi Kappa.

The Young Friends will leave at 1 p.m. today from Atherton lounge to go to a foster home in Bellefonte to help the girls in the home. Anyone wishing to join the project may make arrangements with William Swartly, AD 8-6080.

The Emerson Society will have a dinner meeting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Terrace Room of the Hetzel Union Building. The topic of their discussion will be civil rights.

There will be a breakfast-seminar and a continuance of discussion on "The Christian Student and the University," led by Rev. John Duley at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the Fireside Room of the Presbyterian Student Center.

The Westminster Fellowship will meet at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the social hall for a covered dish supper and a talk on the Gold Coast by Miss Janet Asari.

The annual United Jewish Appeal Campaign for overseas relief sponsored by the Hillel Foundation will begin tomorrow and continue until March 18. The campaign will get under way tomorrow morning with a lox-and-bagel brunch. United Jewish Appeal workers will attend. Awards will be given to the fraternity, sorority, or independent groups which raise the most money per capita.

The third session in the Hillel Foundation's series on "Ideas of Good and Evil in Great Literature" will be given at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Hillel auditorium. Thomas D. Bowman, professor of English literature, will speak on Macbeth. The meeting is open to the public.

The meeting is open to the public.

Mademoiselle To Make Study Of Grad Students

Women graduate students who are candidates for advanced degrees are eligible to be interviewed by Mademoiselle magazine for a study of the "Young American Graduate Student."

The article will be particularly written for college readers who are considering graduate school.

To be eligible, women must be under 30, and studying an academic subject (not business, journalism, merchandising, or teaching). Mademoiselle is also interested in women who have recently left graduate school, either with or without a degree.

Graduate students who wish to be considered for the magazine article should send a postcard or letter with name and address to Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N.Y.

Cover Girl Contest Entry Deadline Set

Monday is the deadline for undergraduate women to enter the Campus Cover Girl Contest, sponsored by the Roto Magazine section of the Pittsburgh Press.

So far only one entry has been received.

Candidates must submit a photograph of any size by 5 p.m. Monday to the Hetzel Union desk. Names and addresses must be written on the back of the photograph.

Student Employment

Representatives from the following companies will interview June and August graduates and undergraduates for summer work. Applicants for interviews may sign up in 112 Old Main within the next two weeks. This list will be carried only once by The Daily Collegian. Interviews will be held on dates mentioned.

Ingersoll Rand—Mar. 26—ME, IE, McGraw-Hill Pub. Co.—Mar. 26—ME, AERO.E, EE, CE, IE, ARCHE, BUS, ADM, ADV.

Bell Telephone—Mar. 26-27—BUS, ADM, LA.

Carter Oil Co.—Mar. 26—P.N.G., MNG, E, FUEL, TECH, EE, CHE, GEOL, GEO, PHYS, BS and MS candidates. Also summer employment for engr. only.

I.B.M. (Financial Div.)—Mar. 26—ACCTG, BUS, ADM. (18 hrs. of acctg.)

Lincoln National Life Ins. Co.—Mar. 26—L.A. BUS, ADM, ED, GEOG, EXCD, HEALTH ED, L.M.R., PHYS, ED, PRE, MED, PSY. Also students in the same fields for summer emp.

Dow Chemical—Mar. 26-27—BIO-CHEM, CHEM, FUEL, T, ME, PETE, TEXTILE CHEM, ENGR, MECH, CHE, IE, MET, PHYS, CE, SRC, SCI: BS, MS, Ph.D. candidates. Must receive degree by Sept. 1956.

Ingersoll Rand Co.—Mar. 26-27—ME, IE, MNG, E, EE, CE: BS, MS, Ph.D. candidates: men only.

Procter and Gamble Co.—Mar. 26-27—CHE, ME, EE, IE, CE, ENGR, SCI, CHEM. Completing Jr. year or doing grad work.

Home Ec Council Holds Nominations For New Officers

Preliminary nominations of officers were made by the Home Economics Student this week.

Candidates for president are Susan Hill, junior in home economics from Old Greenwich, Conn., and Suzanne Scholl, junior in home economics from Glenshaw.

Candidates for secretary-treasurer are Beau Barnes, sophomore in home economics from Arlington, Va., and Leslie Shultz, sophomore in home economics from State College.

The runner-up for the presidency will automatically become vice president. Final elections will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in 14 Home Economics. Further nominations may be made at that time from the floor, John Seastone, council president, said.

FMA Nominations Sought by Four

Four students have applied for nominations for the board of directors of the Fraternity Marketing Association.

They are Glen Thierwechter, Theta Xi; Thomas Boyd, Alpha Gamma Rho; Frederick Longenecker, Triangle; and Matthew Gardner, Delta Sigma Phi.

Elections to the board will be held at the annual meeting in April. Also to be elected are three alumni as trustees and a member-at-large who is not a student. Nominations to the board will be accepted from the floor at the meeting.

The Student

Breakfast
Branch
Lunch
Coffee-break
Dessert
ANY PARTY

Please order
1 day ahead
AD 8-6184

LAST PERFORMANCE TONIGHT

James Thurber's

the THIRTEEN CLOCKS

Schwab Auditorium — 8:00 P.M.

Tickets are $1.00 On Sale at HUB and at Door

Olson to Speak on Children In Graduate School Series

Dr. Willard C. Olson, dean of the School of Education at the University of Michigan, will speak on "How Children Grow, Achieve, Feel, and Behave" at 8 p.m. Monday in 121 Sparks.

His lecture is one of the Graduate School Series and is co-sponsored by the College of Education. It is open to the public.

Dr. Olson has been at the University of Michigan since 1929 when he was appointed director of research in child development in the University Elementary School.

Prior to going to Michigan, Dr. Olson served 10 years on the faculty of the University of Minnesota. He also had experience as a principal and superintendent of high schools in Minnesota.

Born in Annandale, Minnesota, Dean Olson received his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Minnesota. He was a post-doctoral fellow of the Board of Fellowships in the biological sciences of the National Research Council at Minnesota from 1926 to 1927.

Among the honors received by Dean Olson are the outstanding achievement award presented in 1951 by the regents of the University of Minnesota, and the appointment in 1935 by the U.S. State Department as representative to the Royal Hungarian University in Budapest. In 1952, Dean Olson represented North America at a UNESCO-sponsored conference on the Mental Health and Education of Children of Europe.

English Prof To Give Talk

Thomas D. Bowman, professor of English literature, will be the third speaker in the "Ideas of Good and Evil in Great Literature" series. It will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Hillel auditorium.

The series, sponsored by the Cultural Committee of the Hillel Foundation, will be open to the public.

Bowman will speak on "Macbeth" and the consequences of evil which are demonstrated in the Shakespearean play.

He got his bachelor of arts degree from Brown University, Providence, R.I., and his master of arts degree from the University. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society.

Caldwell Will Address Faculty Luncheon Club

James W. Caldwell, associate professor of industrial engineering, will speak on "Europe Needs Good Industrial Management," at the Faculty Luncheon Club at noon Monday in the Hetzel Union Building.

Caldwell has recently returned from a year in Denmark where he was a Fulbright lecturer at the Technical University of Denmark.

Reading Festival

11 Finalists To Compete In Tryouts

Final tryouts for representing the University in the Pennsylvania Inter-Collegiate Reading Festival will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in McElwain Lounge.

Three out of the 11 finalists will be chosen to read in the Festival, which will be held here April 26-27, and one will be chosen to read in the Eastern Poetry Reading Festival.

The finalists, chosen out of 30 participants, are: Betty Lou Adelson, sophomore in arts and letters from Kittanning; Gerald Denisof, junior in arts and letters from Philadelphia; Patricia Doll, junior in arts and letters from York; Phoebe Felk, sophomore in arts and letters from Ambridge; Karl Held, senior in arts and letters from Neshaan, N.J.

Janet Klinghoffer, sophomore in education from Passaic, N.J.; Joanne Montgomery, senior in arts and letters from State College; John Muntone, junior in education from Shenandoah; John Olsen, sophomore in business administration from Philadelphia; Penelope Robey, freshman in arts and letters from Smethport; and Jon Wilder, freshman in arts and letters from Scranton.

Morton Slakoff, graduate student in arts and letters, from Philadelphia, will act as chairman for the tryouts. The finalists will read their own selections. Members of the speech department will act as judges.

The tryouts are open to the public.

Spring Week Committee

Spring Week Committee will meet at 2 p.m. tomorrow in 217 Hetzel Union to discuss more details concerning the Spring Week carnival.

Daniel VanDuyn, carnival chairman, will present a plan for the arrangement of booths at the carnival to the committee members.

C. V. TUMMER SAYS "USE COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS"

ZETA BETA TAU presents MARRIAGE PARTY
March 10—Open 9-?
Music by Marv Trimas Quartet

Your Favorite Photo Reprinted From Any Size Photo

20 for $1.00

- IDEAL FOR APPLICATIONS
- WALLET SIZE FOR YOUR FRIENDS
- 1 2 x 3
- Minimum Order 20

CENTRE COUNTY FILM LABORATORY
122 W. Beaver