

Defenders Black, Kane Post Wins In IM Mat Tourney

By TOM WERNER

The intramural wrestling program gathered momentum as 15 falls and six decisions were posted at Rec Hall last night.

Two-time champion Armour Black, Chi Phi, took his second decision in the 155-pound class from Bob Dorwart, Kappa Delta Rho, by a fall in 3:10.

At the same weight, Jim Cramer, Theta Delta Chi, was pinned by Jim Brubaker, Delta Upsilon, and Fred Keck, Delta Tau Delta, demonstrated a superior mat knowledge in pinning Dave Hubert, Phi Delta Theta.

Also in the 155-pound class, Norm Whitehouse, Sigma Phi Epsilon, won his second bout by pinning Bob Wilson of Sigma Pi; Terry Rebe, Phi Sigma Kappa, pinned Bob Whitaker of Alpha Gamma Rho and John Hickey, Phi Kappa, won by a forfeit from Craig Kauffman, Kappa Sigma.

A grueling bout between Bob Yeager, Beta Theta Pi, and Bob Metzger, Phi Kappa Psi, was stopped in the second period when Yeager suffered a bruised rib. Metzger was leading, 7-2.

In another of the 175-pound bouts, Tom Eynon of Theta Chi pinned Harold Pellow, Phi Kappa Sigma.

Frank Markland, Alpha Zeta, decided Glenn Eiscus, Alpha Chi Sigma, 3-1, on a take down and riding time. Robert Wenner, Pi Kappa Phi, outwrestled Fred Donahoe, Tau Kappa Epsilon, 10-2.

The shortest bout of the night put Dick Rensel, Delta Upsilon, over Bill Childs, Alpha Chi Sigma, in 1:30. Rensel took his man down and applied an efficient body press.

Gene Foster, Phi Kappa Sigma, leading 6-0, managed to pin Irwin Bass, Phi Sigma Delta, in 5:44. Independent Don Heran decided Stuart Bailey, also independent, 10-5, each man having two take downs and one escape. Charles Miller, Delta Sigma Phi, stayed on top of Bob Murray, Phi Kappa Tau, throughout their match and pinned his opponent in 4:47, at 128-pounds.

Jack Stewart, Delta Upsilon, pinned Fred Martin, Pi Kappa Phi, at 4:57. Duane Campbell, Sigma Phi Epsilon, won by forfeit over Andrew Schoerke, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Last year's 175-pound fraternity champ, Bill Kane, Kappa Delta Rho, took his heavyweight bout over Jim Ristimaki, Phi Sigma Upsilon, by a pin in 3:36. Also in the heavies, Bob Maurer, Theta Chi, pinned Charles Warren, Phi Delta Theta.

Simon Garber, Alpha Gamma Rho, decided Bill Edwards, Kappa Delta Rho. Jim Hart, Acacia, decided Jim Knepp, Alpha Chi Sigma. Dick Roschli, Kappa Delta Rho, forfeited to Raoul Casciari, Alpha Phi Delta.

Closest bout was won by Dick Lippe, Phi Epsilon Pi, who took two points in a near fall over Milton Netcher, Delta Sigma Phi, and won, 2-0. Jay Livzley, Theta Chi, pinned Dick Mirth, Theta Xi. Independent Tom Deimler pinned Herbert Hess, Terry Hunter, Beta

One Cage Playoff Slot Still Open

Only one berth remains to be filled in the 1956 Independent Intramural basketball playoffs as a result of league playoff victories registered Thursday night by the Canadian Club and the Twenty-niners.

The Canadian Club swept the League G title, squeezing by the Playboys, 24-23, while the Twenty-niners won the loop I crown with a 30-26 win over Dirty Thirty.

Only the A circuit, where the Two-Tens and the All Stars finished the regular season in a first place tie, has yet to crown a champion.

Quintets already in the playoff bracket are the Hoyas, League A champ; the B.M.O.C.'s, League B winner; the Cougars, loop D titleholder; the Gnarps, the E circuit champ; Jordan I. victors in League F; the Trojans, League H winner; and the Tribe, leaders in loop J.

Playoffs for both fraternity and independent leagues open Monday night with the new champions to be crowned Friday night.

The Canadian Club had a difficult time before downing the Playboys, 24-23. The winners held a two-point lead at intermission and had to fight off a late Playboy rally to gain the win.

Denny Uhrin and Carl Bennett split 16 points to lead the Canadian Club quintet.

The Twenty-niners avenged an early defeat to the Dirty Thirty five, 30-26. The Dirty Thirty cagers had forced a playoff for the league crown by topping the Twenty-niners in the final regular season encounter.

Mike Vignola, with ten, and Homer Gray, with seven, led the Twenty-niner attack but Pete Henninger, of the losers, topped all scorers with 15 points.

Theta Pi, stayed on top throughout and pinned Jim West, Phi Kappa Tau, in 3:20.

Jack Williams, Lambda Chi Alpha, forfeited to Harold Beury, Chi Phi. Fred Rosenmiller, Pi Sigma Upsilon, won by forfeit from Bill Caryl, Sigma Pi. Jack Morgart, Kappa Delta Rho, forfeited to Alpha Epsilon Pi's Saul Vinoker.

Beta's, Pi Kap Keep Leads

Beta Theta Pi, D League, and Pi Kappa Phi, C Loop, continued to hold first place in IM fraternity bowling competition Thursday night. Each owns 17-3 records.

In League C action, Pi Kappa Phi shutout Alpha Chi Sigma keglers, 4-0. Pi Kappa totaled 2315 points with the help of 819 pins in the first game.

Delta Upsilon downed Theta Chi, 3-1, with 2053 points. Theta Chi prevented a shutout by taking the first game with 733 points.

Sigma Chi, in second place, dropped Alpha Sigma Phi to third place, 3-1.

The other league match saw Phi Kappa Sigma beat Beta Sigma Rho, 4-0, scoring 2166 points.

Beta Theta Pi continued to roll in the D Loop beating Triangle, 4-0. The Beta's rolled two games of 744 to pace their attack.

Kappa Delta Rho split with Theta Kappa Phi, 2-2, but remained in second place with a 15-5 standing. Theta Kappa Phi scored 2262 points, but KDR took two of the three matches.

Other League D action saw Phi Kappa Sigma beat Delta Chi, 3-1; Sigma Phi Alpha beat Tau Kappa Epsilon, 4-0; and Sigma Alpha Mu shutout Alpha Tau Omega, 4-0.

PENN STATE'S Sid Nodland (left) 123 pounder and John Johnston (right) sophomore 130 pounder, relax before the start of the EIWA preliminaries yesterday in Grace Hall at Lehigh University. Talk with the two Lion grapplers is Don Millhouse, junior in business administration from State College, who—along with townspeople and students—traveled to Lehigh, Penn State, in pre-tourney predictions, was the only team that was considered powerful enough to dethrone Pitt. The Panthers won the title last year, 21-26 at Recreation Hall.

13 Initiated at S Club Meeting

Thirteen athletes have been initiated into the Varsity S Club. They are David Davis, Walter Krauser, Harold Walz, Robert McMath, Rhymes Humphreys, Stan Larimer, Alfred Williams, Dion Wiessend, Charles Christiansen, Lou Girard, Leo Kukkola, Robert Bair, and Joseph Eberly.

Speaker at the initiation meeting was Earl Bruce, freshman football coach, who outlined several suggestions to develop more interest in the club. He also suggested that the club become more financially strong, and to appoint a member from each athletic team to further S Club interest on that team.

Chairmen appointed were Frank Della Penna, dance committee; Gary Seybert, annual spring banquet; and Doug Moorhead, nominating committee to plan elections of officers.

Penn State's unbeaten 130-pound wrestler, Johnny Johnston of Clearfield, is a former Pennsylvania schoolboy champion.

The women's intramural volleyball and bowling leagues finished another week of play as six sororities took volleyball victories and three sororities copped bowling wins.

Kappa Alpha Theta hung on to a slim lead against Alpha Gamma Delta to win, 35-33. Betsy Waite led the winners with 12 points. Evie Onsa and Adela Moldovan shared 18 points for the losing Alpha Gamma Deltas.

Kappa Delta beat Alpha Omicron Pi, 40-32, with Mary Ann Spangler getting nine points for KD, and Barb Frederick and Ann Greene splitting 15 for the losers.

Beta Sigma Omicron outscored Thompson III, 35-27, in the third game of the series. Kate Metz and nine points for the winners. Mary Herbein scored six for the frosh.

Delta Gamma strung up another win by beating Kappa Kappa Gamma, 38-25. Joan Foster and Pat Stocker each scored eight points for Delta Gamma, while Mary Miller equalled it for KKG.

Alpha Epsilon Phi edged Pi Beta Phi, 37-33, behind Clare Stein's 10 points. Sara Higgon had nine for Pi Phi.

Sigma Sigma Sigma beat Chi Omega, 42-32, with Joyce Pfeiffer hitting for 16 points. Sally Rosser had 12 for Tri Sig.

Gamma Phi Beta outrolled Alpha Kappa Alpha, 553-410, in the bowling league with Jane Patton bowling 130 in the winning cause. Dahlia Johnson posted the highest total of the game with 132.

Alpha Xi Delta beat Sigma Sigma Sigma, 576-548, behind the 141 scoring of Barb Meyer. Bern Weber bowled 135 for Tri Sig.

Delta Zeta's Terry Flynn rolled 155 for the highest score in her league when DZs beat Sigma Delta Tau, 570-482. Carol Claster bowled 121 for the losers.

Barbell Club Hosts W. Chester at 2 Today

The Penn State Barbell Club will host West Chester at 2 p.m. in Recreation Hall in an effort to offset the 12-9 loss the Teachers handed it earlier this year. The Lions are 0-2 on the season, losing 14-9 to Shippensburg.

Competition will be in the 123-, 132-, 148-, 165-, 181-, 198-pound and heavyweight divisions.
