

IM Mat Duel Continues

Sigma Nu, DU, Chi Phi Battle Reaches Finals

By JOE CHEDDAR

Sigma Nu, Chi Phi and Delta Upsilon, three familiar faces in the Intramural Wrestling tournament, are again locked in a tight duel for the coveted crown after last night's semi-final round of action at Recreation Hall.

Sigma Nu is in first place with 73 points, followed by Chi Phi with 71 and DU with 65. Defending champion Chi Phi and DU appear to have the best shot at the title, since they were able to place three and two men respectively in tonight's final round while Sigma Nu could manage only one representative.

Farmelo-Land in Thriller

In last night's action, two 128 pounders, Don Farmelo of Chi Phi and Danny Land of Sigma Nu locked in one of the most thrilling matches to be seen on the mats. The score at the end of the regulation distance was 9-9, and a referee's decision was required to award the match to Farmelo.

In another 128 pound fraternity go, Jim Hart of Acacia decided Dick King of Lambda Chi Alpha, 2-1. Both boys scored an escape, but Hart had 5 seconds riding time—enough for the victory under IM rules.

Jack Stewart of Delta Upsilon entered the 145 pound finals by taking a 2-1 nod over Beta Theta Pi's Terry Hunter in a tight defensive match. Both contestants were on their feet most of the time; except for a brief period in the second frame when Stewart rode his opponent long enough to get the precious winning point.

Black in Finals for 3rd Year

Defending champion Armour Black of Chi Phi made the finals for the third successive year, winning a 9-4 decision over Jim Brubaker of Delta Upsilon. Despite the seemingly lopsided score, the match was closely fought. Black got a takedown, reversal, and riding time in the final period, when it became necessary for Brubaker to try for a fall to win.

In another fraternity 155 pound scrap, Fred Keck of Delta Tau Delta won 5-2 over Dave Barney of Sigma Nu. The score was 2-2 going into the final round, but Keck caught his opponent in an attempted sitout and bore down for a near fall and riding time, scoring the three deciding points.

In the 175 pound class Phil Sieg of Chi Phi got two takedowns on DU's Paul Brown and that enabled him to grab off a 4-3 victory. Sieg used his greater height to an advantage in winning over his opponent, a natural 155 pounder, by consistently forcing him down with body leverage.

Lentz Wins Thriller

good part of the third before Lentz sneaked out for the deciding escape with seconds remaining.

In Independent action in the 135 pound class, Chip Timmins got a referee's decision over Paul Anderson. Timmins led 3-0 with less than a minute remaining and purposely allowed his opponent to escape, hoping to finish out the match on his feet. His strategy backfired though, and he was taken down seconds before the final buzzer. The referee gave him the decision on the basis of his aggressiveness in the first two stanzas, however.

Also in the 135 pound class, Ken Goodman won 5-1 over Jim Bricker in a fast match.

Pete Fogg decided John Bittinger, 5-4, in a 155 pound bout, and in the same division Clair Heckethorn won a forfeit over Bob Stack.

Packer Named To U.S. Olympic Soccer Team

All-American soccer player Dick Packer, who broke the Lion one season and all-time scoring records last fall, has been named to the United States Olympic Team.

It is the first time that a Lion booter has achieved that distinction. Packer was the only college soccer player among 15 players to be chosen for the Olympic Games, which will be held this summer in Melbourne, Australia.

Another ex-Lion booter, Ron Coder, was named as an alternate to the team. Coder was an outstanding goalie under Bill Jeffreys, former Lion coach.

Packer, in 1955, scored 24 goals, bringing his three-year total to 53 goals, which set a new record. He was named to the All-American team in January for the second straight year.

ler scored 131 for DG. Atherton scored 551 points to Phi Mu's 454 with Barb Moore hitting for 130 points. Carol Klant had 125 for the winners. Betty Thomas was high for Phi Mu with 111 tallies.

Kappa Alpha Theta outrolled Alpha Omicron Pi 544-454 when Mary Shower bowled 138 and Jane Colclessor 191. Sally Oberle scored 110 for AOPi.
