

Chi Phi, Black Repeat As IM Mat Titlists

By EARL KOHNFELDER

Chi Phi, sparked by three-time champion Armour Black, retained its intramural fraternity wrestling title in last night's finals at Recreation Hall.

Chi Phi, with 117 team points, finished well ahead of runner-up Sigma Nu which had 91 points. Third place honors went to Delta Upsilon with 85 points while Theta Chi was just behind in fourth place with 83.

The winner was assured its second title in a row when Phi Kappa Sigma's Ray Okamoto pinned DU's Bill Duff in the night's first match. Duff's loss in the 121-pound match erased DU's all ready slim chances of capturing team honors.

DU Loses 2nd Place
Then, in the sixth match of the night, DU watched second place slip away when last year's 135-pound champ, Jack Stewart, bowed to Ed Palmer, DU, in a 145-pound match, 5-3.

Okamoto's pin over Duff came in 4:49 with Okamoto leading, 5-0. Palmer, of Sigma Nu, chose the "up" position against Stewart in the second round as a result of a first period take-down. Stewart tried to reverse, but Palmer countered each move. With Stewart up at the outset of the third period, Palmer executed a quick reverse so that Stewart's ensuing escape and takedown were in vain.

Black, who found Fred Keck of Delta Tau Delta strong throughout, got all his points in the final round for a 5-0 win in the 155-pound class. Black thus earned his third title in as many years.

Kasubick Wins
Independent Bill Pharaoh added the 165-pound title to his 155-pound crown when he edged Bob Kasubick, 5-4. Kasubick took a 4-3 lead into the final round. Pharaoh, however, got a quick predicament point.

The fraternity 165-pound title went to Theta Chi's Jay Livzey, who shut out Alpha Zeta's John Wright, 3-0. This win gave Theta Chi its fourth place finish.

Don Dolecki, 135-pounder from Sigma Chi, decided Dave Jones, Theta Chi, 5-2.

Kane Drops Match
Billy Kane, KDR's 175-pound champ from last year, conceded close to 100 pounds to Bob Gardner, Delta Sigma Phi, but managed to stay close to Gardner before dropping the heavyweight title match, 4-2.

Don Farnelo, 128, Chi Phi, lost a 9-5 decision to Jim Hart of Acacia, 9-5. Independent Chip Timmons won the 135-pound crown by beating Ken Goodman, 7-3. Independent 145-pounder Dan Rees captured a title by blanking Chip Henderson, 7-0.

The independent heavyweight title went to George Weimer when he pinned Paul Bomberger with a press in 5:05. Clair Heckathorn nipped Pete Fogg, 5-4, for the independent 155-pound championship. Phil Sieg, 175-pounder from Chi Phi, shut out SPE's Ben Lentz, 4-0.

14-Game Schedule Faces Lacrossemen

When Lacrosse Coach Nick Thiel opens his twenty-second campaign as head men tor of the Nittany Lion stickmen Thursday at Hempstead, N.Y., he will be embarking on the largest schedule ever to face a Lion lacrosse team.

Fourteen games have been carded for the 1956 stickmen, two more than the previous high of twelve which last year's aggregation encountered.

Leading off with a round-robin tournament at Hempstead—where the Lions will be seeing action against New Hampshire, Dartmouth, Adelphia, and Hofstra—and finishing with Cornell in late May, Thiel will be sending his men up against some of the best lacrosse teams in the nation.

Navy, Syracuse, Rutgers, and Loyola—who produce All-Americans by the handfull—are a few of the powerhouses that the stickmen will face.

Thiel's record at Penn State is an unimpressive 78 wins and 103 losses but when it is considered that he is coaching men who never saw a lacrosse game before coming to Penn State, his accomplishments are then seen in a more appreciable fashion.

Last season, the Lions posted their best record in five years—seven wins and five losses. This year, with the return of five lettermen and two servicemen, who saw action before entering the armed forces, Thiel has high hopes of bettering his 1955 mark.

Led by high-scoring captain Bob Hamel—an honorable mention All-America choice last year—six of the seven veterans are ticketed for a starting role. The seventh, midfield stalwart Frank home games only.

Locotos, whose skillful playing in 1955 was one of the reasons behind the Lions' success, is concerned about his grades. An eighth semester student, he feels that he will not have the available time to make the away trips.

Hamel will be at a midfield position along with letterman Jeff Bostock and John Steinmuller—one of the service veterans. The other army returnee, Lou Girard, will team up with Bill Hess, an outstanding sophomore prospect who was an All-American in high school, and either Tom Seeman or veteran Andy Bergeson at the attack spots.

Monogram winner Bob Bullock, the Lion's top defensive man, is set for one of the defensive positions. Glen Fiscus and Willard Snell will be at his side. Jim Houck, a junior from Pittsburgh, is expected to handle the goalie duties left vacant by the graduation of last year's captain Don Bell.

According to Thiel, this is only a tentative lineup which may be changed before the opener Thursday.

Phi Tau Dethrones AGR in League A

For six weeks Alpha Gamma Rho held the first place position in Fraternity League A bowling. Last week the AGR's were conquered by Phi Kappa Tau, but still remained in a tie for the number one spot. Tuesday night Phi Tau continued its bid for the top spot and succeeded.

In blanking Delta Tau Delta, Phi Tau took a one-point lead over AGR, who dropped one game to Phi Gamma Delta, 3-1. Phi Tau also established a new three-game team total of 2432.

Tau Phi Delta defeated the Alpha Zeta keglers 3-1. Alpha Phi Delta dropped three points to Alpha Epsilon Pi, and the Delta Sigma Phi bowlers topped the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon in another of the 3-1 matches.
