

Poster Contest, Dinners To Start Greek Week

Greek Week Posters Due At HUB Today

Mixed Dinners To Be Held By Greeks

The deadline for Greek Week posters to be turned in at the Hetzel Union desk has been extended to 5 p.m. today, according to Frank McFaden, contest chairman.

Posters are required to be 17x22 inches and two dimensional. Photographs may be used as part of the poster and the name of the contributing group must appear on the poster, but not necessarily on the design, McFaden said.

Judges for the contest are Mrs. Helen S. Galbraith, associate professor of applied arts; Andrew W. Case, professor of fine arts; and Harold E. Dickson, professor of fine arts.

Posters will be judged on the basis of originality, simplicity, neatness, and adherence to theme. The theme is Greeks in Brotherhood.

One fraternity and one sorority will be chosen as winners and presented trophies at the Inter-Fraternity-Panhellenic Council banquet on April 18.

Hat Societies To Aid 5 Boys

Five high school boys from the State College area will be sent to the Keystone Boys' Camp in Lock Haven this summer as guests of the Hat Society Council, Donald Reidenbaugh, president, has announced.

The council presented the American Legion, sponsors of the camp, with a check for $225, which will pay camp expenses from June 21 to 30 for five boys.

Boys interested in attending the camp must be between the ages of 16 and 18 and sponsored by a parent, guardian, business or civic organization, or local Legion Post or Auxiliary Unit.

A screening board will select the boys who will attend the camp. Robert Steele, sophomore in Arts and Letters from State College, will represent the Hat Society Council on the board.

Hat Council Fixes Application Dates

Deadlines for filling out hat society application cards have been announced by Donald Reidenbaugh, president of the Hat Society Council.

Fourth and fifth semester men interested in being tapped by Androcles or Blue Keys, should turn in cards to the Hetzel Union desk before 5 p.m. Friday.

Sixth and seventh semester men interested in Parmi Nous or Skull and Bones should turn in cards before April 24.

WDFM Music Candidates

Candidates for the WDFM music library staff will meet at 7 tonight in 307 Sparks.

Childhood Education Group

The Association for Childhood Education will meet at 7 tonight in Atherton Lounge.

Leagues To Receive Diagrams

The dean of men's office will distribute diagrams of fraternity and dormitory league softball playing fields to dormitory athletic chairmen and fraternities.

The newly-formed West Dorms league will use three of the five fields on the golf course and the Nittany-Pollock league will use six of the nine playing fields near the East Dorms.

Assistant to the dean of men William B. Crafts again warned dormitory students yesterday that all ball playing should be done on the assigned recreation areas and not near the dormitories. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action, he said.

Dormitory unit entries for league competition must be turned into the dean of men's office by 4:10 p.m. Friday. A $1 entry fee will be charged each team.

Team play for the East Dorms league will begin Monday. Crafts said it is hoped that the West Dorms league will be able to begin play then too.

All West Dorms unit athletic chairmen will meet at 6:45 tonight in Hamilton lounge to receive playing instructions. Those not able to attend the meeting should send a substitute, Crafts said.

A roster of players must be submitted for a team in either league. New players may be added during the season. Students must play for the unit in which they live.

Those interested in umpiring for the West Dorms league may contact Joseph Pino, 111 Jordan Hall, or Jack Conner, B18 Hamilton Hall.

'News and Views' Names 11 to Staff

Eleven home economics students have been named to staff positions on "News and Views."

Barbara Shafer was named editor. Other positions are Elizabeth Marvin, managing editor; Dorothy Zglinski, assistant to the editor; Charlotte Flack, associate editor; Karen Bixler, national advertising manager.

Evelyn Krusko, local advertising manager; Marion Ernest, circulation manager; Mary Lou Astie, business manager; Joan Reitz, secretary; Elizabeth Beveridge, publicity director; and Eleanor Daniels, art and feature editor.

Erection of 'Hall' May Begin Today

Workmen on the Hall of the Americas, classroom building being constructed across from the Hetzel Union Building, may get out of the ground today if some steel for the building's skeleton arrives.

At present the foundation is almost completely finished and water piping is being laid.

The building which is to be finished for fall 1957, will include 65 classrooms and facilities for 110 faculty offices.

A spokesman for the construction company said he expects the skeleton to be finished in about a month.

Chapel Progressing Work is also progressing on the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Memorial Meditation Chapel, which is to be finished for this fall.

Workmen have finished plastering the interior and are now working on the trim and painting the exterior trim of the brick structure.

Some window panes remain to be installed, as well as laying floor boards. Men are also working to clean the landscape.

The entire Helen Eakin Eisenhower Memorial Chapel is expected to be completed over the next several years.

Roofing Completed The roofing to the two new wings of the University Hospital have been completed and workmen are now plastering the walls. The first load of drainage pipes for the women's dormitories to be constructed along E. College avenue behind Simmons Hall arrived at the site yesterday. Lumber had been placed there late last month.

Other projects totaling about $12.5 million have been proposed by the University to the General State Authority — borrow-and-build branch of the state government.

Greek Week exchange dinners will be held beginning at 5 p.m. tomorrow with 49 fraternities and all 22 sororities participating.

Representatives from three or four sororities will go to each fraternity. Each individual sorority will have two representatives at each fraternity.

Fraternity men will pick up the women at 5 p.m. tomorrow at Atherton, McElwain, Simmons, and Grange dormitories. The fraternity exchanges will be eating in Simmons, McElwain, Atherton, and MacAllister. Due to the smaller number of sorority women there will be only six or eight women eating in each fraternity.

The number of women going to each fraternity was based on the response of the fraternities to post cards which were sent out several weeks ago by exchange dinner chairmen, Martha Michener and George Remmey.

In an effort to relieve some of the confusion which has arisen over the exchange dinners in past years, the committee chairmen have asked all sorority women who signed information sheets for the exchange dinners to appear in person rather than getting a substitute. They said that the reason for this was because the fraternities have been sent the names of those who are signed up for that fraternity.

Besides Miss Michener and Remmey, those who served on the exchange dinners committee were John Starkey, Robert Jones, James Corrigan, Daniel Long, Frederick Miller, Joanne Seaman, Shirley Choate, Martha Rankin, Rita Berger, and Jacqueline Weber.

2 Students Lose Driving Privileges

Traffic Court suspended the driving privileges of two students for a period of 60 days Monday night.

The amount of fines collected was $67, while $43 in fines was suspended, and one case dismissed. Students who receive fine suspensions do not pay for their violation unless they receive another ticket.

A breakdown of the total shows $51 collected for traffic violations, $8 for failure to report to Campus Patrol office within 24 hours after receiving a ticket, and $8 for failure to register vehicles.

Three students were fined $12 for failure to report to Traffic Court. A total of 15 students appeared before the court.
