

Netmen Open Season; Defeated by Navy, 9-0

The Penn State tennis team opened its 1956 season with a 9-0 loss to the midshipmen of Annapolis on the victor's Maryland courts yesterday.

Playing against a steadier team on slow courts made a decisive difference during the meet, in which all matches were hard fought and could have gone either way, scores notwithstanding, according to players who participated.

Number one man on the team was Ed Seiling who dropped two straight sets to his Navy opponent, Tom Lynch, 4-6, 3-6.

Sophomore Fred Trust, second man on the line, fought the hardest match of the afternoon before dropping his second set out of three.

Midshipman Reed Lewis wound up his game with an 8-6 winning third set, having dropped the middle set, 4-6, and won the first 6-4.

Trust's Debut
Trust granted his opponent experience and confidence in this, his first collegiate tennis meet. In the third set there was heavy play until Trust lost his serve and, a little later on, the match.

Captain Chuck Christiansen facing Navy man John Griffith seemed to be matched evenly after their second set, which Christiansen won 6-2, after losing the first 2-6. In the third set, however, Griffith pulled away to win, 8-6.

Dean Mullen lost two consecutive sets to Navy's Don Clark 2-6, 4-6, in the number four slot, and Doug Zuker, the number five man, also dropped two straight to Forrest Hanvey, 2-6, 2-6.

Doubles Results
Last Nittany man on the squad, Louis Adler fared no better than his two teammates before him as he lost two to Dick Hanson, 3-6, 3-6.

In the doubles matches the Lion netmen again failed to garner a single win.

First team of two to go down was Trust and Mullen who faced Navy men Lynch and Lewis and lost 3-6, 3-6.

The second pair, Christiansen and Seiling, lost to Griffith and Hanson, 1-6, 2-6.

The last Lion pair, Joe Eberly and Al Williams, took their match into a third set, defeating midshipmen Clark and Hanvey 6-4 after a losing 2-6 first set. The third was closely fought, but lost to Navy, 4-6.

Terrapin Prospects
Although the meet was decisively one sided, Coach Sherman Fogg expressed optimism at his team's showing, claiming that with a few more days of practice the Nittany players might have been able to reverse the scores in a few instances.

The Netmen will be showing their wares to the home folks on Saturday when the Terrapins of Maryland, contenders for national honors, move into town.

Conditions on home grounds, that of speed and familiar terrain, are expected to make the Lions anything but an easy mark for their southern rivals, according to Fogg.

Field and Stream

There will be meeting of the Field and Stream Division of the Penn State Outing Club at 7:30 tonight in 217 Willard.

Professor George Harvey will speak on fishing in Pennsylvania.

Leonides, KAT Meet In Pin Final

Leonides and Kappa Alpha Theta copped victories over Delta Zeta and Beta Sigma Omicron in the coed intramural bowling league and semi-finals last night to gain the chance to meet each other on the White Hall alleys tonight to decide the ten pin championship.

DZ will tangle with Beta Sigma Omicron for the third place slot. Lee Hart's 144 points led the Leonides quintet in a 632-624 victory over League IV's top contender, Delta Zeta, despite a 150 bame by the loser's Nancy Snyder.

Ginny Ball rolled 132 for the "Indies." Mary Gower was a mainstay for DZ when she hit for 133 points.

Farrell Tops Scorers
Pat Farrell was the scoring star of the night when she bowled a nifty 172 game, tops for the league, in Kappa Alpha Theta's 604-593 victory over Beta Sigma Omicron.

Mary Shower was second highest scorer for the winners when she rolled a 134 average.

Barb Cox headed the Beta Sigma Omicron quintet with 136 points. Pat Barnitz, Kay Meta, and Juanita Quarles bowled better than average games for the losers.

Finalists Notch Tuesday's Tilts
Leonides beat Alpha Xi Delta 661-524 and Delta Zeta defeated Pi Beta Phi 663-557 on Tuesday night to enable them to play in the semi-finals.

Carole Bradt led the Independents with 147 points. Gail Lundgren, Ginny Ball, and Lee Hart bowled high 130 games in the victory. Barb Meyer was the loser's best bet with a 134 score.

Barb Drum and Terry Flynn were the sparkplugs in the DZ win over Pi Phi when they rolled high scores of 148 and 143. Sue Mortensen was high for Pi Phi with 139 points.

Finding a replacement for Lenny Moore, star running back, looms as Penn State coach Rip Engle's No. 1 problem in 1956.

Golf Managers

Candidates for second assistant golf manager may sign up at 249 Recreation Hall. Candidates should have a 2.0 all-University average.

8 Badminton Flights Reach Quarterfinals

The eight flights of the Intramural Fraternity Badminton League each attained quarterfinal status last night at Recreation Hall when 15 bird-batters copped decisions.

In flight five play, Ronald Lentz, Delta Sigma Phi, eliminated Theta Delta Chi's John Fracalossi, 15-5, 15-7. Michael Paules, Chi Phi, whipped John Carpenter, Delta Chi, 15-3, 15-10. Chris Kuebler, SAE, rolled over Mark Roller, Delta Sigma Lambda, 15-2, 15-14. In the remaining flight five fracas, KDR's Stan Cheslock beat Dave Jones, Theta Chi, 15-10, 15-5.

Flight six play saw James Machlan, Theta Xi, dispose of James Mayes, DU, 15-6, 15-7. Ron Rainey, Pi Kappa Phi, nipped Frederic Thompson, Lambda Chi Alpha, 15-11, 15-11. Bijur, Beta Theta Pi, was extended by Bill Wild, Alpha Sigma Phi, before winning, 15-5, 13-15, 15-11. Gary Fox, SAM, outsmarted Donald Abraham, Alpha Chi Rho, 15-1, 15-1.

John Bischoff, Phi Delta Theta, was a flight seven winner over Sheldon Freedman, Alpha Epsilon Pi, 15-0, 15-5. Alpha Chi Sigma's Ken Christiansen had an even easier time with Bill Gallagher, Phi Kappa, 15-1, 15-0.

Other flight seven winners were Oscar Knight, AGR, and John Giles, Phi Sigma Kappa. Taber, Sigma Pi, bowed to Knight 15-4, 15-5, while Herbert Roos, Alpha Rho Chi, lost to Giles, 15-7, 15-7.

Flight eight winners were Harvey Nixon, Phi Epsilon Pi; Matthew Friedberg, Beta Sigma Rho; and John Wright, Alpha Zeta.

McPeak Named Assistant Coach

PITTSBURGH, April 11 (AP)—Walter Kiesling, head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, today named Bill McPeak, veteran Steler end, as a full time assistant and player-coach.

McPeak, 29, of New Castle, Pa., has been on the Steeler squad for eight years.

Thiel to Juggle Lion Lineup for Loyola

"Never change a winning combination" is a common expression in the world of sports.

Although Lacrosse Coach Nick Thiel is not exactly "changing his winning combination", his starting lineup will be juggled somewhat when the Lion stickmen try to stretch their winning streak to five at Loyola of Baltimore, Friday afternoon.

The starting team will not be the same that opened against New Hampshire at the Hofstra tournament but each man who is ticketed for a first team berth against Loyola, started in at least one of the other three Hofstra tourney victories.

Attack to Remain Intact
Only the three attack positions will remain intact. Sophomore scoring star, Bill Hess, army vet Lou Girard, and junior Tom Seeman will man these spots. The 5-7 150-pound Girard suffered a lip injury in the Adelphi contest and was forced to miss the Hofstra game. But according to Thiel, the injury has been treated and Girard will be available for service Friday.

Only one change will be made on defense. Pittsburgh sophomore Harry Brown will replace Glenn Fiscus who is being switched to a starting midfield post. Brown will be flanked by Willard Snell and letterman Bob Bullock.

Snell Praised
Snell came in for some praise by his coach for his defensive performance in the Hofstra encounter. According to Thiel, Snell made more goal stops than the goalie, Jim Houck.

At midfield, the most troublesome spot on a Lacrosse team, Thiel will call on Captain Bob Hamel, veteran Andy Bergeson, and Fiscus to fill the starting lineup.

May Miss Trip
There is a chance that Hamel, a high scoring ace for the past two years, will not make the trip because his wife is expecting a second child. In the event that Hamel does not make the trip, letterman Jeff Bostock will replace him.

In the second midfield, which can be classified as another starting team since they see as much action as the first squad, Thiel will have Bostock, ex-serviceman

AGR, Phi Tau Tied; Bowling Nears Finish

With only one week of bowling remaining for Fraternity League A, Alpha Gamma Rho and Phi Kappa Tau are tied. The AGR's were one game off the Phi Kap pace but closed the gap Tuesday night as they polished off Tau Phi Delta, 4-0, while Phi Tau was losing a point to Sigma Phi Epsilon, 3-1.

Leon Eshelman aided the AGR cause as he rolled the single game high of the evening with a 225-527.

But AGR will have to have a hot game next week to beat or even tie the Phi Tau.

AGR meets a fairly good bowling five in Alpha Zeta while Phi Tau's competition will be Alpha Epsilon Pi.

The AEPi's dropped a 4-0 decision to Delta Sigma Phi Tuesday night.

AGR's opposition next week, Alpha Zeta, took a 3-1 match from Alpha Phi Delta's keggers. The Alpha Phi Delta's lone point was via a 716-713 third game score.

In the fifth and final match of the evening, Delta Tau Delta outrolled Phi Gamma Delta. Phi Gam won the first tilt 660-647, but Delta Tau Delta came back in the last two, winning 754-662, 750-657.

DTD also took the three game total with a 2141 effort compared to Phi Gam's 1979.

John Steinmuller and sophomore Fred Donahoe.

Junior Jim Houck, of Pittsburgh, again will handle the duties at the goal.

PIZZA

as you like it

THE TAVERN

NOW'S THE TIME to Buy Those
LIGHTWEIGHT JACKETS
for Early Spring

White Duck Jackets with the Penn State Seal. A must for spring weather. Good looking as well as useful. Washable, too.

Only $5.95

Hur's Men's Shop

Opposite Old Main

This Space . . . . RESERVED . . . .

for STUDENTS who want to SAVE MONEY!

WHERE?? HOW??

See Daily Collegian on "Lucky for You"

Day — FRIDAY, APRIL 13th for details.