

Cabinet Votes to Buy New Piano for Rec Hall

All-University Cabinet passed by four votes last night a recommendation to buy a $2359.70 piano for Recreation Hall. To be final, the recommendation will have to be given a second approval at next week's meeting.

Philip Beard, retiring All-University secretary-treasurer, in presenting the recommendation asked Cabinet members to seriously consider the purchase and express their thoughts at the next meeting.

Specialization In Chem Phys Is Questioned

Are courses in the College of Chemistry and Physics too specialized?

The general opinion of the Chemistry and Physics Student Council at its meeting Tuesday night was that some courses have already been revised, and thus the question of "too many specialized courses" doesn't apply to this college as much as others.

Some required courses, it was pointed out, have been changed to electives.

"There may be room for improvement," Joseph Eberly, council president, said, "but now we stand as well off as we can hope."

The college will hold its Science Fair open house on April 28. Over 30 exhibits are expected from numerous high schools throughout the state. The open house is to coincide with the College of Mineral Industries open house.

A committee was appointed to revise sections of the council's constitution. Chairman is Thomas Cross, sophomore in chemical engineering from Union, N.J. Others include David Griswold, sophomore in chemistry from Philadelphia; Ken Christiansen, junior in chemical engineering from Fanwood, N.J.; and Eberly, junior in physics from State College.

15 Townspeople Named to Judge Miss Penn State

Fifteen townspeople have been named to judge the preliminary entrants for the Miss Penn State Contest.

The preliminary judging will be held April 25 at the Presbyterian Church at the corner of Beaver Avenue and S. Frazier Street.

Judges for the contest will be Mrs. Robert Breon, Jr., and Robert Breon, Sr., owner of the Penn State Photo Shop; Jack Harper, owner of Jack Harper's Men's Store; Gene Fulmer, secretary of the State College Area Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Melvin Smith, manager of Katz Store; Mrs. Ruth Meyers, manager of Simon's Shoe Store; Fred Metzger, owner of Metzger's; William Kalin, owner of Kalin's Men's Store; James Kenney, manager of Vogue Beauty Salon; Joseph Porter, owner of Porter Brothers paint store; Mrs. Richard Fedon and Richard Fedon, president of the State College Area Chamber of Commerce; Robert McLanaran, owner of McLanaran's Drug Store; and Murray Gritzman, owner of Murray Jewelry Co.

Candy Machines Installed in HUB

Seven candy machines have been installed in the Lion's Den in the Hetzel Union Building and the Snack Bar in Waring Hall.

The four machines in the HUB and the three in Waring Hall were put in to cut down on lengthy waiting by students wanting to buy candy. Formerly, candy counters were located at the ends of the two snack bars and students wanting candy often had to wait in line.

The Waring Hall candy counter is now being used to display University bakery products and the Lion's Den candy counter is being used to display books and pictures related to the new Players' show, "The Lady's Not for Burning."

Junior Gets $53 in Fines, Office Pro

A student who was fined $53 by State College authorities for disorderly conduct and entering a local tavern after 7 p.m. unaccompanied by parents was placed on office probation by the dean of men's office yesterday.

The office approved a Tribunal recommendation made Tuesday night after the judicial body had heard the case.

James Corrigan, junior in business administration from Hazleton, told Tribunal he and some of his fraternity brothers had gone to a local bar the evening of April 4.

After consuming a large amount of beer, Corrigan said, the group left the bar shortly after midnight. State College police, investigating another case, picked him up for disorderly conduct.

Corrigan was taken to the police station and held overnight. On the way to the station, he said, he told police he was 21. When asked for his matriculation card, Corrigan admitted his correct age of 19.

Borough authorities tried Corrigan on two charges: disorderly conduct, and entering a tavern after 7 p.m. unaccompanied by parents. He was found guilty of both and fined $5 plus $11.50 costs on the first charge, and $25 plus $11.50 costs on the second charge.

The office probation sentence approved by the dean of men's office will not be placed on Corrigan's transcript.

Debate

Men's Team Enters Tourney

The men's debate team will enter the Dickinson Novice Debate tournament today and tomorrow at Dickinson College.

The tournament is open to debaters who have not been entered in a major tournament before this year.

The topic for the debate will be, "Resolved: That the non-agricultural industries of the United States should guarantee their workers an annual wage."

Jay Tolson, junior in business administration from Merion, and Jay Feldstein, freshman in arts and letters from Elizabeth, will make up the affirmative team.

The negative team will be composed of Gerald Bogus, freshman in arts and letters from Brownsville, and Robert Neff, sophomore in agricultural education from Pottstown.

Casarella, Nowicki Will Head Froth

Ronald Casarella and Ronald Nowicki have been announced as co-editors of Froth replacing Byron Fielding.

Other senior board promotions are James Olmes and Al Klimcke, associate editors replacing John McGarvey. George Shambaugh, editorial director, and Forney Miller, photography director replacing Ronald Walker.

The new art director is Phillip Steel replacing Ronald Casarella and William Shelly. Judith Tame replaces Nancy Rees and Nedd Mamrosh as copy director.

The new senior board will go into effect for the May issue of Froth.

Degree Candidates

Home Economics comprehensives for candidates for M.S. and M. Ed. degrees will be given May 12 from 1 to 4 p.m. in 114 Home Economics.

Students should sign up by April 23 in 103 Home Economics.

BELLEFONTE Adults 55c - Child, 25c

PLAZA Last Times TODAY
 Jeff Morrow - Rex Reason
 "Creature Walks Among Us"
 Starts Sat. - "ROSE TATOO"

BELLEFONTE STATE
 TONITE & SAT.
 Sterling Hayden
 "TOP GUN" - in Color!
 also Bill Bryant - "King Dinosaur"

The piano decided upon, a Steinway Model L, would be bought from Kauffman's Company, of Pittsburgh.

Speaking against the recommendation, Myron Feinsilber, editor of The Daily Collegian, said it is more than silly for Cabinet to buy the piano.

It is not that group's function to purchase equipment for the University, he said.

Beard replied that although the piano would become the property of the University, the students would benefit because of the numerous dances and concerts held in Rec Hall.

Cabinet also defeated a proposed amendment to the constitution to drastically revise the Interclass Budget System.

The amendment would have set up a Board of Budget and Finance to make all appropriations to student organizations which receive funds from student fees. It also called for the formation of a committee on student welfare and activities to "control the distribution, other than to student organizations, of funds for the benefit and general welfare of the students."

Beard said the Interclass Finance Board met with the two creators of the proposed amendment, and they subsequently decided not to set up any more organizations that "might create more bureaucracy than we now have."

The new All-University officers were sworn in at the meeting, as were the newly-elected presidents of the Interfraternity Council, the Mineral Industries Student Council, and the Athletic Association.

Samuel Wolcott, former president of the sophomore class, was installed as parliamentarian.

Workman Falls Through Ceiling

Students playing records in the listening room of the Hetzel Union building were mildly surprised Tuesday when a man came tumbling down through the ceiling.

The incident occurred while workmen were installing piping for the air-conditioning system in the president's suite on the second floor of the HUB. A plumber lost his footing on a catwalk between the false ceiling of the ground level and the second floor, and fell through the cork tile ceiling.

The workman was uninjured, but, in his fall, left a gaping hole in the ceiling.

Officials of the physical plant said the ceiling will not be repaired until the workmen complete installation of the air-conditioning system.

5 More Measles Cases Reported by Infirmary

Five new cases of measles were reported yesterday by the University infirmary.

This raises the number of students confined with German, or three-day, measles to nine. Measles cases have been isolated in temporary wards set up in Grange dormitory.

Mr. Spud
 Breakfast
 Lunch
 Coffee-break
 Dessert
 ANY PARTY

Please order 1 day ahead
 AD 5-6184

IFC Preliminaries To Continue Tonight

The second round of preliminaries in the Interfraternity Council-Panhellenic Council Sing will begin at 7 tonight in 110 Electrical Engineering.

Both defending champions, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Kappa Alpha Theta, will be singing tonight. The Tekes are directed by Charles Springman, senior in music education from Springdale, and the Thetas are directed by Dixie Waring, senior in home economics from Shawnee-on-Delaware.

The finals will be held Sunday night in Schwab. Eight finalists, four fraternities and four sororities will compete for the trophy which stays with the group which wins three years running.

Tonight's Judges
 The judges for tonight's preliminaries will be Barry S. Brinsmaid, assistant professor of music; Elmer C. Wareham, instructor in music; Mrs. Louise Roscoe, organist of the Episcopal Church; Dr. Martin McFeatters, State College dentist; and Richard Thorne, music instructor at State College High School.

If they repeat last year's victories, both the Tekes and Thetas will gain permanent possession of the trophies. Tau Kappa Epsilon has a streak of five straight winning years running, and Kappa Alpha Theta has won for the past two years.

Schedule Revised
 A revised schedule has been released for tonight's singing. The schedule is as follows: Beta Sigma Omicron, 7:00; Tau Kappa Epsilon, 7:05; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 7:10; Kappa Delta Rho, 7:15; Delta Gamma, 7:20; Delta Sigma Phi, 7:25; Alpha Omicron Pi, 7:30; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 7:35; Alpha Xi Delta, 7:40; Alpha Tau Omega, 7:45; Alpha Gamma Delta, 7:50; Delta Sigma Lambda, 7:55; Theta Chi, 8:00; Phi Kappa Psi, 8:05; Gamma Phi Beta, 8:10; Delta Zeta, 8:15; Sigma Sigma Sigma, 8:20; Kappa Alpha Theta, 8:25.

1956 Press Seminar
 The 1956 Press Seminar, "Crisis in Financing Health, Education, and Welfare," will be concluded today. Approximately 45 newspapermen and State and University officials opened the affair yesterday at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Pledges Hear Wherry Urge Cooperation

The outstanding pledges of each fraternity and sorority last night were urged to bring closer together our "professions of democracy" and our "practice of it" by Dr. Ralph D. Wherry, professor of commerce, at the Outstanding Pledge Banquet in the Hetzel Union Building.

Wherry told the pledges that if they did not work to achieve this goal racial and religious prejudices would be allowed to creep in, making a mockery of the word democracy and disgracing every citizen of same democracy.

A great aid in reaching this goal, Wherry said, is learning how to get along with people in order to understand their points of view. He said that membership in a fraternity during college years was one good way to learn this.

However, Wherry emphasized the point that this great fraternal opportunity will only benefit the student if he makes good use of his facilities.

As an example of the cooperation which is essential to further the ends of democracy, Wherry cited the local issue of fraternities and their neighbors. He said that he felt that fraternities could improve their relationships with the townspeople, who are their neighbors.

Wherry said in conclusion that people should put aside their zeal to develop self-interest and be more reasonable of their neighbors' rights and viewpoints. This, he said, will do much to keep out those prejudices and fears which would undermine our nation.

—FRI., MAY 4—

SENIOR BALL

presents

Billy Butterfield

his trumpet and orchestra

4 Reasons why YOU should attend

- Danceable music to suit you.
- It's the last dance of the year.
- Sheer pleasure for only $5.00 a couple.
- The perfect touch to end Spring Week.

—FRI., MAY 4—