OPEN LETTER TO STAFF and STUDENTS

Greenroom
Schwab Auditorium
University Park, Pa
March 13, 1956

Dear Friend,

We are to inform you that the PENN STATE PLAYERS and THETA ALPHA PHI, national dramatics honorary fraternity, are bring to Campus The American Mime Theatre tonight only, Schwab Auditorium, 8:15 p.m.

The American Mime Theatre is the only professional mime troupe in the United States. It has performed with outstanding success in the legitimate theatre, the concert hall and repeatedly on nationally televised programs.

Mime in its simplest definition is the art of acting without words, and has been seen little in America except in Charles Chaplin.

The current repertory contains seven plays that range in subject from the legend of creation to the zany workings of a pinball machine.

We hope you will have an opportunity to see America's answer to the World Famous French Mimic, Marcel Marceau . . . The American MIME Theatre, and enjoy an unforgettable theatre experience with an audience appeal that is universal.

The Penn State Players
Theta Alpha Phi

P.S. Tickets $1.00 will be on sale at the door.
