

71 Positions Named For Encampment

Seventy-one positions chosen to attend the Fifth Student Encampment next fall were read Thursday before All-University Cabinet.

About 120 persons will attend the annual meeting, which will be held Sept. 5 to Sept. 8 at the Mont Alto Center. Of this number, 90 will be students and 30 will be faculty, administration, and townspeople.

Celebrations Planned for Pan-Am Day

The University will observe Pan-American Day today with a brief ceremony on the Old Main lawn beginning at 11:45 a.m.

The program, sponsored by the Senate Committee on International Understanding and arranged by Company B of the Fifth Regiment, National Pershing Rifles Society, is an annual event.

Dr. Kenneth R. Erfft, associate comptroller of the University, will deliver a message written by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the University. Dr. Eisenhower will deliver an address to the Pan-American Union this afternoon in Washington, D.C., for President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Bartol Coordinator

Coordinator for the University program is Henry J. Bartol, sophomore in physics from Brooklyn, N.Y.

Members of both the Army and Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps bands will participate in the program, along with an honor guard of the Scabbard and Blade sabre team.

At the conclusion of the address, members of the Pershing Rifles will raise flags of the 21 Pan-American nations.

Members From 9 Colleges

The Committee on International Understanding is composed of one representative of each college at the University. The appointments are made by Dr. Eisenhower.

The 21 Pan-American nations are Argentina, Bolivia; Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, United States, Uruguay, and Venezuela.

24 Selected For Honorary

Twenty-four seniors and recent graduates have been elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa.

The new members are: Louis Adler, Lester Alston, Jane Bergdoll, Grace Bonnett, Alice Gardner, Shirley Gills, Nancy Graumann, Carl Held, Joan Herbst, Joseph Hodorawis.

Nancy Kishlar, Sherry Kofman, Andrew Korim, Gertrude Lutz, Lucille Pinto, David Rockmore, Eleanor Rose, Warren Saunders, Thomas Scott, Judith Sedor, Mildred Sosh, Marjorie Taylor, Elizabeth Tipton, and James Valone.

The new members will be initiated at the chapter's annual spring initiation banquet May 15.

Housing Survey Members Will Meet Tuesday

Housing survey representatives of the University Christian Association, Hillel, Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and the various student religious groups will meet at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday in 410 Old Main.

A discussion will be held on the progress of the housing survey to determine how many residents are willing to rent rooms to foreign students and American Negroes.

Donald Reidenbaugh, chairman of the encampment committee, said 77.77 per cent of the students were chosen by position. Eight workshops will discuss the topics being compiled by the committee from the results of the poll sent to past participants.

Chairmen to Do Research
Chairmen for these workshops will be appointed before May 1. They will be responsible for conducting a complete and detailed research into the problems handled by their group, Reidenbaugh said.

Interviews for students not invited by position will begin about April 22 and will continue until the end of the semester.

As listed by the committee, the positions are All-University president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer; the four class presidents; the nine college council presidents.

Governing Bodies Represented
Cabinet parliamentarian, the presidents of Women's Recreation Association, Women's Student Government Association, Panhellenic council, and the Association of Independent Men.

IFC Sing Finalists Include TKE, KAT

By MIKE MOYLE

Defending champions Tau Kappa Epsilon and Kappa Alpha Theta are among the eight finalists who will compete in the finals of the Interfraternity Council-Panhellenic sing at 7 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

The eight finalists were selected after last night's preliminaries in 110 Electrical Engineering.

Other than these two, all the others are newcomers to the finals this year. Fraternity finalists with the Tekes are Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Delta, and Phi Gamma Delta. Sorority finalists are Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Delta Delta, and Gamma Phi Beta.

The judges selected four finalists from both nights of competition. Two fraternities and two sororities were picked from each night.

The fraternities who were in last year's finals but failed to gain that position this year are Beta Theta Pi, Chi Phi, Delta Chi.

The sororities who were finalists last year are Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Delta Zeta.

6th Time in Finals

Tau Kappa Epsilon will enter the finals for the sixth straight year. They have won the title for the past five years. The Tekes are directed by Charles Springman.

Kappa Alpha Theta, directed by Dixie Waring, has two straight titles to their credit. The Thetas also were finalists in 1951.

A permanent trophy is given to the fraternity and sorority who win three straight years in their division.

Both Nights Crowded

An overflow crowd packed 110 Electrical Engineering on both nights of preliminaries.

The judges for last night were Barry S. Brinsmaid, assistant professor of music; Elmer C. Wareham, instructor of music; Mrs. Louise Roscoe, Episcopal Church organist; Dr. Martin McFeatters, State College dentist; and Richard Thorne, instructor of music at State College High School.

Judges for Thursday night's preliminaries were Brinsmaid, Wareham, Leland S. Rhodes, professor emeritus of civil engineering; and Henry Loewen, supervisor of instrumental music for the State College Area schools.

The system of giving a permanent trophy for three wins was instituted last year. Second place winners now receive permanent.

Gift Suggestion Ends Thursday

Suggestion boxes for the senior class gift will remain until Thursday at the main desk of Hamilton Hall, the Hetzel Union desk; Grange, McElwain and Simmons dormitories.

Students who want to put suggestions in the boxes may do so individually or in groups.

Any group that wishes, may publicize its suggestion at any campus location including the Hetzel Union Building. However, all posters or other advertising must be taken away from the HUB one week before voting on the gift takes place.

Seniors may vote for the gift when they pick up their LaVie's in June.

Students May File For Final Conflicts

Students who must file for conflict final examinations may do so at the scheduling office in the basement of Willard.

Deadline for filing conflict exams is April 21.

In order to file for a conflict, a student must have three or more finals scheduled on the same day.

Warm, Cloudy Weather Predicted

The forecast for today is scattered clouds with no rain, according to the students in the department of meteorology. Partly cloudy with little change from today is predicted for Sunday.

Work Sessions Set For Greeks Today

Fraternities and sororities will hold Greek Week Projects Day at 12:30 today by cleaning up and painting 25 area churches, playgrounds, and schools.

More than 1000 fraternity and sorority members are expected to pitch in with the annual affair in which the Greeks are following their theme, "Greeks in Brotherhood." Spring renovation will include painting, cleaning and rubbish cleanup.

As in the past the weather will not hamper the Greeks with the projects going on as scheduled, "rain, or shine."

The projects are: Matternville school, cleanup and paint—Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Chi Sigma, Gamma Phi Beta; Centre County Home, cleanup—Sigma Pi, Chi Phi, Zeta Tau Alpha; Lemont playground, cleanup—Zeta Beta Tau, Beaver House, Alpha Epsilon Phi; Woodycrest playground, cleanup and paint—Delta Sigma Lambda, Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi; Easterly Parkway school, playground equipment—Phi Mu Delta, Phi Mu.

E.U.B. Church, cleanup—Alpha Chi Rho, Delta Delta Delta; Centre County Library, cleanup—Phi Kappa, Sigma Delta Tau; Westview playground, cleanup—Phi Gamma Delta, Theta Chi, Delta Gamma; College Heights playground, cleanup—Phi Sigma Kappa, Alpha Xi Delta; Panarama Village, stone fence at playground—Theta Xi, Alpha Zeta, Delta Zeta; Catholic Cemetery, cleanup—Theta Kappa Phi.

Four late additions to the list have been made to the project. These are: Community Field tennis courts and baseball field, cleanup—Beta Sigma Rho, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Delta Theta Sigma; Houserville Church, cleanup—Phi Kappa Tau, Alpha Rho Chi; Boal Museum, cleanup—Sigma Nu; and Our Lady of Victory Church, cleanup—Theta Kappa Phi, Pi Sigma Upsilon.

Award Banquet To Be Climax Of Greek Week

The annual Greek Week festivities will be climaxed Wednesday night at the Interfraternity Council-Panhellenic banquet in the Hetzel Union building.

The speaker for the banquet will be the Reverend W. A. Hanson, retired president of Gettysburg College.

The banquet is scheduled to begin at 5:45 p.m.

Most of the awards from Greek Week will be given at the banquet. The coveted Outstanding Fraternity Award last year went to Beta Theta Pi.

Other awards will be the Sigma Chi scholarship for scholastic improvement which was won last year by Theta Chi; the outstanding sorority scholastic award, which was won by Beta Sigma Omicron; the trophies for the Interfraternity Council-Panhellenic Council Sing; and the trophy for the Greek Week Poster contest.

Also to be awarded at the banquet will be the Kent Forster Scholarship for a foreign student. The award was named in honor of the past adviser to IFC.

Eisenhower Announces Gruenther's Retirement

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 13 (AP)—U.S. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther's retirement by the year's end as supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe was announced today by President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

To succeed Gruenther—who asked to be relieved—Eisenhower chose American Gen. Lauris Norstad, a brilliant strategist and the first Air Force officer ever picked for the top North Atlantic Treaty Organization military post.

Nomination of Norstad, 49, now air deputy to Gruenther, was ratified promptly in Paris by the NATO Council.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said at Eisenhower's Augusta vacation headquarters the 57-year-old Gruenther—a close personal friend of the President—is retiring from the Army and as commander-in-chief in Europe "because of personal reasons." He did not elaborate.

In Paris, Gruenther told a press conference he had no personal plans, no other arrangement for employment in mind and "no ulterior motive" behind his resignation. He said he was stepping out to make way for younger men and new ideas.

Three years, he said, is about the maximum for a supreme Allied commander in order to maintain the viability of the alliance and to give opportunity to younger officers.

Gruenther added he is not retiring for reasons of health. Last December he underwent what was described at the time as minor surgery at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. When he left the hospital he was Eisenhower's guest for a few days in Key West, Fla., where the President was convalescing from his heart attack.

Hagerty said Gruenther—like Norstad, a brilliant planner and strategist—will leave "toward the end of this year." The press secretary added that Norstad probably will take over at that time.

Eisenhower served in 1951-52 as the first NATO supreme commander in Western Europe. Gruenther was his deputy.

In approving retirement of Gruenther at his request and the President's, the NATO Council asked Eisenhower to nominate a successor and he chose Norstad. The Council is made up of permanent representatives of NATO countries.
