

Lions Win 2, Lose 1 to Navy

Trackmen Hit Rebound, Beat Navy, Georgetown

Penn State 74, Navy 64, Georgetown 24—that's the way the score read at Annapolis, Md., Saturday when the Lion trackmen rebounded from a mediocre Quantico Relays' performance to leave the Middies and the Hoyas "biting the dust."

Captain Art Pollard, hurdler Rod Perry, and weightman Charlie Blockson each won two events to lead the Nittany scoring parade.

Pollard raced to an easy victory in the 100-yard dash in :9.9 on the dry, windy track. Navy's Joe Harrison barely nipped the Lions' Gary Seybert for second while the Middies' Ken Harrison was fourth.

Pollard won his second first place a short while later as he scampered to a :21.9 victory in the 220-yard dash. Mark O'Hara, Navy, finished second, while the Nittany's Bruce Austin was third and the Middies' Randy Teague fourth.

Perry Ties Record

Perry easily won the 120-yard high hurdles in :14.3, tying the Naval Academy record set by Pitt's Wally Monahan in 1954. Teammate Dick Winston followed Perry across the tape with Georgetown's Paul Fedak third.

The Lion hurdling standout also copped top honors in the 220-yard lows with a :24.7 time. Fedak was second with Seybert third and Navy's Percy Beard fourth.

Blockson flashed a bit of his old-time form as he grabbed first place honors in both the shot put and discus throw.

He won the shot put with a 50' 1 3/8" toss followed by Navy's Andy Longton. Georgetown's Paul Baroncelli was third with the Lions' John Tullar fourth.

Throws Discus 151'6"

Although hampered somewhat by the wind, Blockson managed to place first in the discus with a 151'6" heave. Tullar was second followed by the Middies' Ken Peterson and Larry Kaufman.

Veteran Doug Moorhead, after holding back for most of the race, opened up in the final stretch to nip Georgetown's Ron Lippmeier at the tape in the mile run. The Hoyas' John Skuta was third with Navy's Walt Meukow fourth.

Bruce Austin won another Lion first as he romped to an easy victory in the 440 in :49.7. Navy's O'Hara grabbed second place on a last second lunge across the tape before the Nittany's Jim Norton.

Nelson Wins 880

The Hoyas' Jim Nelson won one of the two Georgetown firsts by copping the 880 in 1:55.6. Meukow was second and Moorhead third.

Frank Flaging won the other Hoya first by finishing far ahead of the field in the two-mile run. The Lions' Don Woodrow beat Navy's Vince Roper for second place with a great stretch effort.

A sparkling performance by third man Bruce Austin gave the Lions the nod in the mile relay. Austin ran his quarter mile in :48.5 to overcome a Navy lead and set the stage for Norton's winning anchorman performance.

Navy again displayed outstanding power in the javelin by capturing all four places, headed by Don Alser's 207'7" toss.

Winston won the broad jump with a 22'1" leap. It was the first time he had broad jumped since his high school days.

Navy's Kaufman won the high jump with a 5'10" effort. Four others tied for second. The Middies' Dave McIntyre won the pole vault with a 13'6" leap.

Penn State's top candidates for the 1956 U.S. Olympic gymnastics team are Karl Schwenzfeier and Armando Vega.

Plebes Spoil Frosh Track Debut, 81-50

The Lion freshman track team opened its season on a dismal note Saturday at Annapolis, Md., losing to the Navy plebes, 81-50.

Ed Mora, put on a sparkling performance in a losing frosh cause as he won two firsts in the 440 and the 880—the latter breaking the old Lion freshman record.

Moran set a new mark in the 880 by grabbing first place honors in 1:55.5, breaking the old record of 1:57.9 set by Gus Ormrod last year. This also bettered the winning time in the varsity meet.

He also won an easy victory in the 440 in :50.6 After being boxed in during the early stages of the race, Moran found daylight and streaked to victory for ahead of the pack.

The Lions' Clem Schoenebeck and Fred Kerr staged a one-two race before Schoenebeck managed a last minute spurt to win the mile run. Lion frosh Sam Sherba was third.

Navy's Joe Langford sprinted to victory in the 100-yard dash in :10.6 followed by teammate Alan Smith. The Lion's Chet Cotton and Bob Manning finished third and fourth.

Pete Van Nort, Navy, won the 120-yard high hurdles in :16.2. Teammate John Kanuch was second and Dick Morse, Penn State, third.

Langford also won the 220 in :23.5 with Cotton second. Middy Joe Lawler was third and Manning fourth.

Bob Thompson won the two-mile run for the frosh in 9:53.4 with Frank Young, Navy, second. Sherba again was third.

Middy Chuck Houglund copped first place honors in the 220 low hurdles with Kanuch second and Morse third. The time was :27.0.

The plebe mile relay team beat the Lion entry on a sparkling anchor performance by Frank March. March nipped Moran at the finish line for the win.

Bob Parker won the only other Lion first as he leaped 6 feet in the high jump to beat the varsity mark. Dick Duswalt scored a second in the javelin while Jack Wambold finished second in the discus throw.

Middies Extend Mastery Over Stickmen, 17-4

One of the oldest jinxes in the history of Penn State athletics was preserved Saturday at Annapolis, Md., when Navy's unbeaten Lacrossemen handed the Lion stickmen their second loss of the campaign, 17-4.

Since the Navy-Penn State lacrosse series began back in 1919, the Middies have never fallen to the local stickmen. The service academy added victory number 27 to their record books, Saturday.

Jerry Johnston and All-American grid star Ron Beagle led the Middy attack. Johnston was the scoring leader, finding the range of the Nittany goal for four points while the 6', 190-pound Beagle proved his All-American worth at lacrosse as a bulwark on both offense and defense.

Girard Scores Twice

Attackman Lou Girard was the main threat for Coach Nick Thiel with two goals. Sophomore flash Bill Hess—the Lion scoring leader with 19 goals—was held to one goal by the stout Navy defense.

Although highly-pressed by the Middy defense, Hess still managed to come up with a standout game. His play was so sharp that Middy Coach Dinty Moore said later he would "trade any 12 of his players for Hess."

Navy Scores Early

The game was only seven seconds old when junior attackman Shannon Heyward slipped the ball past Lion goal keeper Jim Houck. Hess tied it up 45 seconds later but Navy's Jim Carter put the dents after Hess' shot.

The Middies increased their lead by a 6-2 count at the end of the first period and enjoyed a comfortable 8-3 margin at the half.

It was all Navy during the second half as the Lion's could muster only one score—that by midfielder Andy Bergeson in the third quarter. Bergeson played despite a slight shoulder separation received in the Loyola fray Friday.

Fiscus Injured

Another injury occurred when midfielder Glenn Fiscus suffered a sprained ankle. These two injuries, coupled with the absence of captain Bob Hamel, left a weakness at the Nittany midfield that could not cope with the experienced Navy midfield.

The Middies attempted 56 shots at the Lion goal while limiting the Nittany stickmen to 23 shots. Coach Nick Thiel's stickmen will try once more for their fifth victory next Saturday at Philadelphia against the University of Pennsylvania.

Gilbert Leu, Penn State exchange student from Switzerland, will compete for the Lions in the National AAU gymnastics championships.

Mayes, Rielly Lead Lions To 13th Consecutive Win

Jim Mayes and Pat Rielly led the Penn State golf team to its first victory of the season Saturday beating the Naval Academy, 6-1, on the Middies greens at Annapolis, Md.

The win was the 13th in succession over a span of three years for the Lions.

Mayes, a three-year veteran, and Rielly, a sophomore making his first start, sent the Lions off to a 2-0 lead. Mayes beat the Middies' number one man Dave Wright two up. It was the sixth successive win for the Nittany captain. His last loss was against Cornell's Owen Berry early last season.

Rielly Produces

Rielly, who was thrust into the important number two position in his first start, produced. He won easily, 6 and 4, and was the Lion medalist. His '74 was only two above par on the tricky par 72 course.

The Lions' number three man Gus Gerhart was beaten for the first time since 1954. Gerhart had won seven in a row up until Saturday, but Navy's Cookie King ended his streak. The score of the match was 4 and 3.

Number 4 man Jim Ginsberg, who also suffered his only loss last season at Cornell, won his sixth in a row. The steady senior licked Bill Hodge 3 and 2.

Branish, Kook Win

John Branish made the score 4-1 edging the Middies' Jack Davis one up.

Leo Kukkola, making a surprise start, kept the attack functioning smoothly by outpointing Tom Rosser 5 and 3. Then following Kook, John Boyanowski ran away from the Academy's Vic Ripley, 7 and 6.

The Naval Academy was looking for its fourth win of the season on Saturday. It had previously beaten Bucknell, William and Mary, and Dartmouth. The Nittanians had met the Middies in a triangular meet that also involved the University of Pennsylvania links squad last year and had come out on top.

Lions Meet Georgetown

The team goes into action again this weekend. It travels to Washington, D.C., to meet the Hoyas of Georgetown Friday afternoon. The Lions visit Philadelphia Saturday to meet Penn.

Last year on the 6600 yard Congressional Golf Course, the home greens of the Hoyas, the Lions were able to break a five-game Georgetown win streak.

IM Soccer, Golf, Tennis Deadlines Set

Three Intramural spring sports—tennis, golf and soccer—will open next week. Entries for the three sports must be turned in by 4:00 p.m., Thursday, at the Intramural Office in Recreation Hall.

The size of the teams vary from the tennis doubles to five-man teams in soccer and golf. Any organization may enter one team in either soccer or golf but students do not need to be members of an organization to enter the tennis tournament.

In the tennis double players will arrange for the time of the matches with their opponents. The only restriction is that the IM Office will establish deadlines for each round of play. The opening date is next Tuesday.

The entry fee is 50 cents per twosome.

Official Tennis rules govern play. In the single elimination tournament, a best-of-three-game match is the basis for a win.

The opening date for the golf tournament is also next Tuesday. As in the tennis competition, the opposing golf teams will arrange for the time of the matches. One loss will eliminate a squad.

The fee is one dollar per team with complete rule sheets available at the IM Office.

Soccer consists of five-player teams, each team should have several substitutes.
