

Hoyas Upset Lion Golfers

One of Penn State's longest winning streaks became history yesterday when an aroused Georgetown University golf squad beat the Lion linksmen, 5-2, at the Colonial Golf Course in Washington, D.C.

The Lions, on the strength of a 7-0 skulout over the same team last year, were considered the favorites, but the Hoyas disregarded the oddsmakers and beat the Lions handily. The Lions had halted a Hoya win streak at five games when they won last year.

The Hoyas' Gene Howered beat Lion captain Jim Mayes, four and three, to send them out in front early. Howered was beaten by Leo Kukkola last year, but it was a different story this year as he handed Mayes one of his infrequent defeats.

Chuck Siicklen, beaten a year ago by the Lions' Gus Gerhart, shot the best round of the afternoon, beating sophomore Pat Rielly three and two. Rielly shot a par 70 for the course.

Perky Culliane upped the Georgetown lead to 3-0 pounding out a 3 and 1 decision over Jim Ginsberg.

The Lions got their first win in the next match when Gerhart won a 19-hole thriller from Quinlan. The two were tied after the regulation 18, but Gerhart took the 19th hole for a 1 up victory.

The Lions saw their hopes rise as George Branish beat the Hoyas number one man, Marion Vickers, 6 and 4. But their hopes faded just as quickly, when Mandebille pounded out a 2 up victory to cinch the match. George Sheahan's 1 up victory over Johnny Boyanowski in the seventh match was just icing on the cake.

The Georgetown victory was accomplished through good, solid golf. Although the Lions have played better games, the fact remains that they were simply outplayed. Rielly, rapidly establishing himself as a top-notch golfer in Nittany golf circles, was the only Lion to shoot par.

Coach Rutherford's team goes into action today when it hosts the University of Pennsylvania and Villanova University teams at 1 p.m.

The Lions resume action next Friday when they journey to Hamilton, New York, for a match with the Red Raiders of Colgate University. They move to Ithaca, New York, on Saturday where they will meet the Cornell University linksmen and then return home for their next home encounter, May 2, with the Syracuse University squad.

2 Fraternities Win Loop Titles

Beaver House won the League B Fraternity Bowling title Wednesday night and Theta Xi took the Loop C title Thursday night.

Beaver House topped Delta Sigma Lambda 4-0 and ended the season with an all-winning 28-8 record. Second place went to Phi Kappa with a 26-10 scorecard.

Phi Kappa defeated Delta Theta Sigma 4-0; Acacia beat Phi Epsilon Pi 4-0; Phi Mu Delta shutout Sigma Alpha Epsilon 4-0; and Theta Delta Chi earned a third place tie with Alpha Chi Rho as the outrolled ACR 3-1.

Theta Xi, with a 27-9 record, pulled away from the other teams in League C. Of the leaders, only Sigma Chi won. The Sigma Chi's defeated Beta Sigma Rho 4-0; Phi Kappa Phi retained third place although they lost to DU 3-1; and Alpha Sigma Phi finished fourth when they lost to Theta Xi 3-1. Kappa Sigma was fifth with a 21-15 record.

Handball Doubles Enters Final Week

Five fraternity flights completed final action Thursday night in the handball doubles tourney while the indies advanced to the final round of their round-robin series.

Fraternity flight winners were Erwin Schimmel and Don Schwartz, Zeta Beta Tau, in flight 1; flight 2, John Riggs and Ed Ly nam, Sigma Chi; flight 3, Dick Rivers and Don Ferguson, Phi Gamma Delta; flight 5, Art Crum and Ed Ritter, Sigma Nu; flight 6, Dave Adams and John Pepe, Delta Upsilon; flights 7 and 8 will be decided Monday night.

Winners in the next-to-last round of the Indie tourney were Don Millhouse and Ken Fehr, Joe Gregory and Andy Pytel, John Hetherington and Don Vinkovich, Ray Boarts and Joe McHugh, and Jerry Moyer and Paul Bauer.

Betas Spark Badminton, V-Ball Action

Beta Theta Pi assured itself of at least a tie for league D honors in intramural volleyball last night while across from Recreation Hall two badminton players were adding more laurels to the Burrowes Road fraternity.

Beta Theta Pi edged Phi Kappa Tau, 10-15, 15-7, 15-11, for its fifth win without a loss. A loss in its final game would only drop the fraternity into a tie with Delta Sigma Phi whose completed record is 5-1.

In the only independent matches of any consequence, the Fighting Freshman clinched a league F tie for the crown by downing the Eight Angels, 15-6, 15-6, and the Barfers of league G stayed in the lead with a 15-5, 15-1 trouncing of the Killers.

George Ebert and Jerry Bijur, Beta Theta Pi, captured flight crowns in IM badminton to enter the tournament quarterfinals. Ebert stopped Per Torgerson, Phi Gamma Delta, 7-15, 15-9, 15-14, while Bijur overwhelmed James Machlan, Theta Xi, 15-4, 15-5.

Bijur will meet Ron Lentz, Delta Sigma Phi, who defeated Chris Kuebler, SAE, by forfeit for the flight 5 title. Ebert's opponent will be Lloyd Mengel, Delta Sigma Phi, who walloped Elvin Rose, SAM, 15-3, 15-4.

Lion Stickmen Face Pennsylvania Today

Bolstered by the return of playmaker Bob Hamel, the Nittany stickmen make their third bid for victory number five this afternoon at Philadelphia against the University of Pennsylvania lacrosse team.

The Lions will be seeking to break a two-game losing streak compiled last weekend on the disastrous road trip to Loyola and Navy.

Hamel, who missed the Loyola and Navy jaunt because of an illness to his wife, will be at his regular midfield spot when the lacrossemen take the field against the Quakers. Hamel, this year's captain, led the Lions to a 13-6 win over the Philadelphians last year.

Thiel is making no changes from his regular lineup. That will find Bill Hess, Lou Girard, and Tom Seeman at the attack positions; Hamel, John Steinmuller, and Jeff Bostock in the first midfield; Bob Bullock, Harry Brown, and Willard Snell at defensive posts; and Jim Houck guarding the nets.

Andy Bergeson, Fred Donahoe, and either Glenn Fiscus or Jim Griffin will compose the second midfield. Attackman Russ Bovaird; midfielders Dave Frieden-berg, Don Sanders, and John Bonner; defenseman Steve Frieden-berg; and goalie Paul Sones are in reserve roles.

Freshmen Open At Lower Merion

The freshman lacrosse team opens its 1956 season at 10:00 a.m. today against Lower Merion High School at Lower Merion.

Lower Merion, one of the top high school lacrosse teams in the nation, defeated the Army plebes this year, 11-2. But Lion Coach John McHugh expects his inexperienced stickmen to do a lot better than the Army frosh, although he does not expect to upset the Lower Merion squad.

Mike Beatty, who will be playing against his alma mater today, and George Parker, are the only two Lion lacrosse players with previous experience.

Beatty will be at a defensive position along with Bob Muskus and Ray Tuleya. Parker, Bob Wiegand and Dick Gates are the attackmen, Chuck Carlson, Bill Odenkirk, and Al Marcus will be at midfield and the goalie will be Jim Mullen.
