

Perry to Enter Quantico Meet

Strengthened by the return of hurdler Rod Perry, the Penn State track team is running through its final practice sessions in preparation for its first home meet of the season against the Quantico Marines at 1 p.m. tomorrow on the Beaver Field cinders.

Wes Santee, former Kansas great under suspension by the AAU, may accompany the Marine squad here. However, he will definitely not run as a competitor in the meet.

Perry, who spent most of last week recuperating from a charlie horse obtained in the Ohio State Relays, returned to practice this week in an effort to get back into the best possible condition for the Leatherneck encounter.

Judging from the Marine roster, he may need all the practice he can get. Quantico's hurdlers are headed by Joss Culbreath, former Morgan State star who is considered by most track experts as the United State's top man in the 440-meter hurdles—an Olympic event.

Wins AAU 440 Hurdles

Culbreath won the 440-hurdles in the National AAU Championships last season in :52.0. He was also 440-meter hurdles champion in last year's Penn Relays.

The rest of the Lion squad, with the exception of Gary Seybert, was pronounced by Coach Chick Werner as in the best shape it has probably been in all season.

Seybert, hampered by a charlie horse in his left leg all year, has entered most of the Lions' meets, despite the injury. However, his status for the Quantico tussle is still in doubt.

Distance man Don Mowry, suffering from a foot ailment, has returned to the Lion practice sessions despite the fact that he probably will not run in Saturday's meet. Mowry has been out of action since the Navy meet, April 14.

Moorhead to Face Taylor

Miler Doug Moorhead is expected to face keen competition in the presence of Bill Taylor, former Southern Cal standout. Taylor is noted for the role he played in pacing Wes Santee during the indoor season.

Charlie Blockson, veteran Lion weightman, is also expected to face stern opposition, coming up against the Marines' Fred Stark, star discus thrower.

Blockson has hit over the 155-foot mark this season while Stark, topping the Leatherneck weightmen who are considered to be one of the strangest entries on the squad, holds the Marine discus record with a 154'1 1/2" heave.

Rutgers Nine Here Tomorrow

By FRAN FANUCCI

George Case, one of the greatest baserunners to ever don spikes in the Major Leagues, brings his Rutgers baseball team to Beaver Field tomorrow to meet the Nittany Lions in what could be a preview of the District 2 playoffs.

Both the Lions and the Scarlet appear frequently in the post-season playoff games, and this year the Lions, with an 8-2 record, and the Scarlet, a perennial powerhouse, could be possible opponents.

In tomorrow's game Rutgers will be facing one of the top pitchers in the East in Ed Drapcho. This combined with the fact that Rutgers always plays poor on the road can spell more trouble for Case than he may anticipate.

The Scarlet nine shapes up as a good pitching, good fielding, and only fair offensive club. In the last two seasons it has hit under .225, which is indicative of this year's club because of the absence of only two players from the '55 team.

The home field factor is expected to play an important role in Rutgers' bid for District 2 honors. Last year the Scarlet in 12 home games had an 8-4 record, but on the road they were able to garner only one win in eight outings.

Case has problems in the infield, mainly hitting. Junior John Brugler, who can play second or third, is the leading hitter with a .313 mark. The rest of the infield is unsettled. Frank Going, a fair defensive player, hit only .087 last year. Bert Miles, normally an outfielder, may have to switch to Going's first base spot to strengthen the hitting.

At second base Ron Bergamesca, veteran of two years, is the top man, and at shortstop either Al Nicholas or Bill Whitacre will get the nod. Whitacre may move to the outfield, because of Nicholas' hitting. Bill Gatyas, a two-year veteran, will be the catcher. He is potentially a long ball hitter although he only hit .211 last year.

In the outfield Case has Vint Gwinn, Chuck Phillips, Joe MacMichael, and Miles. All are weak hitters, and there is a possibility that sophomore Gerry Grusky may fill one berth.

Veterans Wally Olson and Bob Leonard head the Scarlet pitching corps and either one of them could be the probable hurler in tomorrow's tilt.

Tomorrow's game will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Cornell Tops Lion Frosh In Track, 81-50

Penn State's freshman track team managed to gain just five "firsts" out of 14 events in bowing to the Cornell Frosh, 81-50, Wednesday at Ithaca, N.Y.

Dave Heasley took individual honors for the Big Red, winning three events and placing third in another to pick up 16 points.

Heasley ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.3 and the 220 low hurdles in 25.4. He also led Cornell to a sweep in the broad jump with a spring of 21'2 1/2".

An oddity occurred when three Lion runners finished in a draw for the mile run. Clem Schoenebeck, Ed Moran, and Fred Kerr each posted a time of 4:38.5 seconds.

Chet Cotton led Nittany point-getters with eight earned by winning the 100-yard dash and finishing second in 220. Cotton was timed in 10.5 for the "100" while Harvey Weissbard was the 220 winner with a time of 22.8.

Moran gained a first place for the Lions in the 880 with a mark of 1:58.3. Fred Kerr and Bob Thompson finished one-two for the Lions in the two-mile run with Kerr running it in 9:55.5.

The Lions' other winner was high-jumper John Parker who cleared the bar at 5'6".

Red Sox, KC, Pirates Win; Mantle Hits 7th

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—Enos Slaughter, still dangerous at 40, doubled and scored the winning run on Harry Simpson's sacrifice fly in the ninth inning today as Kansas City outslugged the New York Yankees 8-7 in their first meeting of the season.

Joe Ginsberg hit a two-run homer for the A's in the five-run second inning and Mickey Mantle hit his seventh. Hank Bauer hit fourth and Yogi Berra his fifth for the Yanks. Bauer and Berra each hit into the stands with one man on in the fifth.

BOSTON, May 3 (AP)—Red Sox righthander Frank Sullivan got two-run homers from Dick Gernert and rookie Frank Malzone to support his six-hitter today as he pitched Boston to a 5-2 victory over Detroit.

The 6-foot, 7-inch Sully looked like he would contribute the second consecutive shutout for the Sox hurling staff until Earl Torgeson crashed a two-run home run in the eighth inning.

CINCINNATI, May 3 (AP)—Home runs by Dale Long and Frank Thomas, combined with five-hit pitching by Bob Friend, gave Pittsburgh a 5 to 1 victory today over the Cincinnati Redlegs, ending the local club's six-game winning streak.

Friend, who racked up his third success against one loss this season, did not allow a hit until the sixth inning.

that gift for Mom... you'll find it in State College

DISTINCTIVE... (oh perish that overdone word) yet, CLARKS is apart from that everyday word 'Tis smart to be comfortable and casual too, and what is more comfortable than

CLARKS DESERT SHOE

sand suede $12.95
black glove $13.95

'the worlds most' travelled shoe'

Clarks OF ENGLAND

and BOSTONIAN SHOES at

Jack Harper

CUSTOM SHOP

BE BY POPULAR REQUEST TURKEY

E CHRISTY'S RESTAURANT HAM

F Will Have Another SALADS

C BUFFET DINNER HAM

H SUNDAY, MAY 6 4:30 - 7:30 SALADS

E AGAIN ONLY $1.80 SALADS

R CHRISTY'S SALADS

E PUGH ST. and COLLEGE AVE. SALADS

L ROLLS BEVERAGES DESSERT SALADS

S ROLLS BEVERAGES DESSERT SALADS