

Lion Lacrossemen Face Hobart Today

By LOUIE PRATO

With the season half over and a 5-3 record under their belt, the Nittany Lion stickmen put their traveling togas on for the last time, this year, journeying to the upstate New York area for a weekend series with Hobart College and Syracuse University.

Coach Nick Thiel's men open up the two-game road trip against Hobart this afternoon in Geneva, N.Y., and face the Syracuse lacrossemen tomorrow in Syracuse.

The last two-game journey made by the Lions was a disastrous one. That was to the "Rebel Territory" of Maryland where the stickmen were defeated by Loyola and Navy. If the old axiom—"history repeats itself"—holds true then the Lions will return home very disappointed.

Thiel will make only one slight alteration in his starting array. This will see junior letterman Jeff Bostock replacing Glenn Fiscus at a first team midfield position. He will team with the regular middle men, Bob Hamel and John Steinmuller.

Fiscus will be in the second midfield along with Andy Bergeson and Fred Donahoe. Willard Snell, Bob Bullock, and Harry Brown are in defensive posts with Jim Houck at the goal.

The Lion one-two scoring punch, Bill Hess and Tom Seeman, plus letterman Lou Girard will man the attack spots. Hess needs one more goal to break the record of goals scored in one season. He has 24.

Nothing is known about the Hobart stickmen except that they employ a man to man defense. However, the Geneva team is always tough against the Lions with high scoring a constant theme.

3 Teams Cop IM V-Ball Titles

The Cadillacs and the Cougars of the independent division of intramural volleyball gained play-off victories Wednesday night at Recreation Hall.

The Cadillacs clinched league B honors by beating Dirty Thirty, 15-8, 1-15, 15-8. The Cougars of league E became champs when they edged Hamilton Five, 9-15, 15-11, 15-6.

Tau Phi Delta of the fraternity division whipped Alpha Tau Omega, 15-9, 15-6, to capture league F laurels.

Immediately after the play-off matches, the drawing was held to determine pairings for final competition. Independent finals begin Monday with the fraternities beginning final action Tuesday.

Schimmel, Schwartz Cop H-Ball Title

Three-times singles handball champion Erwin Schimmel and 1956 singles runner-up, Don Schwartz, Zeta Beta Tau, successfully defending their doubles title by defeating Beta Theta Pi's Al Jacks and Bill McCann, 21-6, 21-2.

The ZBT's took an early 18-0 lead before letting the Betas score in the opening contest. McCann, playing the backcourt, took the brunt of the ZBT attack. Schimmel and Schwartz refrained from "killing" their opponents and worked on McCann's weak left hand.

Georgetown Hosts Nittanies In Tennis Action Tomorrow

The Lion tennis team will face a traditionally tough opponent in Georgetown tomorrow afternoon in Washington D.C.

The Hoyas have had one common opponent with the Nittanies, Navy, to whom they lost a closely contested match, 6-3. Navy sunk the Lion squad, 9-0.

Last year the Georgetown netmen defeated the Lions 7-2, in a decisive victory. Tomorrow it will have three of the mainstays from last year's team with them, among these three is Tony Valenti, Eastern Interscholastic champ in 1951.

Coach Sherm Fogg, dissatisfied with the team showing in their 5-4 win over Bucknell last Tuesday, will field his veterans in the hope that the week's practice sessions and the effect of the team's first victory will serve to put them 'up' for the Hoya's match.

One of last year's points came on a default when one of the Hoyas' doubles men sprained his ankle during play and could not continue. None of the present Lion netmen showed winning performances in that contest.

Coach Fogg said that he would make changes in the lineup to include some of the men who did not see action in the Bison victory.

After the Georgetown contest, the Nittanies will host the Lehigh netters in a home game next Wednesday.

Sports Sidelights

Third oldest sport at Penn State, after baseball and football, is track and field. It was started in 1899.

In 45 years of intercollegiate soccer competition, Penn State teams have been unbeaten 22 times.

Penn State's captain-elect in soccer, Steve Flamporis, of Reading, Pa., was born in Athens, Greece.

Charlie Speidel, veteran Penn State wrestling coach, turned to the mat game after a short fling in amateur boxing.

Penn State's golf and soccer teams posted unbeaten records during the 1955 sports year.

Charlie Speidel, now in his 30th year as wrestling coach, is dean of the Penn State athletic coaching staff.

The current season is Penn State's 60th consecutive year of intercollegiate basketball competition.

Penn State's soccer teams have been beaten only twice since Ken Hosterman assumed command in 1953.

Penn State's baseball diamond is regarded as one of the finest layouts in the East.

Rain and cold limited Penn State to ten baseball games in 1945, which was an all-time low for the last 25 years.
