

Blue - White Teams Set Ex-Caddy Branish For Intra - Squad Game Leads Lion Golfers

By FRAN FANUCCI

Football Coach Rip Engle takes an unbiased position today when two evenly-matched, veteran-laden squads are pitted against each other in the annual Blue-White intra-squad game at 3 p.m. today on Beaver Field.

Each team will have three members of Engle's coaching staff at the helm, while Engle himself will just sit and scrutinize each team for mistakes.

Joe Paterno, Joe O'Hora, and J. T. White will head the Blue team, while Frank Patrick, Tor Toretti, and Earl Bruce run the White team.

Captain Sam Valentine leads a host of strong boys on the White line with Dick DeLuca the mainstay on the Blue line. DeLuca is also the captain of the Blue team.

If spring training sessions are indicative of the future, then newcomers will find it difficult breaking into the lineup.

The Blue team is led by veterans Milt Plum, Joe Sabol, and Ray Alberigi in its starting backfield, while the White aggregation boasts veterans Billy Kane, Babe Caprara, and newcomers Bob Scrabis and Bruce Gilmore in the backfield.

The Blue line will have Paul North, who may see only limited action because of an ankle injury, and Mike Newbold at ends; veterans Walt Mazur and Jack Calderone at tackles; DeLuca and Jack Arnst at guards, and tough Dan Radakovich at center.

The White line embraces the same amount of stars. Ron Markiewicz and Les Walters will start at ends, although the absence of varsity end Jack Farls, who is nursing a pulled achilles tendon, will undoubtedly hurt the White team. Bill Wehmer and Clint Law will be at the tackle positions, and Valentine and Bull Smith will man the guard posts. Sophomore Steve Garban is Engle's choice at center.

The most promising youngsters emerging out of spring training are sophomores Andy Moconyi, who will be at right halfback for the Blue, Gilmore, and Garban. Engle's most paramount problem is finding replacements. His major strong point on the line is the end positions, where he is six-deep in men. His first eleven are all veterans and lettermen, but he lacks an experienced bench. In the backfield he is well fortified, although even here he lacks experienced replacements at the halfback spots.

CAPTAIN SAM VALENTINE pauses for a moment to talk over strategy with Coach Rip Engle. Valentine will lead the White squad in the annual Blue-White game to be held on Beaver Field this afternoon.

Three Newcomers Listed On 1957 Football Schedule

Three new teams will dot the 1957 Penn State football schedule. Vanderbilt, William and Mary, and Marquette replace Boston University, North Carolina State, and Ohio State in the new schedule released this week.

Vanderbilt and William and Mary will be played on Beaver Field. Another highlight of the '57 card is the appearance of Army on Beaver Field. It will be the first time that Army will ever appear here for a football game.

The Marquette encounter will be played at Milwaukee on Nov. 9.

Following the opening day game with Pennsylvania, the Lions will meet Army, Vanderbilt, and William and Mary on successive Saturdays.

The Lions played William and Mary twice in the past, the last time in 1952, but it has never played either Vanderbilt or Marquette before.

- The 1957 schedule follows.
- Sept. 28, at Pennsylvania
 - Oct. 5, Army (home)
 - Oct. 12, William & Mary (home)
 - Oct. 19, Vanderbilt (home)
 - Oct. 26, at Syracuse
 - Nov. 2, West Virginia (home)
 - Nov. 9, at Marquette
 - Nov. 16, at Holy Cross
 - Nov. 23, at Pittsburgh

The combination of Philipsburg, ex-caddies, and the Rutherford family seems to be a great one as far as Penn State is concerned.

Not only has Bob Rutherford and his father, who was Penn State's first golf coach, led the Lions to one of the University's best won and lost records, but another member of the family, Ken, has guided two of the team's better golfers to the campus.

One of these golfers, junior John Branish, has the only unbeaten record on the team. Branish is now working on a winning streak of 12 games, which was started midway through last season.

Branish began playing golf at the Philipsburg Country Club 10 years ago where he worked as a caddy. He got his early instruction around the caddy shop at the Country Club, and while in high school he played on the school team.

Over a span of four years on the Philipsburg varsity, Branish did not lose a single match and was tied only once. One of the best high school golf teams in the state, Philipsburg had not lost a duel meet from the time the sport was initiated until this year. Branish helped this record along, as he was District 6 champion his junior year.

Two of Branish's high school teammates were Jim Mayes, the present Lion captain, and Dave Bates, who plays number two for Lehigh University's linksmen.

Branish's record here at Penn State is a phenomenal 14 wins and only one loss. His only loss was a 23-hole overtime defeat against Cornell last year in only his second collegiate start. In that match, he had been trailing by three holes after nine but got hot in the stretch and tied the score at the end of 18 holes. He stayed locked with opponent for four holes, but lost on the 23rd when his opponent birdied a par 4 hole.

Branish is pointing toward the Eastern championships—the "World Series of golf"—this year. He missed qualifying in the big show last year, but with a little
