

QUEEN OF THE CAMPUS—Joan Ziegler flashes a smile from her throne after she was crowned Miss Penn State Monday.

NO, IT'S NOT the Ugly Man behind bars but a cashier selling one of the 42,554 tickets purchased at the Carnival.

IT'S A RINGER—Player concentrates on shot but his 'partner' doesn't want to cooperate.

SPRING WEEK 1956

The pictures on this page were taken by Joe Patton, George Harrison, and Dave Bavar.

THE WINNERS race home with the Spring Week trophy.

SPRINGTIME WAS THE THEME at the Senior Ball last night where 1200 couples danced to the music of Billy Butterfield and his orchestra.

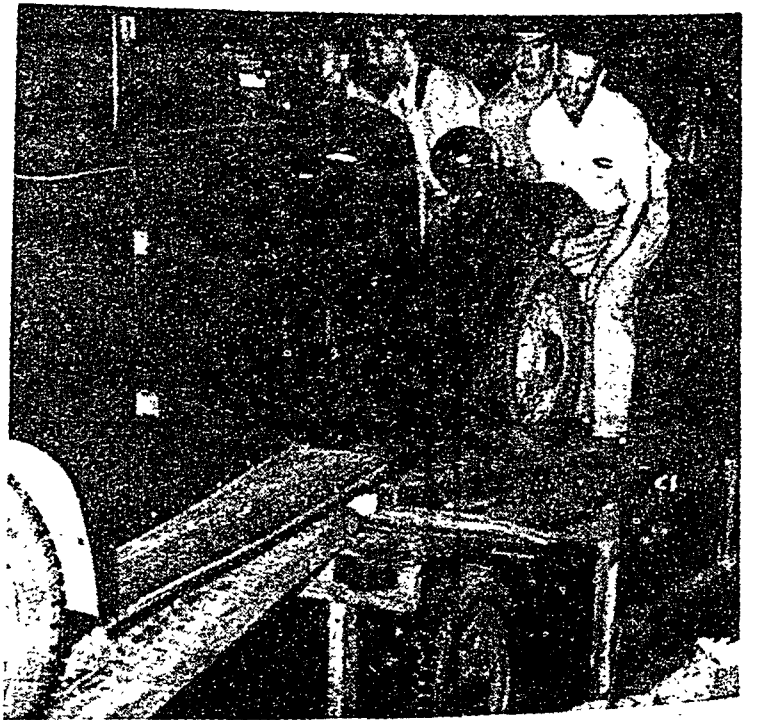

OUCH—Watch that pin. This coed gives a watchful look as her escort pins on her corsage at the Senior Ball.

BABES IN THE WOODS. Members of Sigma Chi display their Mad Hatter's creation entitled 'The Age of Innocence.'

THE HORSE'S MOUTH is the title of this entry in the Mad Hatter's contest.

CARNIVAL WORKERS RUN into difficulty when they can't get this ancient buggy, a part of their display, down off the stage.