

Mr. Ag Award Shared By Morrow, Moorhead

By LINDA SEGAR

Co-winners of the 1956 Mr. Agriculture Award are David A. Morrow, senior in Dairy Science from Tyrone, and Douglas Moorhead, senior in Horticulture from Northeast, it has been announced by the Penn State Farmer.

Morrow, a member of Alpha Zeta fraternity, has been active in Dairy Science organizations and events.

Ag Council Disapproves Purchase

The Agriculture Student Council last night unanimously defeated a motion to buy a motion picture projector.

Martin Sedlak, junior in agriculture education from Spring Creek, gave a report on a study he made of the price of a projector and made a motion that the council approve the necessary funds.

The projector would serve all the Ag Hill organizations; however, the council felt that there was not enough need by the various clubs to warrant the high cost of a projector.

Harry Stoner, junior in dairy science from Conestoga, gave a report on the faculty evaluation committee. He said that after contacting some of the faculty members and students that it was their feeling that it was too late in the semester to take any definite action.

William Gericke, junior in wood utilization from Elkins Park, announced that the softball league has games scheduled every evening including Friday until the last week of classes.

Plans were made to approve the council budget and receive a full report from the Penn State "Farmer" at the next meeting which is scheduled for 7 p.m. May 22.

Students Admit Larceny Count

Seven Bucknell University students received suspended sentences and were placed on probation for 30 days after they pleaded guilty to larceny charges Monday.

The court also ordered the students to pay costs and make restitution for the stolen property. Six of them paid fines and costs for disorderly conduct.

John Ivan Walker characterized the students' action in taking a ham, a loaf of bread, a whisk broom, and a few cigars from the Millheim Hotel as immature.

At the court session it was brought out that the Hotel had received $40 settlement for a $10 loss. But Cpl. Howard Hancock, the prosecutor, said he had nothing to do with restitution made in the case.

The students were arrested Wednesday.

He has been president, secretary, and treasurer of the Dairy Science Club, a member of both the Dairy and Livestock Judging teams, an officer of the Agriculture Student Council, and president and vice president of the campus 4-H Club.

He is editor of the Penn State Farmer and a member of the Coaly Society, Agricultural Activities Honorary. Last year he was chosen Grand Champion Showman and Fitter of the Dairy Show.

Morrow has also been active in other campus activities. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Freshmen National Scholastic Honorary and has a 3.58 All-University average. He is also a member of Androcles and Skull and Bones, hat societies, and Omicron Delta Kappa, National Men's Leadership Honorary Fraternity.

Following graduation Morrow plans to attend Veterinary School.

Moorhead, a member of Alpha Gamma Rho, has received the fraternity's highest award for character, scholarship, and leadership. He has been president of the Athletic Association and a member of All-University Cabinet. He helped found the Varsity "S" Club and has been on the varsity track and cross country teams for four years.

He is a member of Druids, Parmi Nous, hat societies, and Lion's Paw, Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity, and Omicron Delta Kappa, National Men's Leadership Honorary Fraternity. On Ag Hill he has been active in 4-H Club, Penn State Farmer, Grange, and Coaly Society. He was president of the Horticulture Club.

After graduating Moorhead may return to his father's fruit farm or do graduate study. He is interested in college teaching.

Froth Features 'The Import' In Today's Issue

Girls! Start sharpening those knitting needles. Froth is featuring a layout on that unwelcome creature—the import.

Yes, Froth is out today or to phrase it better, Froth is out of it today—as always.

Today marks a great day for the campus this semester. It's the very last time that we will have to see Froth's pointed little head.

Vacation time, something every Penn State student looks forward to, is the theme of this month's issue.

Froth will be on sale at the Hetzel Union desk, the Mall Bulletin board and the Corner Room.

TIM Elections Set for Tonight

Town Independent Men will hold election of officers at 7:30 tonight in 203 Hetzel Union.

Nominations are still open but only students present at the meeting may be nominated.

Students now on the ballot are Edward Leach, senior in business administration from Philadelphia, president; John Mauk, junior in psychology from Pittsburgh, and Imerio Matos, junior in chemical engineering from Zulia, Venezuela, vice president.

James Goodwin, sophomore in physics from Trucksville, and William Dragon, junior in mechanical engineering from Olyphant, secretary; and Warren Heinly, sophomore in general agriculture from Lancaster, treasurer.

An amendment proposed to revise the TIM constitution and governmental setup also will be discussed at the meeting.

Crash Causes $650 Damages

Over $650 in damage resulted when an automobile driven by a University student struck the back of a stopped car Sunday.

The student driver, James P. King, freshman in electrical engineering from Blawnox, was traveling west on College avenue when he struck the rear of a car driven by Richard K. Berkstresser, which was stopped for a signal light at Burrowes road, police said.

Damage to the front of King's vehicle was estimated at about $400, while the front seat of Berkstresser's car was torn loose.
