

1948 Golf Team Ranks With Best

By JOE CHEDDAR

With the amazing won and lost record of the Penn State golf teams, it would be difficult to select one team as standing out above the rest. On the record of achievement, however, the 1948 team must be ranked close to the top.

That team romped through an undefeated 10-game regular season and then topped it off by winning the Eastern championships and placing 15th in a field of 35 in the NCAA championships at Palo Alto, Calif.

Included in its victory log were two wins each over Bucknell and Georgetown and single victories over Pittsburgh, Cornell, Army, Yale and Colgate. It also won the Eastern sectional title over Pitt, Cornell and Army on the Oakmont Golf Course in Pittsburgh before winning the "big one" at Atlantic City.

Boyle, Hart Top Players

The team's top players were Joe Boyle, now the Lion's assistant coach, and Don Hart, the team captain. Others were Jerry and Tom Smith, Jim Noble and Al Hack. The team's top alternate was Ramon Peterson.

Hart and Boyle compiled identical 8-2 won and lost records. Jerry Smith won 9 and lost 1, his brother Tom won 6 and lost 1, Noble ran up an 8 and 2 slate and Hack copped 8 and dropped 1. Peterson, appearing in four matches, split even at 2 and 2.

Hart, Jerry Smith, Noble and Hack were seniors, while the others remained to form the nucleus of another fine team in 1949.

Veterans Dominate Squad

The team was made up mostly of wartime returnees and had a wealth of golfing experience behind it when it began.

Most of the squad members still play golf, and rather well, as the records indicate. Tom Smith was runner-up in the Pennsylvania State Amateur Championships last year, after winning the Western Pennsylvania Amateur Championship. Noble is a former Western Pennsylvania title winner, and was a finalist in last year's State Amateur tourney.

Boyle competes in many of the Pro-Amateur tourneys through-

Syracuse Hosts Lion Net Squad

The Syracuse tennis squad, an easy touch for the Nittany court men in past years, will host the traveling Lions this afternoon.

The Orangemen have lost 15 of 21 decisions since the series started in 1922, with one tie. Despite this optimistic note, tennis mentor Sherm Fogg refused to predict a runaway for his team, sensing a battle for the erratic Nittany netmen.

Fogg said that would field much the same line-up that scored the second Lion win against Lehigh last Wednesday.

Captain Chuck Christiansen will be switching places with number two man Ed Seiling, followed by Fred Trust in the three spot.

Dean Mullen, holding the longest winning streak on the team at four, will play as the number four man, followed by Larry Adler and Doug Zuker.

Replacing the routed Jack Gruber-Dick Jacobs duo, who were run off the court in two fast sets against Lehigh, will be Dean Mullen and Zuker in the third doubles position.

The number one and two teams of Joe Eberly-Chuck Christiansen, and Seiling and Trust will be carried over from the Engineer match.

Seeking their third victory in eight starts, the Lion team will have to win the remaining matches of the season to equal last year's 7-5 slate.

After the Orange match the Nittanies will face Juniata at home on Wednesday for their last campus showing this year. West Virginia, Bucknell, and Pittsburgh will be played away and in that order.

Felus Presses Regulars

"Mr. Five Foot Two" of the Penn State golf squad is Johnny Felus, of Gallitzin. The 137-pound sophomore is a hustler who has been pressing the regulars for a starting assignment ever since the season started.

Cadets Here in 1957

out the state and does well each time. He has shot a 5 under par 64 on the University greens, and has hit 65 several times.

Boyle and Hart were also among the qualifiers for the NCAA Individual Championship in 1948.

Intramural Roundup

VOLLEYBALL:

Alpha Zeta dethroned Delta Chi as fraternity Intramural Volleyball Champions Thursday night at Recreation Hall.

Alpha Zeta captured its ninth win in a row by defeating the dethroning champs, 15-8, 10-15, 15-8.

Instrumental in Alpha Zeta's drive were spiker Walt Edelen, and setters Norm Schue and Bill Suro. Rounding out the title-winning six were Ken Sacks, Don Snyder, and Dave Myerson.

Co-op won the Independent championship. Having found the Fighting Frosh and the 69'ers easy prey in championship bracket play, Co-op had its hands full in turning back the Cougars, 15-11, 11-15, 15-8.

A last-game collapse by the Cougars enabled Co-op to come through with the victory despite a "pressure" tightness which was evident in the second game.

Main cogs in Co-op's win were spiker Glen Carter and setter Larry FitzGerald. Bud Mattern, Dick Williams, Jim Keener, Bill Barkley, and Jim Ifft completed the squad.

TENNIS DOUBLES:

Friday standings in the unscheduled fraternity tennis doubles tournament showed eleven teams have reached the quarter-final rounds in the two flights.

Heading the list of contenders is the top-seeded Theta Delta Chi entry of Roger Beidler and Dick Kuhn. Beidler and Kuhn advanced to the quarter-finals via a 6-0 6-1 win over John Hartman and John Heinze, Phi Kappa Psi, and a forfeit from Al Rose and Al Robbins, Sigma Alpha Mu.

Alpha Chi Sigma's Ralph Kauffman and Bill Sekaras defeated Joe Myers and George Seiders, Triangle; Phi Kappa Psi's Dick Lindfors and Tom Scheider downed Sigma Phi Alpha's Frank Moore and Jerry Kroninger; DTD's Jim Quinn and Art Moyer edged KDR's Garry Crothers and Blaze Barron; and Phi Delta Theta's Jim Schry and Tom Fitzpatrick stopped AGR's Dan Van Duyn and George Olmstead to become flight one quarter-finalists.

Flight two quarter-finalists are TKE's Joe Calardi and John Berg; Phi Mu Delta's Joe Godzik and Al Krall; Lambda Chi Alpha's Carl Buss and Fred Thompson; Theta Xi's Jim Machlan and Bob Haslett; Zeta Beta Tau's Erv Schimmel and Marv Trimas; and Beta Theta Pi's Dan Gray and Jerry Bijur.

In the Independent division, the two top-seeded entries of Dave Bronstein and Stan Glick and Jim Hepler and Ronald Walker have reached the semi-final round and will oppose each other this weekend.

In the lower half of the Indie tournament, only one match has been recorded. Bob Murray and Dave Ritchie defeated Larry Miller and Larry Wertz, 6-3, 6-2.

HORSESHOES:

The opening three horseshoe matches pared the field down to 32 as Alpha Chi Sigma, Kappa Sigma and Tau Phi Delta were eliminated by Delta Theta Sigma, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Delta Chi.

Delta Theta Sigma's Gordon Wisser and Bob Fox, the 1955 champs, won their first match Thursday night. The defending champs defeated Alpha Chi Sig's Rog Levin and Carroll MacDonnell, 21-4, 21-9.

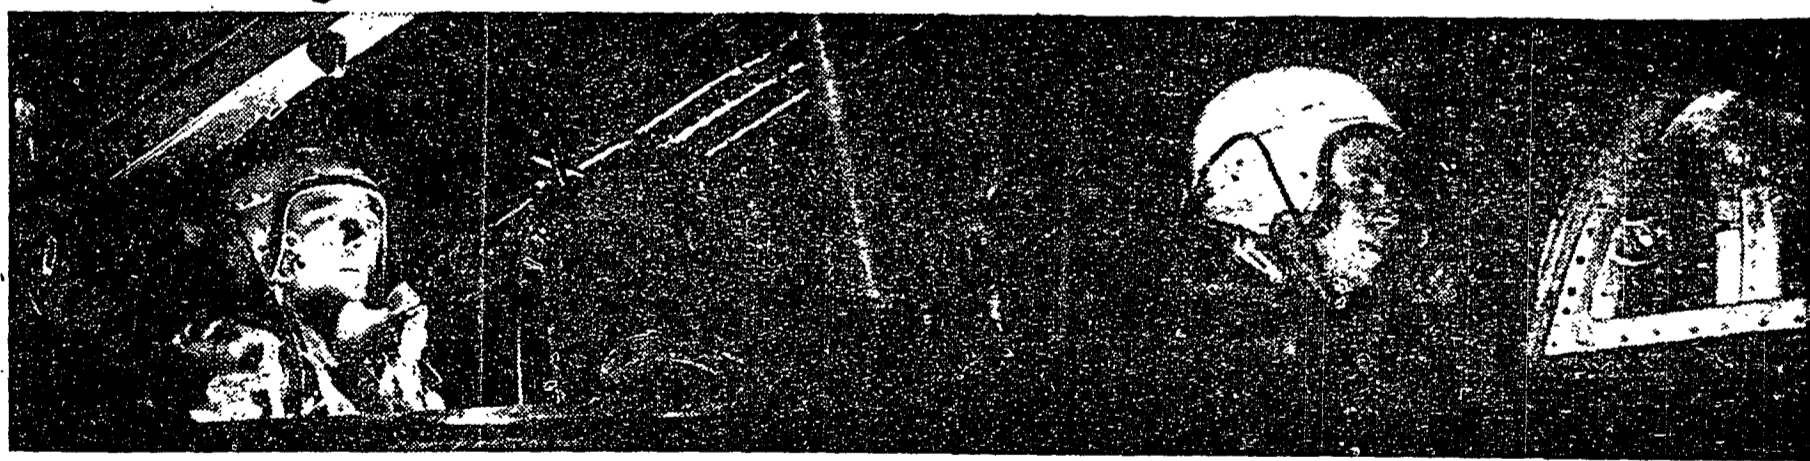

The closest match of the night featured Sigma Nu's Larry Bartlett and Joe Hyson when they edged Pi Lambda Phi's Don Schrieber and Harvey Miller, 19-21, 21-20, 21-18.

Pi Kappa Alpha's Bob Edwards and Joe Slotnik, DU's Bob Brubaker and Cy Dubinsky, Phi Mu Delta's Jack Harmon and Bill Updegraff, Theta Delta Chi's Ron Carey and Don Patterson; and KDR's Billy Kane and Garry Crothers recorded the other Thursday night wins.
