

WSGA Makes Women's Rules

The rules and regulations governing women students at the University are formed, interpreted, and enforced by the Women's Student Government Association.

The organization of WSGA has been patterned after that of the Federal government. It consists of a Senate, House of Representatives, Freshman Council, Judicial, and Freshman Regulations Board.

Women's student government begins in the dormitory where each unit elects a president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer. The unit hostesses and these officers conduct hall meetings where students have a voice in their government.

Daisy Zimmerman, president of WSGA, presides over the Senate, the highest governing body of WSGA. She also acts as an ex-officio member of all WSGA committees and governing bodies, and represents WSGA on the All-University Cabinet, the highest student government body at the University.

President on Senate

The Senate is composed of the WSGA president; vice president, Suzanne Smith; secretary, Martha Flemming; treasurer, Ellen Donovan; seven senators, ex-officio members, the coordinator for the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students, and representatives of Leonides, independent women's governing body; Women's Recreation Association, and Panhellenic Council, sorority women's governing body.

The senior senator is chairman of the coordinating committee and is responsible for the WSGA tea. The two junior senators are responsible for the WSGA guest speakers and the activities scrapbook.

Freshman Tea Sponsored

The sophomore senator is in charge of the Freshman Council, a body similar to the House of Representatives. The presidents and vice-presidents of the freshman dormitory units represent the freshman women on the council. The council confines itself to problems of freshman women.

Town women are also represented through a Town Senator elected to WSGA and two representatives in Freshman Council.

VP Heads House

The vice president of WSGA presides over the House of Representatives, composed of the presidents of the sophomore, junior, and senior dormitory units. The House of Representatives is a subordinate legislative body to the Senate.

Coed Winner Of Queen Title

Pretty Joyce Koch proved that Penn State coeds are not as bad looking as many male students claim they are.

Miss Koch was chosen Miss Pennsylvania College last month and competed in the Miss U.S. College held in Asbury Park, N.J., last Sunday.

Miss Koch, 20-year-old senior from Rahway, N.J., was selected to represent the state after being called to the Belemont Plaza in New York City to be photographed for final elimination.

Miss Koch's theme entitled "Why I want a college education" along with a number of questions about music, art, history, and English got her to the finals.

Miss Koch appeared on the Steve Allen television show and participated in a parade in New York with 47 other girls representing the states.

Joyce is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and is majoring in education.

meetings are aired by the House and recommendations are carried to the Senate and back to unit meetings.

May Day Celebrated

The House also conducts the May Day celebrations and sponsors a clothing drive for overseas distribution.

Judicial, which is the upper class women's judiciary board, handles violations of WSGA regulations for disciplinary action.

Freshman Regulations Board acts as the enforcement body for freshman regulations and rules.

Self-Nomination Held

Nominees for WSGA offices are selected from a list of self-nominated students who do not have a major judicial record or less and do have at least a 2.5 all-university average. Those eligible are

Gibson Named New UCA Head; Succeeds Dobyms

Samuel N. Gibson, former Coordinator of Religious Affairs at Carnegie Institute of Technology, has been named as Executive Secretary of the University Christian Association.

He succeeds The Rev. Lester L. Dobyms who has accepted a call to serve as Associate Rector of the Cranbrook Episcopal Church, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

Mr. Gibson is a graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology and received his Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Sacred Theology degrees from Yale Divinity school.

The new U.C.A. secretary has held similar positions at the University of Nebraska, 1951 to 1953, and the University of Wisconsin, 1948 to 1949.

During the years 1953 and 1954, Mr. Gibson was a Ford Foundation Fellow and spent the year studying the religion and culture of India.

In addition to Mr. Gibson, the U.C.A. has added to its staff a new part-time associate, Miss Ruth H. Bosch. Miss Bosch will also serve as the Lutheran Student worker on the campus.

A graduate of Vassar, 1955, Miss Bosch has been during the past year busy as a student worker in the Student Christian Movement of New York. This Christmas she will be responsible for the U.S.C.C. Conference in the Pittsburgh area.

Similarly, Brown W. Higginbotham will work part-time with the U.C.A. staff. As a Danforth Intern Mr. Higginbotham comes to the campus to examine the College Chaplaincy and to test himself for a possible vocation in campus Christian work. Although he will work with the U.C.A., Mr. Higginbotham will be attached to the staff of the University Chaplain, Dr. Luther H. Harshbarger, who will be his campus supervisor.

After his year of practical experience on the campus, Mr. Higginbotham will return to the Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University to complete his theological education.

determined by a screening board on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and extra-curricular activities.

All women students may vote for Senate officers and their class representatives in the primary and final elections in the spring.

Panhel Represents Sorority Women

By LIANNE CORDERO

Panhellenic Council, composed of two representatives from each sorority, is the functioning group for all joint sorority activities.

The council, as a member of the National Panhellenic Council, serves as the representative body of 22 national and one local sorority on campus. Each national sorority has one vote on the council. Trion, a new local, joined the council as a non-voting member last spring. It plans to try to affiliate with a national sorority later this year.

The rushing code, through which the sororities and rushees become acquainted, is formulated by the council. Informal rushing for second semester women with an average of at least 2.3 and all other upperclasswomen with an

All-University average of 2.0 will begin within the next few weeks. A meeting for these women will be held at 1 p.m. on Sept. 22 in 121 Sparks. Information about the program for this semester can be obtained at that time. Registration for rushing will begin at 8 a.m. on Sept. 24 to 5 p.m. Oct. 8 in the office of the dean of women.

Formal Rushing in Spring

The formal rushing program will be held at the beginning of the spring semester and is a two-week long period of parties given by the sororities for rushees.

The Panhellenic Council and the Interfraternity Council co-sponsor the annual IFC-Panhellenic Ball, the IFC-Panhellenic Sing, and other Greek Week activities. They also sponsor the Starlight dance for the freshmen and new students during Orientation Week.

The Council awards three $75 scholarships to deserving women on campus each year. It presents a scholarship cup each semester to the sorority with the highest scholastic average.

Office Rotates

The office of council president rotates each year between the 22 member sororities. The president represents sorority women on the All-University Cabinet. The council vice president is an ex-officio member of Women's Student Government Association Senate.

Barbara Nicholls, Alpha Gamma Delta, is president of Panhellenic Council. Other officers are Grace Antes, Pi Beta Phi, vice president; Roberta Lerch, Chi Omega, corresponding secretary; Dario Dutko, Phi Mu, recording secretary; Nancy Showalter, Alpha Xi Delta, treasurer; and Marlene Bishoff, Sigma Delta Tau, parliamentarian.
