

Eden Predicts Nasser Will Attack Israel if Suez Coup Is Successful; Pledges British Armed Support

LONDON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Prime Minister Eden predicted tonight Egypt's President Nasser will attack Israel next if he gets away with seizure of the Suez Canal. Eden hinted Britain would go to Israel's rescue with arms if necessary.

Eden told the House of Commons there was no doubt that an attack on Israel would be the next step for a triumphant Nasser.

The House gave Eden a 319-248 vote of confidence on his Suez policies after he refused to promise not to use force if necessary in the crisis and said he would resort to the U.N. if Egypt violated treaty rights.

Before the final vote of confidence his supporters batted down a labor motion of censure 331-251.

In the closing minutes of the debate Eden asked:

"What will be the next step if Col. Nasser is allowed to succeed in the action he has taken?"

He added: "I have no doubt what it will be and I do not think the House has—Israel. Nasser called it 'the stooge of imperialism' in the very speech in which he nationalized the canal."

The voting came hours after Egypt told the Western powers their plan to take over control of Suez traffic, if carried through—will flash off a new war.

The tense House brushed aside the Egyptian contention that setting up a canal users' association to run ships through it "means war."

The vote stiffened the prime minister's campaign to keep the canal out of Nasser's sole control despite Laborite cries of "gunboat diplomacy."

There were similar votes of confidence in the House of Lords.

Eden mentioned the possibility of asking U.N. action after Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskell demanded to know whether the Britain government intended to shoot its way through the canal.

The Prime Minister said if Egypt barred the canal to any ship from the proposed users' association, the western powers would demand security council action.

Organizational Meeting Scheduled by 'Engineer'

An organizational meeting for the staff of the Penn State Engineer, a publication of the College of Engineering and Architecture, will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in 211 Mechanical Engineering.

Students interested in writing

Stevenson Calls Ike Part-Time Leader

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 13 (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson declared tonight Dwight D. Eisenhower is running the country under "a part-time presidency" and the leadership of the Republican party has passed to Vice President Nixon.

The Democratic presidential nominee, in an address prepared for a $50-a-plate dinner, declared in his sharpest criticism yet of his Republican rival:

"Every one shares in sympathy for the circumstances which have created a part-time presidency. But we cannot understand—and we will not accept—turning the government over to men who work full-time for the wrong people or a limited group of people.

"And the plain truth is that this situation would get worse, not better, in a continuation of this administration, because what influence the President has with his party in Congress has depended on his running again.

"From here on the future of Republican leaders will depend not on Eisenhower but the Republican heir-apparent, Mr. Nixon. And the vice president seems to sail downwind no matter which way the wind blows.

"These are stern facts. To ignore them is perilous. They are the reasons America's human needs go today unmet. Nor will they be met so long as the President is not master in his own house."

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said 8500 tickets were sold for the cafeteria-style buffet supper which preceded Stevenson's first major all-networks TV-radio address of the campaign, costing upwards of $200,000.

Using Finnegan's figures, the cold plate affair grossed $425,000 to be divided evenly between the national and Pennsylvania campaign.

The speech was drafted for delivery in the State Farm Show building arena which seats 11,000. Finnegan said many of the ticket buyers did not attend the buffet.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said 8500 tickets were sold for the cafeteria-style buffet supper which preceded Stevenson's first major all-networks TV-radio address of the campaign, costing upwards of $200,000.

Using Finnegan's figures, the cold plate affair grossed $425,000 to be divided evenly between the national and Pennsylvania campaign.

The speech was drafted for delivery in the State Farm Show building arena which seats 11,000. Finnegan said many of the ticket buyers did not attend the buffet.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said 8500 tickets were sold for the cafeteria-style buffet supper which preceded Stevenson's first major all-networks TV-radio address of the campaign, costing upwards of $200,000.

Using Finnegan's figures, the cold plate affair grossed $425,000 to be divided evenly between the national and Pennsylvania campaign.

The speech was drafted for delivery in the State Farm Show building arena which seats 11,000. Finnegan said many of the ticket buyers did not attend the buffet.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said 8500 tickets were sold for the cafeteria-style buffet supper which preceded Stevenson's first major all-networks TV-radio address of the campaign, costing upwards of $200,000.

Using Finnegan's figures, the cold plate affair grossed $425,000 to be divided evenly between the national and Pennsylvania campaign.

The speech was drafted for delivery in the State Farm Show building arena which seats 11,000. Finnegan said many of the ticket buyers did not attend the buffet.

Stevenson's campaign manager, James A. Finnegan, said 8500 tickets were sold for the cafeteria-style buffet supper which preceded Stevenson's first major all-networks TV-radio address of the campaign, costing upwards of $200,000.

CLAY, Ky., Sept. 13 (AP)—Boycotting of the Clay school spread today to some teachers as nearly 600 students shunned classrooms for a second day because two Negro pupils were admitted.

At the same time, Kentucky Atty. Gen. Jo M. Ferguson issued an opinion casting doubt on the legality of the Negro children being enrolled in the school.

The opinion, written at the request of the Webster County Board of Education, said "an individual parent has no right to enroll his child in a school without some action having been taken by the school board."

He added that if the matter were taken to court, it may be "the court will find Webster County has not acted with the 'deliberate speed' required by the Supreme Court."

Ten of 17 Clay teachers failed to report for class, two of the 10 resigned.

The mayor of Clay, Herman Z. Clark, said, "We will follow a policy of passive resistance by keeping our children out of school."

Only one unidentified third-grade boy remained in the three-story brick building with James and Teresa Gordon, the two Negro children. Outside, Kentucky National Guardsmen patrolled the school grounds.

The school principal, Miss Irene Powell, said the three pupils "are being taught regular classes."

At lunch time, she added, "they are served in the cafeteria."

She declined to identify the white boy but said he was in the same room with 8-year-old Teresa.

U.S. to Push Suez Board Against Protests - Dulles

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States will push ahead with plans for a Suez Canal shippers' association despite Egypt's warning that implementation of the plan "means war."

At the same time Dulles stated this government does not intend to "shoot its way through" the canal if Egypt blocks the way.

Rather than risk war in the Middle East, he said, the United States is ready to send its shipping around the base of Africa, avoiding the waterway seized by Egypt July 26 in a nationalization move.

American loans to European countries would be considered, he announced, to help them buy Western Hemisphere oil if Middle East shipments are disrupted.

Dulles spoke out firmly at a jam-packed news conference a few minutes after receiving an urgent message from the Egyptian government bitterly assailing the new plan, which is sponsored by the Western Big Three.

The message was delivered by Ambassador Ahmed Hussein. An Egyptian Embassy statement said Dulles was told, "The scheme which Sir Anthony Eden wants to impose on Egypt is an open and flagrant aggression of Egyptian sovereignty and its implementation means war."

Eden is the British prime minister. The embassy said Hussein also informed Dulles:

"If the United States desires war, then she may support the scheme, but if her desire is to work for a peaceful solution, the scheme has to be abandoned."

COMING DOWN FOR THE PENN GAME?
Make Your Headquarters at the
PENN SHERWOOD HOTEL

Nearest to Franklin Field and P.R.R. 30th St. Station
 Easiest to Reach by Car

Within Easy Walking Distance of Franklin Field
 Ample Parking

Prices that Fit a Student's Budget

Visit the Gay Persian Room After the Game

On the U. of P. Campus at 39th & Chestnut Sts., Phila.

WSPA to Hold Retreat Tomorrow in McElwain

Senate and ex-officio members of the Women's Student Government Association will discuss ways to improve women's student government at a retreat at 2 p.m. Saturday in McElwain's back lounge.

Daisy Zimmerman, WSPA President, will preside over a discussion of ways to create student interest in government and ways to stimulate student enforcement of government rules.

The Wise Upper Classmen Know --
 The Freshmen Soon Learn --
 "It's the Smart Thing To Do"
 TO BROWSE and BUY

at
The Pennsylvania Book Shop
 129 West Beaver Avenue

BOOKS CARDS RENTAL LIBRARY

You'll Walk on Clouds

... when you wear shoes from Simons

We feature (we feel) the finest selection of shoes and handbags in town.

Visit us and let us show you the Latest in Footwear Fashions by:

- ★ MANNEQUINS
- ★ TOWN & COUNTRY
- ★ DEB
- ★ MADEMOISELLE
- ★ SANDLER OF BOSTON
- ★ FLORSHEIM

HANDBAGS ★ HOSIERY ★ SOCKS

Simons