

Encampment Studies Campus Elections

(First of a series)

A permanent plan for alternating elected class and All-University officers by fraternity and independent affiliation was recommended by the workshop on political parties at Student Encampment Sept. 5 to 8 at the Mont Alto Forest School.

Encampments were originated by President Milton S. Eisenhower when he came to the University five years ago as an aid to ironing out student problems. All recommendations made at the gathering will be presented to All-University Cabinet for discussion this year.

Encampment Suggestions
Controversial opinions at Encampment resulted from the problem of jurisdiction of the Elections Committee over party platforms. They are:

1. Retain the provision for the review of party platforms by the Elections Committee.
2. The faculty advisor to the political party should be the approving agency for party platforms.

3. The political parties should stand or fall on the basis of the platforms they adopt without any pre-election review or approval other than consultation with their faculty adviser.
4. Eliminate platforms and run candidates on their background.

Alternating Plan
The long range plan for alternating the affiliation of class officers allows freshman officers to be all independents; sophomore—president, fraternity and vice-president, independent; junior—president, independent and vice-president, fraternity; senior—

1st Froth Issue Out Tomorrow

Froth, campus humor magazine, will go on sale tomorrow at the Corner Room, the Mall, the Hetzel Union Building, and West Dorms for 25 cents.

Froth, so its spokesmen say, will literally be packed with features on Elvis Presley, a Freshman File on characters around campus, and "run of the Mall" parody articles and cartoons.

Oh, yes, there's the Froth Girl of the Month. Ruth Strafford, senior in psychology from Waynesburg will be featured in this issue.

president, fraternity and vice-president, independent.

All-University officers will alternate—fraternity and independent—from year to year with the president and secretary-treasurer being of the same affiliation and the vice president of opposite affiliation.

The plan was created to minimize the potential friction between the affiliation. The alternating system as it now stands, that of flipping a coin to decide the affiliation if the clique chairmen disagree, causes uncertainties and is left largely to chance.
