

Male Debaters Plan Meeting For Tomorrow

The first meeting of the semester for the men's debate team will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 316 Sparks, with six members of last year's varsity group returning, manager Jon Plaut said yesterday.

Undergraduate men have been invited to attend a preliminary tryout meeting at 7 p.m. Sept. 26 in 316 Sparks. No debate preparation is necessary for this meeting.

Regular tryouts will be conducted at 7 p.m. Nov. 4 in 316 Sparks. Interested persons must attend both meetings to qualify for team membership.

The 1956-57 national debate question is "Resolved: That the United States should discontinue direct economic aid to foreign countries." Team coach Joseph F. O'Brien, professor of public speaking.

Returning varsity members are Plaut, Edward Klevans, Thomas Hollander, Jay Feldstein, Gerald Bogus and Robert Neff.

One of their outstanding accomplishments was winning the North-South championships in February at the West Virginia University.

Waiter Jobs Available To Off-Campus Students

Students living off-campus who are interested in obtaining employment in campus dining halls or in the cafeteria of the Hetzel Union Building may apply at the Student Employment Service office in 112 Old Main.

Compensation will be in meals only.

A limited number of fraternity dining hall jobs plus catering jobs for student wives in the HUB cafeterias also are available. Payment for catering will be on a cash basis.

Silva to Be Interviewed

Dr. Ruth C. Silva, associate professor of political science at the University, will be interviewed on "Behind the Lectern" at 8 tonight over radio station WDFM.

Too Young to Rock 'n Roll

"FLUFFY," an uninvited guest to the Dink Debut, wants an orchid too, but pretty Dee Hauser, freshman business administration major, thought "Fluffy" was too young to attend the freshman dance. Helen Litke, freshman in foreign service, and Evelyn Werham, freshman in zoology, help keep the black kitten under control. "Fluffy" soon became the center of attraction amidst the "rock 'n roll" of Saturday's frosh social.
