

Health Service Grants Will Support Research

Grants from the U.S. Public Health Service, totalling more than $183,200, will support research studies and training programs at the University during the coming academic year.

Ten research programs will be supported by grants totalling $140,208 while $42,996 has been provided for a mental health training program.

University To Receive Computer

Large-scale computer equipment, capable of solving complex mathematical problems in minutes, will soon be available to the University.

The equipment, which will be housed in a central laboratory, will be used primarily for University research and instruction. However, it is expected that business and government interests will also be served.

Headed by Tarpley

The laboratory will be based in the department of electrical engineering and headed by Professor H. I. Tarpley.

Computer machinery is considered indispensable to modern research because of its speed and accuracy. Dr. Eric A. Walker, president-elect of the University, said. Such machinery is needed on a university campus because a primary function of the institution is performing research. Without machine computation this research would be delayed or would have to be abandoned.

Lab Is Desirable

The need for men trained in the computer field, and the intricacy of such work also make a computer laboratory desirable.

An information brochure explaining what the facilities are and how they may be used, will be issued soon.

Requests for computer work will be considered by Tarpley and a University-wide committee.

Atoms are so small that if a drop of water were magnified to the size of the earth, the atoms in the drop would be smaller than oranges.

Traffic Court Tries Student Violators

The Traffic Court is a judicial body that upperclassmen frequently come in contact with, much to their regret.

It is an appointed student body, consisting of eight undergraduates and one graduate student, which judges various infractions of traffic rules.

Penalties for infractions are on a graduated basis: first violation: $1 fine; second, $3 fine; third, $5 fine; fourth, $10 fine and 60 day suspension of driving privileges on campus; fifth, car is sent home for 16 weeks.

Fine Added

A one dollar fine per offense is added to those students who fail to report to the Campus Patrol office, 320 Od Main, after incurring a violation. The failure to report to the Traffic Court results in the loss of the right to appeal a violation. Students will have to pay five dollars if they fail to register their car or display the registration sticker.

The more important rules for students who operate a vehicle on or about the University include:

1. All vehicles must be registered with the Campus Patrol. The registration stickers must be permanently attached on the windshield behind the rear view mirror.

2. Vehicles must not be driven on Pollock road between Burrows and Shortlidge roads from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 7:30 to noon Saturday.

3. A vehicle may be parked only in the specific area assigned to it.

4. All other parking on campus is strictly prohibited. Visitor spaces, service drives, and unmarked spaces may not be used for student parking. This rule is in effect during the time stated in rule two.

5. Violations are assigned to the vehicle, as each individual is responsible for the vehicle registered in his name.

6. Vehicles jointly owned by a student and an employee of the University shall be registered in the name of the employee only.

7. No freshman may possess or operate a motor vehicle in Centre County, except under special conditions.

Violator May Appeal

Any violator has the right to appeal his case before the Traffic Court. A student may further appeal his case to the Dean of Men.

If a student receives a ticket, he should report to Campus Patrol. It has been observed that those who report immediately and pay their fine rarely violate a second time, while those who ignore their first tickets often end up paying large fines. Students who fail to report will be called into the Dean of Men's office.
