

Intramural Grid Preview

10 Fraternities Rate As IM Contenders

The proverbial lid comes flying off the Intramural football box tonight on the New Beaver practice field with four games, the inaugural beginning at 7.

The Daily Collegian decided to look into that box and see what this year's fraternity elevens have to offer. In doing this, we have scouted the top ten outfits in last year's tourney and here's what we've come up with:

PHI KAPPA SIGMA took all of the marbles last year and a veteran-laden outfit, supported by several of last year's Navy players—winner of the Independent diadem—must rate as strong contenders.

Captain Lou Schneider has departed, but his talented touchdown twin, Guy Tirabassi is back to pace the attack. Pledge Phil Hodges, a former Dickinson quarterback and star of last year's Navy team, will handle the passing. Gip Bonar, another pledge, should also see considerable action in the tailback slot. Schneider's brother, Tom, and Mike Beattie will spearhead the forward wall and 6-6 Carmen Palmiero and Vance Brehm, also 6-6, will adequately handle the flanks.

PHI GAMMA DELTA, last year's runner-up, should also give a good representation of itself. Chuck Christiansen and Jack Bergeson are the big losses, but passer Terry Hutton and Bill Detterer are a top-flight combination to make the campus outfit forget their departures. Don Ferguson, John Lessig and pledges Jim Pratt, Wayne Breish and Bob Manning are additional men with enough experience to push Phi Gam to the top.

ALPHA CHI SIGMA, semi-finalist, has most of last year's team intact, including tailback Joe Knock. Gene Capriotti and Ted Kubista are a pair of pledges who bear watching, along with letter-winners Fred Miller, Bob Bishop and Don Featherman.

DELTA UPSILON, the other semi-finalist, will be relying upon the diminutive shoulders of John Pepe and Don Shaw, who snags Pepe's passes. Ogie Norris is the only pledge likely to break into the starting eleven.

DELTA SIGMA PHI, who trademarked their attack with a hard-charging line will be without the services of Ron Lentz, Tom Close and Duke Miller, but passers John Rusnak and George Hunter and linemen Bill Kaiser and George Hoffman, who also passes, should fill the gap.

Look for ALPHA CHI RHO and KAPPA DELTA RHO to kick up enough sparks to bump them all in the final analysis. A Chi Rho has Steve Baidy, the all-stater, and Hugh Cooper back, and they were IT in last year's games. Dave Watkins is a pledge who could surpass the feats of Cooper and Baidy.

KDR, led by their do-everything-guy, Pat Reilly, should be a contender all the way. Stan Cheslock and 6-3 Dave Hamrick are capable receivers. Only apparent weakness is the middle line, which will be revitalized by pledge Joe Corini.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI, ALPHA EPSILON PI, and PI KAPPA PHI were also members of the elite ten last season. Of the three, Pi Kappa Phi appears the strongest this year on the basis of ace tailback Ron Rainey, unless he should forego football for basketball.

If Rainey departs, Tom Holmes or Harry Holm will inherit the tailback spot. Don Simmons, Frank Gleim and pledge Pat Kinney are probable starters.

AEPi's attack will be vested in triple-threat Jack Schonberger, Mal Pritzker, Phil Petter and soph Milt Markowitz.

Alpha Sig has Harry Brown, Ralph Bower and Dick Ferrari returning from last year's powerhouse, while pledges Tom Norton and Jack Stenac will back that trio in an effort to stay near the top.

Mantle, Aaron Lead Pack As Batting Races Tighten

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Both major league batting races go right down to the wire this week with Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Milwaukee's Hank Aaron clinging to narrow leads.

MANTLE, the American League pace-setter, is swinging at .356 clip and is six points ahead of Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox. Aaron, hitting .325, holds a four-point edge over Pittsburgh's Bill Virdon in the National League's batting derby. Figures include games through Sunday.

SECOND A WEEK AGO, Mantle regained the lead from Williams with 8 hits in 14 trips for a 6-point gain. Williams, hitting .350, went 6-for-19 and lost 2 points. The Thumper, however, still must come to the plate 17 official times in his remaining five games to attain the 400 at bats required to qualify for the title.

VIRDON, last season's Rookie of the Year as a member of the St. Louis Cards, is making a belated bid to overhaul Aaron. The Pittsburgh outfielder gained two points last week with 7-for-18. Aaron went 8-for-29 and dropped two points.

THE 22-YEAR-OLD Aaron can become the second youngest player to capture National League hitting laurels. Pete Reiser was 21 when he topped the loop as a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941.

BROOKLYN'S Duke Snider tops the senior circuit in homers with 39, followed by Cincinnati rookie Frank Robinson with 38. Stan Musial of St. Louis heads the RBI production with 105, three more than runner-up Ted Kluszewski of the Redlegs.

HARVEY KUENN of the Tigers ranks behind Mantle and Williams in the American League batting parade with a .332 average. Detroit's Charley Maxwell is fourth at .331 and Baltimore's Bob Nieman rounds out the first five with .318.

In the National, Musial is third with .311 and Pittsburgh's Bob Clemente fourth with .309. Ken Boyer and Wally Moon, both of the Cards, are tied for fifth at .307 each.

Knox Blasts Grid System

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Ronnie Knox, highly publicized quarterback of UCLA's Rose Bowl team, says he quit college football because he became disillusioned and "the system itself forced me to lie and taught me to connive."

8 Gridders 'Poisoned'

ALTANTA, Sept. 24 (AP)—Some microscopic "bug," probably a type of food poisoning, put eight husky Georgia Tech football players in a hospital today.

Dodgers Win Suspended Tilt

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers regained the National League lead by one percentage point tonight as they completed a suspended game with the Pittsburgh Pirates, winning 8-3. The game, played before the start of a regularly scheduled contest, was halted yesterday because of Pennsylvania's 6 p.m., EDT, Sunday curfew law.

The victory gave the Dodgers an 89-59 record and a .601 percentage. Milwaukee has a .600 percentage on a 90-66 record.

In the ninth, Bob Garber, seventh Pirate pitcher, struck out Roy Campanella after giving up a walk to Gil Hodges.

Clem Labine, also nominated to start the regularly scheduled contest, pitched the Pirate ninth. He got Johnny O'Brien to ground out to shortstop Pee Wee Reese, struck out pinch-hitter Dale Long and retired Bob Clemente on an infield out.

Upsets Mar Poll Predictions

If anyone is going to make an impressive showing in our weekly football poll, he is going to have to take chances.

Old man upset made a shambles of Saturday's picks, and when the dust cleared, Lucky Lou Prato emerged as top man, getting 11 of 15 right for a .733 percentage mark.

Lucky Lou was thwarted by S.M.U., Syracuse, South Carolina, and Detroit, as were his fellow swamis. He predicted North Carolina State's win over North Carolina. This choice put Lucky Lou in the lead, one ahead of Fearless

Fran Fanucci and his .667 mark. Earl Bruce, carrying the ball for the coaches, gambled on an upset that didn't occur when he chose Texas over Southern California; result, a 9-6 mark and third place.

Vicious Vince Carocci, not to be outdone, proved that even worse could be accomplished. His 8-7 mark isn't too pretty, but this boy shows promise. Anyone who has courage enough to pick Georgia over Vanderbilt (14-0, Vandy) and Virginia Tech over Tulane (37-0, Tulane) is the kind of gambler who'll go far.

THE SEARCH FOR BRIDEY SIGAFOOS

It was a dullish evening at the Theta house. Mary Ellen Krumbald was sticking pins in an effigy of the house mother; Evelyn Zinsmaster was welding a manhole cover to her charm bracelet; Algelica McKeesport was writing a letter to Elvis Presley in blood. Like I say, it was a dullish evening.

Suddenly Dolores Vladnay stood up and stamped her foot. "Chaps," she said to her sorors, "this is too yawa-making! Let's do something gay and mad and wild and different and gasp-making. Anybody got an idea?"

"No," said the sorors, shaking their little sausage curls.

"Think, chaps, think!" said Dolores and passed Philip Morris Cigarettes to everybody, and if there ever was a think-making smoke, it is today's fresh and zestful and yummy Philip Morris. Things come clear when you puff a good, clean, natural Philip Morris—knots untie, dilemmas dissolve, problems evaporate, cobwebs vanish, fog disperses, and the benevolent sun pours radiance on a new and dewy world. Oh, happy world! Oh, Philip Morris! Oh, regular! Oh, long-size! Oh, get some already!

"One, two, three."

Now Geraldine Quidnunc, her drooping brain-cells revived by a good Philip Morris, leapt up and cried, "Oh, I have a perfect gasser of an idea! Let's hypnotize somebody!"

"Oh, capital!" cried the sorors. "Oh, tingle-making!" "Yes," said Dolores Vladnay, "it is a splendid idea, but hypnosis requires a pliant and malleable mind, and we are all so strong and well-adjusted."

At this point, in walked a young pledge named Alice Bluegown. "Excuse me, mistresses," said she, "I have finished making your beds, doing your homework, and ironing your pleats. Will there be anything else?"

"Yes," snapped Dolores Vladnay. "When I count to three, you will be hypnotized."

"Yes, excellency," said Alice, bobbing a curtsy.

"One, two, three," said Dolores.

Alice promptly went into a trance. "Go back," said Dolores. "Go back to your fifth birthday, back to your birth, to before your birth, to your last incarnation... Now, who are you?"

"My name is Bridey Sigafos," said Alice. "The year is 1818, and I am in County Cork."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"How old are you?" asked Dolores.

"I am seven," said Alice.

"Where is your mother?" asked Dolores.

"She got sold at the fair last year."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Tell us about yourself," said Dolores.

"I am five feet tall," said Alice. "I have brown eyes, and weigh 3200 pounds."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Isn't that rather heavy for a girl?" said Dolores.

"Who's a girl?" said Alice. "I'm a black and white guernsey."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Moo!" said Bridey Sigafos.
