

Staff of W3YA Will Sponsor Radio Classes

Members of the staff of W3YA, the University amateur radio station, are again sponsoring classes in continental code this semester and, in addition, will offer classes in the fundamentals of radio theory.

Code classes will be conducted for beginners who wish to become novice operators and also for those who have a knowledge of code and wish to become more proficient in it.

Given along with the more advanced code will be a fundamental course in radio theory which will assist those interested in earning a General Class amateur operator's license.

The organizational meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in 219 Electrical Engineering. Any person attending these classes has been asked to be at the organizational meeting.

Those unable to attend the meeting may enroll by contacting William Schweikart at ADams 7-2737 or Patricia Webb at 231 McElwain before Wednesday.

were mobbed as soon as the rope appeared.

Crowds Persist

The persistent crowd thwarted the efforts of hatmen and cheerleaders to clear a pathway for the rope-pulling contest.

The rope was finally removed to the corner of Burrowes Rd. in front of McKee Hall while the crowd's attention was diverted by the Air Force Pep Band.

Frosh Pull Rope to Beaver Field

Before the contest could get officially underway, 80 freshmen jumped on the rope and began pulling it toward Beaver Field.

After the freshmen had officially won the contest they continued the "big pull" until they wrapped it around a Beaver Field goal post amid cries of "Burn the Dinks."

2 Deans Serve as Judges

Frank J. Simes, dean of men, and Harold W. Perkins, assistant dean of men, who helped organize the tug-of-war and served as judges, were praised for their cooperation by members of the Freshman Customs Board.
