

Women Will Elect Dormitory Officers

By JOAN MILLER

Elections of unit officers in Simmons, McElwain, Atherton, and Grange dormitories will be held in each unit after 10 p.m. Monday.

Offices to be filled are president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer or secretary and treasurer.

Patrolman Sought In Nittany

Nittany Council will discuss the possibility of stationing a campus patrolman at the intersection of Pollock and Entrance roads during rush hours at its meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in Nittany 20.

According to Council president Melvin Weaver, junior in industrial engineering from Temple, the influx of students from the main classroom area at lunch and dinner time and the increased traffic control a necessity.

TV Report to Be Made
The council will also hear a report on the progress being made on the installation of a newly-acquired television set.

Construction of the tower on Nittany 20 which will support the antenna was begun yesterday. It is hoped that the set will be in operation in time for the World Series.

Nomination of Officers
Other items on the agenda are nomination of officers to fill vacant council positions, and discussion of the use and care of food vending machines that have recently been installed in Nittany 20.

Nittany unit presidents and persons interested in student government may attend.

Prexy Praises—

(Continued from page one)

ably this "strong belief in the role of the privately supported university . . ." and the differences between Johns Hopkins and the University that made the opportunity to assume the Maryland university's presidency so appealing.

During his educational career Dr. Eisenhower has been president of the University and Kansas State College. Both are state-supported institutions.

Eisenhower's Idea on Education
The picture-dotted article said Dr. Eisenhower's idea of the purpose of education is: "To develop minds capable of thinking critically, objectively, and creatively within a moral framework."

Along with this philosophy, the new Johns Hopkins president shys away from the prospect of anyone being a specialist, the article said.

One of the problems of education, Dr. Eisenhower said, is approach: "finding the most effective balance between the need for a broad education . . . and the need for specialization in an era of increasingly complex and demanding technologies."

Expresses Fear of Dogmatist
"To me," Dr. Eisenhower said, "this is frightening: that it is perfectly possible to have a specialist in one field who is a dogmatist in other fields. Because he is good in his specialty, he may think he is equally good in other areas, and thus be a dangerous dogmatist."

However, Dr. Eisenhower said, the problem exists not only for the technologists but for the social scientists and humanists as well. It is as important for the latter to be informed about science, as it is for scientists to be broadly educated in the social sciences and humanities.

Promotions Announced

Eight promotions on the business office staff of The Daily Collegian have been announced.

Promoted to the sophomore board are Janice Smith, Marion Ernest, Marilyn Roberts, Sally Coltrin, Joanne Yergey, and Suzanne Stamm.

Other promotions are Nancy Lederer, junior board, and Sue Mortensen, adjuter.

What's This?

"WHAT'S THIS?" That is the question to be answered in this new feature which will be printed once or twice a week as space permits. All of the pictures in this series will be on campus. So, "What's This?" Answer on page eight.

SU President Praises HUB Following Tour

Dr. Earl Harper, an authority on student union buildings in American colleges, visited the University Thursday and yesterday and praised the Hetzel Union Building.

Dr. Harper is president of the Association of College Unions and is a member of the University of Iowa administration as director of the Memorial Union Building and director of the College of Fine Arts.

Viewed Many Buildings
Since becoming president of the College Unions Association, Dr. Harper has viewed many of the student unions in American colleges and he found the HUB to be one of the most modern unions that he has seen.

He was very impressed with such particulars as the excellent use of glass in the windows and the view of the surrounding area from these windows. Dr. Harper also commented on the beauty of the front patio.

Location Praised
"The convenience of the central location of the HUB is not found in many of the other college campuses where the unions are located off campus," says Dr. Harper.

The architecture and careful planning of the lay-out of the HUB received the most praise from Dr. Harper. He was very impressed by the way in which the HUB facilitates the needs and desires of the students.

The original "Uncle Sam" was Samuel Wilson, a superintendent of provisions, whose men, as a joke, linked his nickname, "Uncle Sam," to the "U.S." stamped on all provisions.

The president of each unit will act as that unit's representative on Women Student Government Association House of Representatives. The vice president will serve as alternate representative.

To qualify for office, nominees must have at least an all-university average of 2.5 and no major judicial record. Presidential candidates may not be on Freshman Regulations Board, Judicial Board, or a member of the Senate or WSGA.

Nominees in unit one of Simmons are:

Shirley Anselmo, Margaret Lieberman, Barbara Riling, Phyllis Hodges, president; Mary Wagner, Jacqueline Weber, vice president; Roseanne Fortunato, Barbara Howell, secretary-treasurer.

Unit two of Simmons has nominated Lynn Stollmeyer, Edith Gross, Susanne Fisher, president; Barbara McLane, Patricia Graham, Linda Ely, vice president; Mary Shockey, Elaine Koncsol, Lois Snyder, secretary-treasurer.

Simmons unit three nominated Betty Adelson, Audrey Ginsburg, Janet Barney, president; Barbara Heltman, Judy Singer, vice president; Priscilla Leek, Virginia Mottorn, secretary-treasurer.

Unit four of Simmons has nominated Roberta Armstrong, Priscilla Kepner, president; Sandra Flory, Gail Kleppinger, vice president; Anna Johnson, Virginia Price, secretary; Claire Van Deusen, treasurer.

Nominees of McElwain unit one are: Joyce Koch, Sally Coltrin, Mary Horner, president; Betty Manifold, Daria Dutko, Mary Phillips, vice president; Sheila Teplitz, Harriet Learn, Jane Jennings, secretary-treasurer.

Unit two of McElwain has nominated Anne Nitraver, Sue Mortensen, Carole Bauer, president; Barbara Moore, Joan Auerbach, Norma Talarico, vice president; Ann Lutz, Arlene Zimmerman, secretary-treasurer.

McElwain unit three nominated Virginia Mensch, Marilyn Roberts, Joan Chase, Molly Lockwood, president; Maureen Funk, Louise Schroyer, vice president; Avis Dunkelberger, Patricia Connor, secretary-treasurer.

Nominees of unit four are Gretel Soltys, Katherine Vyse, Sandra Peters, president; Carol Turner, Judy Armstrong, Constance Yeschka, vice president; Carol Davidson, secretary-treasurer.

The southeast unit of Atherton has named: Henrietta Hertzog, Barbara Simon, Lois E. Henderson, Joan Esslinger, Marjorie Ludwig, president; Constance Hindman, Bernice McAttee, Venice Ceccacci, Joyce Heck, Irma Patterson, Joan Schaffer, vice president.

(Continued on page eight)

Martin Spins Top Tunes On Daily Radio Show

A voice soon to be familiar to University radio listeners is that of Bob Martin, who began three weeks ago spinning the top 100 tunes weekly over station WMAJ.

Martin's show, "An Afternoon of Music," is heard from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. From 4:30 to 5 each day, the five top hits are played, beginning with the 25th on Monday and climaxing to the number one tune at 5 p.m. Friday, three minutes to listen to him."

Also at 5 p.m. daily he gives "tips on hits" and predicts the popularity trend of new recordings. "All kinds of people like Elvis Presley, even old ladies," the disc jockey said.

Transferred from Kent State University in Ohio, selects the tunes from Billboard and Variety magazines, and a tremendous record boom in the claims that "about every third record played is rock 'n' roll." "All kinds of people like Elvis Presley, even old ladies," the disc jockey said.

One afternoon Martin played a survey of the 25 top tunes in Central County from juke box operations, and afterward, music shops, and program said "hope this won't interfere with your studying." The mail tips on hits included, will be next day brought three cards from coeds, saying, "I'll stop any campus every Monday morning.

WDFM-WMAJ Pact Will Begin Monday

By JUDY HARKISON

Student radio station WDFM, operating for four years on an FM band only, will begin Monday night to broadcast six hours of its weekly evening program schedule over WMAJ.

WDFM programs will now present to a larger audience national and campus news, music, personality interviews, special events, and religious programs.

Since WDFM was first aired in 1953, students living on campus have been unable to receive it with regular AM radios. WMAJ, the State College AM station, has been the only strong station on campus radio dials.

Will Originate on Campus
Now WDFM presentations, prepared by students and faculty, will originate in the station's campus studios and will be carried to WMAJ through a line installed and maintained by WMAJ.

A recommendation for a student AM station was approved by All-University Cabinet last spring.

Due to Federal Communications Commission regulations and the slim possibility of finding an available frequency, University officials later reported that an AM station was improbable within the immediate future.

However, an investigating committee composed of WDFM representatives and members of the administration, was recommended by the Student Encampment to explore the possibilities and practicality of a closed-circuit station, an AM station, or advancing the present work on transponders.

To Broadcast Simultaneously
Beginning Monday, national and campus news will be broadcast Monday through Thursday from 9:45 to 10 p.m. simultaneously over WDFM and WMAJ. Included in these programs Tuesday and Thursday will be a five minute news program translated in the Romance languages.

"As You Believe," a 15-minute program presented alternately by the Hillel Foundation, University Christian Association, and the Newman Club, will be heard Thursday evenings at 8 p.m.

A 30-minute news program at 9 p.m. Friday nights will feature interviews with the people who are in top campus news.

Saturday to be Music Night
Three hours of music will be broadcast Saturday nights with live music by student 'combos' from 8 to 8:30 originating from the Hetzel Union auditorium. An hour long record show will follow "Hubzapoppin'" and an hour and a half of high fidelity classical music will be broadcast until 11 p.m.

In addition to the above simultaneous AM-FM programs, WDFM will continue to broadcast its 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. FM schedule.

Other special events on campus will be carried by WMAJ, whenever possible, it was announced. Occasionally used will be a remote console donated to the HUB by WMAJ.

Henning Will Address Faculty Luncheon Club

Dr. William L. Henning, state secretary of agriculture, will address the Faculty Luncheon Club at noon Monday in the Hetzel Union building.

Dr. Henning is on leave as professor and head of the department of animal husbandry.

His topic will be "Services Performed by the Department of Agriculture."

Division of Counseling

The Division of Counseling, a service designed to render aid to students in the Colleges of Agriculture, Business Administration, and Engineering, has set up temporary headquarters in room 3, Old Main.

STATE NOW

"1984"
From the Book
by George Orwell

SUNDAY & MONDAY
"HOT ROD GIRL"
AND
"GIRLS IN PRISON"

8 Freshmen Win Journ Scholarships

Scholarship awards will be presented to eight freshmen journalism majors during the Journalism 1 class at 11 a.m. Monday in 121 Sparks.

Dr. James W. Markham, head of the department of news and editorial journalism, will present scholarships to the three winners in the news field, and Donald W. Davis, head of the department of advertising, will award scholarships to the five advertising winners.

News Winners
The winners in news are William Jaffe, Philipsburg, $300 per year, Howard J. Lamade Scholarship; Jerome McGinnis, Clearfield, $150 Joseph Biddle Memorial Scholarship; and Pamela Chamberlain, Indiana, $130 George E. Graff Memorial Scholarship.

Advertising winners are Barbara Miller, Williamsport, and Virginia Fitzmartin, Verona, co-winners of the $200 Ralph Weaver Straussburger Scholarship; Randall Murray, Greensburg, $175 General Advertising Scholarship; Sherry D. Kennel, Lancaster, $100 Steinman Journalism Award; Rose E. Schmidt, Pittsburgh, $100 Valley Daily News Scholarship; and Leonard H. Julius, West Palm Beach, Fla., $100 Richard A. Foley Advertising Agency, Inc., Scholarship.

Effective During Frosh Year
All scholarships except the Lamade award are in effect during the freshman year only. The Lamade scholarship continues to pay $300 during the recipient's sophomore, junior, and senior year provided he maintains high scholarship.

The advertising scholarships, all being awarded for the second year, are made possible through members of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association and advertising agencies.

Siegel Author of Book

Dr. Sidney Siegel, associate professor of psychology, has authored a new book "Nonparametric Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences."

CATHAUM

• LAST TIMES TODAY •
AUDIE MURPHY
"Walk the Proud Land"
CinemaScope - Color

• BEGINS SUNDAY •
So Daring You'll Say:
"How Did They Dare Make It!"
"Bigger Than Life"
James Mason

NITTANY

• NOW SHOWING •
—Featuretime—
Today—1:10, 3:14, 5:18, 7:22, 9:30
Sunday—2:55, 5:15, 7:21, 9:30

"The best underworld story yet filmed . . . holds you in an iron grip . . . it is the best foreign film seen this year!"
—Daily Mirror

"GO TO SEE 'RIFIPI'"
"RIFIPI"
... means Trouble!
No One Seated Once Feature Has Started