

Ike Promises Hike In Jobs If Elected

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 1 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower ripped into the Democratic-controlled Congress tonight and held out the promise of good-paying jobs for 70 million Americans if he is reelected.

In a train-plane sortie into Ohio and Kentucky, the President lashed out at his rival, Adlai E. Stevenson.

Adlai Backs Federal Aid For Schools

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson called tonight for a federal aid-to-education program to help provide 50,000 teachers and 100,000 classrooms each year, plus a college education for all "able students."

The Democratic presidential nominee accused the Eisenhower administration of having "utterly failed to develop a comprehensive policy for education."

He said the administration had demonstrated a lack of "strong leadership in the cause of our most valuable resource—our children."

Stevenson said his program envisages spending of from $500 million to $1 billion more each year for the next 10 years.

He said local communities are having a tough time finding money to pay for schools.

Suez Canal Users Conference Set Up

LONDON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Suez Canal Users Assn., was set up today amid reports of Western Big Three disagreement on whether Egypt may be either persuaded or forced to accept international control.

Fifteen of the 18 nations invited to London joined SCUA at once. Japan, Pakistan and Ethiopia remained on the fence.

Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd of Britain once more refused to rule out force as a final solution.

Iceland, U.S. Discuss Troop Occupation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles met for 80 minutes with Iceland's foreign minister today in a session both agreed "gave rise to hope" for settlement of the question of American troops in Iceland.

This cautiously optimistic note was disclosed in a joint statement authorized after the initial meeting, a get-together which both sides insisted did not represent "negotiations."

Actual negotiations on Iceland's demand that U.S. troops be withdrawn from its territory will begin "sometime in the near future," spokesmen said.

Dulles, on behalf of the 14-nation North Atlantic pact Council, wants to maintain some of the 4000 American troops in Iceland.

Mac Sez... Let's Have That Ivy Look!

We took care of Penn, didn't we? But how do we compare with Penn for fashions? They are very "Ivy" aren't they?

Well, you too can have that "Ivy" look of Penn.

How? That's easy. By wearing Lee's tapered belted-back slacks. Yes, they have the Ivy League non pleated front. The plain front and tapered leg emphasize the slim look, so essential in "Ivy" fashions.

Lee tapered trousers are not a chino material but a twill fabric. This means a stronger and a more long-wearing trouser. These trousers come in black or khaki, colors which will fit easily into any wardrobe. Lee trousers are guaranteed not to shrink or fade.

When you're wearing these trousers with the leisure look you'll look and feel like a smooth, relaxed college man.

Come into Danks today and see how you can have that "Ivy" look.

Lee's fashionable trousers are priced at only $4.95.

Delta-Wing Plane Crashes in London

LONDON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Vulcan world's largest delta-wing bomber missed the runway and crashed in flames at mist-shrouded London Airport today. Hair-trigger ejection seats catapulted the pilot and a British air marshal to safety, but four crewmen perished.

A distinguished crowd waiting to welcome the four-jet "Mighty Bat" home from a testing flight to Australia witnessed the crash.

The plane, one of Britain's secret atom-bomb carriers, roared out of driving rain and plunged into the ground while being "talked in" because of bad visibility.

Israeli Representatives Leave Peace Negotiations

JERUSALEM, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Israeli delegation to the Israel-Jordan Armistice Commission walked out of a meeting of the commission today just as the chairman was about to vote on a resolution proposed by Jordan.

The Israelis took the view the chairman was going to vote for it, thus giving it approval.

UMW Conclave to Open

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1 (AP)—The United Mine Workers of America, whose conventions in the past often have been held amid internal strife or controversies with operators, will open their 42nd constitutional meeting here tomorrow in what shapes up as a peaceful setting.
