

Army Braces for Lion Charge

Booters Visit West Chester

Jack Farls
To start today

Sam Valentine
Line mainstay

Lions Hope for Upset, Spirit Boosts Chances

By FRAN FANUCCI
Collegian Sports Editor

WEST POINT, N.Y., Oct. 6—A confident Penn State football team meets the first of five opponents listed in the nation's "top twenty" here today when it faces perennial powerhouse Army, before an estimated 25,000 fans in Michie Stadium, in one of the East's top grid attractions of the day.

The Black Knights are rated 13 points better than the Lions, but some experts are a little dubious concerning this game and are picking the Lions in an upset.

This will be the seventh game of the Army-Lion series dating back to 1899, the first and last year the Lions beat an Army team. Since then the closest they have come to winning was in 1900 and 1939 when they held the Cadets to a tie.

Radio Station WMAJ will air the Lion-Cadet game at 2 p.m. (EDT) direct from Michie Stadium with Bob Prince handling the play-by-play. Warm-up time is set for 1:45 p.m.

The last three times—1949, 1950, 1955—the Lions faced Army they were turned back by wide margins and in each of those games they had entered with high hopes. Last year's score, 35-6, was an indication of the strong defense Army continually boasts.

This year the identical line, except for one player, returns, but the Cadet backfield has been completely revamped. Gone from last year's backfield are Pat Ubel, fullback, Pete Lash, high-scoring halfback, and Don Hollender, quarterback.

The only returnee is Bob Kyasky, who was switched from halfback to quarterback earlier this year because of lack of material at that position. Kyasky has been plagued by injuries most of his career and still remains an unknown quantity un-

SWAMP

Superficial, ostentatious, profusely discreet

The "Kings" of the R.O.T.C.

Today will be dragged thru such shameful defeat

That by Sunday they'll all be at sea.

ARMY

Top Grid Squads Face Big Tests During Weekend

By The Associated Press

The iffy teams of 1956 college football—and which ones aren't at this stage of the season?—are due for some severe tests today as the season moves into the first real football month, October.

The upsets and erratic performances of September have left some doubt about the strength of such highly-rated teams as Notre Dame, Ohio State, Missouri, Southern Methodist, Texas A&M, Maryland, Georgia Tech, Army, Colgate, Yale, Cornell and others. All but Georgia Tech get chances to find the answers today.

Oklahoma Tops

There's little doubt, of course, that Oklahoma has lived up so far to the number 1 rating is carried over from last season or that today's Michigan State-Michigan tussle likely will be an important factor in the Big Ten and national championship races.

Oklahoma's Sooners are rated first in the current Associated Press ranking poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Sooners Favored

They are expected to hold that spot after meeting twice-beaten Kansas State in their first Big Seven game of the season. They opened last week with a 36-0 victory over outclassed North Carolina.

Michigan State, number two in the poll, and Michigan, five, both looked impressive in opening victories over Stanford and UCLA, respectively. The winner of today's struggle before 101,000 spectators at Ann Arbor likely will become the favorite in the Big Ten, with only defending champion Ohio State to be reckoned with. Ohio's Buckeyes, minus Hopalong Cassidy, take on Stanford in a game that offers the basis of a comparison with Michigan State.

Sixteen of the 36 players Penn State used in its 34-0 rout of Pennsylvania had never before engaged in a college football game.

Seek to Extend 4-Year, 19-Game Winning Streak

By LOU PRATO

Will the Penn State soccer team extend its four-year 19-game winning skein this afternoon at West Chester?

That is the most important question on the lips of Lion soccer fans today as Coach Ken Hosterman sends the Nittany Lion booters against West Chester State Teachers College in a battle of college soccer giants.

Mike Stollmeyer
Sophomore scorer

Otto Rosenberger
Replacement at Full

The Lions started their winning streak in the final game of the 1953 season when they shutout the University of Pennsylvania soccermen, 6-0. The next year, the Nittanies were unbeaten in eight games and last year they continued their all-conquering ways with a 9-0 record.

Bucknell University became the 19th victim of the Lions last week, 7-0, in the opening game of the 1956 campaign. Letterman Tom Nute and sophomore Mike Stollmeyer led the Lion attack with two goals apiece.

Nute wasn't even in the starting lineup against the Bisons but his performance in the game earned him a starting berth for today's encounter. He will replace Dave Haase in the center forward spot—the old position of two-time All-American Dick Packer who last year led the Lions in scoring.

The only other change in the Nittany lineup will take place at fullback. Hosterman was disappointed with his fullbacks in the Bucknell game and hopes that his new alignment at that position will bring them up to par.

Letterman Ralph Brower will shift from right fullback to left fullback in place of Dave Davis, and sophomore Otto Rosenberger will fill the position left vacant by Brower.

Steve Flamporis, Walt Krauser, and Ward Hill are slated for halfback positions. Flamporis will man the center halfback spot—the key position in soccer—with Krauser flanking him on the right and Hill on the left.

The front line will find Stollmeyer at inside left, Per Torgeson at inside right, Dutch Walz at outside left, Jim Hedberg at outside

(Continued on page seven)

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

GABRIEL DOOM

Once every month Gabriel Doom

Locked himself up in a sound-proof room; Then he laughed out loud and rocked with glee

At a life that was funny as life could be!

He laughed at the weather, sunny on Monday

... rainy on Saturday, rainy on Sunday.

He laughed at the news so loaded with grief

that an ax murder came as a pleasant relief!

He cried, "what with worry, hurry, and strife

you couldn't ask for a funnier life!"

MORAL: In this fast-moving world it's good to sit loose, relax and enjoy the real satisfaction of a real smoke... a Chesterfield. More real flavor, more satisfaction and the smoothest smoking ever, thanks to Accu-Ray.

Take your pleasure big!

Smoke for real... smoke Chesterfield!

'GO SUBURBAN'

The distinctive outer-coat with a bright college career ahead

Cold weather is here to stay, but the Suburbans featured at HUR'S have all-purpose, all-weather practicality. The combination of goods looks and light weight is hard to beat. They're moderately priced for your comfort and for your budget. Whatever your taste, whatever your style — HUR'S will be glad to serve you. Stop in today and 'GO SUBURBAN'.

Hur's MEN'S SHOP

114 E. College Ave.