the Democrats for tariff protection."
Dr. Silva mentioned two other party differences—labor and foreign policy. Republican foreign policy is more oriented toward Asia, she said, and Democratic toward Europe. Here again, she mentioned, the policies of the two parties overlap.

"There is more isolationist sentiment among Republicans than among Democrats, although there is internationalist and isolationist sentiment in both parties.

Demos Favor Labor
"Democrats, as a whole, are more favorable to organized labor, but the Republicans surely are not anti-labor. Again, the difference is one of degree."
Many union workers, Dr. Silva said, say they never had a Democratic Secretary of Labor more satisfactory than Republican James Mitchell.

"Strong executives" have been a Democratic product in the past 45 years, she emphasized, and a "strong legislature" has been evident in Republican eras. Whenever there has been a GOP president during this period, Congress has tended to dominate the scene.

'Crisis Presidents'
"The majority of Democratic presidents have been in office in times of crisis—war and depression. This may account for Democratic presidents' being strong leaders."

It doesn't imply that the Democrats bring war—they just happen to be there when war comes, Dr. Silva said. And the president in office at the time, she added, is forced to provide the leadership required in wartime."

Air Drill Team to Meet

Members of the Air Force Drill Team will meet at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Armory for the formal initiation of the pledge class.

Physics Professor To Present Paper

Dr. Robert Nathans, assistant professor of physics, has been invited to present a technical paper at the Conference on Ferrites on Oct. 30 in London.

Dr. Nathans is chief author of the paper "Neutron Diffraction Studies of the Manganese, Magnesium, Ferrite System." He is currently on leave from the University, engaged in a research project sponsored by the National Security Agency.

While in Europe, Dr. Nathans will visit laboratories in Eindhoven, the Netherlands; Grenoble, France; and Oslo, Norway.

Psychological Society Names New Officers

Robert Stoner, sophomore in psychology, has been elected president of the Psychological Society.

Other officers are Ned Taylor, junior in psychology from Philadelphia, vice president; Janet Townsend, junior in psychology from Houtsdale, N.Y., secretary; and Glenn Smith, junior in psychology, treasurer.

What's This? Answer

The clue said the photographer stooped low, which was what he did to get this unusual angle of the object. The word "time" was used in the clue, which should have brought to mind clock, which this is. It is the clock above the Heitzel Union desk.

Traffic Court Fines Twenty

Traffic Court levied a total of $117 in fines Monday night.

Of the 25 students who appeared before the court, 17 violators were fined a total of $85 for 36 separate violations. Eleven cases were dismissed.

Three violators failed to appear before the court, as directed, and therefore lost their right to appeal. Their automatic fines totaled $32.

Eight students were fined $5 each for failing to display their registration stickers.

Failure to report to the Campus Patrol Office within the next complete school day resulted in fines totaling $8 for four students.

Sixteen traffic and parking violations resulted in $37 worth of fines.

ENGINEERING OPPORTUNITIES AT MELPAR TO BE DISCUSSED ON CAMPUS SOON

One Of Nation's Leading Electronic R & D Companies To Interview Engineering, Physics, Math Majors

Unusual opportunities for rapid professional growth and advancement at Melpar, Inc., one of the Nation's leading electronic research and development organizations, will be detailed to interested engineering, math and physics majors in a series of interviews to be held on campus soon.

A subsidiary of Westinghouse Air Brake Company, Melpar is now engaged in a program of expansion involving substantial increases in staff and facilities.

Despite Melpar's rapid expansion, the highest standards of personnel selection are constantly maintained. This selective process has produced a vigorous organization of great experience and competence in all fields of electronics.

Younger men who wish to apply their engineering knowledge to problems of a varied and challenging nature are required to fill important posts in Melpar project groups. Plan to interview the Melpar representative when he visits your campus.

No Waiting For "Automatic" Advancement at Melpar

At Melpar there is no waiting period for "automatic" advancement. Instead, an engineer, regardless of his age or tenure, may move ahead as rapidly as his skill and performance dictate. Each engineer's achievement is reviewed at least twice a year. In this manner engineers deserving advancement can be quickly "spotted" and promoted. As soon as an engineer is ready for more complex responsibilities they are given him.

Melpar Gives Financial Assistance For Advanced Study

The list of universities located near Melpar laboratories that offer graduate and undergraduate courses in engineering subjects includes: Georgetown University, George Washington University, American University, Catholic University, University of Maryland, University of Virginia, Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Northeastern University, and Boston University. Melpar offers financial assistance for study at these distinguished schools.

Many Extra Benefits

Melpar's personnel policies and salary structure compare most favorably with those of the industry as a whole. The Company maintains a liberal program of benefits too extensive to detail in this space.

Choose Assignments From Varied Fields

Engineers who join Melpar may choose their assignments from one or more of these challenging fields:

Flight Simulators • Radar and Countermeasures • Network Theory • Systems Evaluation • Microwave Techniques • Analog & Digital Computers • Magnetic Tape Handling • UHF, VHF, or SHF Receivers • Packaging Electronic Equipment • Pulse Circuitry • Microwave Filters • Servo-mechanisms • Subminiaturization • Electro-Mechanical Design • Small Mechanisms • Quality Control & Test Engineering

Fine Living Conditions Offered By Melpar Locales

Melpar's R & D operations are centered near and in Washington, D. C. and Boston, Mass. Both are rich in cultural and educational facilities. The Northern Virginia area in which Melpar's headquarters laboratory is located is within easy driving range of beaches, lakes, mountains, as well as other recreational and scenic points. The climate allows outdoor recreation 215 days of the year. Fine homes and apartments in all price ranges are readily available.

Melpar's Boston area plants allow engineers to enjoy the pleasant tempo of New England living coupled with Boston's splendid cultural and educational advantages. Melpar pays re-location expenses.

Booklets Available

An attractive, fully-illustrated booklet describing living conditions prevailing in the Washington, D. C. area can be obtained from your campus Placement Officer.

Grads Go To Work At Once

The college or university graduate who joins Melpar is not required to undergo a formal training program. Instead, he immediately becomes a member of a project group and is assigned to work with an experienced engineer whose guidance and assistance enable him to advance rapidly. Members of Melpar project groups gain experience in all phases of engineering problems by free and frequent interchange of ideas during group meetings. Such experience is valuable in leading to eventual managerial responsibility.

Melpar Experiences Sure & Steady Growth

Founded in 1945, Melpar has doubled in size every 18 months for the past 11 years. Recently it completed erection of a complete new headquarters laboratory near the Nation's Capital, and is presently making substantial additions to its Watertown, Mass. laboratory (6 miles west of Boston), and to its research department in Boston.

Located on a 44-acre landscaped tract in Fairfax County, Virginia, only 10 miles from Washington, D. C., Melpar's main laboratories encompass over 265,000 square feet under a single roof. Fully air-conditioned, they are equipped with every facility. In addition to the new, ultra-modern headquarters plant, Melpar maintains additional facilities in Arlington, Virginia, Boston and Watertown, Massachusetts, for a total of 460,000 square feet.

University Courses Offered at Melpar

Melpar staff members, both holders and non-holders of degrees, may take advantage of the many fully-accredited courses in engineering subjects which are offered at Melpar's headquarters laboratory.

Qualified Graduates Offered Paid Inspection Trips

After a personal interview on their campus, qualified candidates may be invited to visit Melpar's headquarters laboratory at Company expense. Information on opportunities available for graduates together with details on living conditions in Northern Virginia is available by simply writing: Mr. William Schaub, Melpar, Inc., 3000 Arlington Blvd., Falls Church, Virginia.

Make Appointment Now for Melpar Interview Oct. 17th

To secure an appointment with the Melpar representative when he visits your campus, contact your Placement Officer today. At the same time ask him for booklets on Melpar and the Northern Virginia area. We believe you will find them of unusual interest.
