

Harriers Test Cornell In 1st Dual Meet Today

By VINCE CAROCCI

The Penn State cross-country team seeks to end a year-long famine for victory when it battles the Cornell harriers at 4 this afternoon on the Big Red course.

Sophomores dominate the Lion eight-man contingent as Ed Moran, Clem Schoenebeck, Fred Kerr, Bob Thompson and Jay Kirby get their first taste of varsity competition. Seniors Don Woodrow, team captain, and Ron Lewis, and junior Alan Jones complete the traveling roster.

This sophomore domination has been present since practice began. At the beginning of the year, Werner had only Woodrow, Lewis and Jones returning with any amount of experience—with the exception of Woodrow, this experience was very minute.

However, the untried sophomores took charge as soon as practice began and have been at the head ever since.

Led by Moran, Schoenebeck, and Kerr, they have changed the outlook of the season from one of doubtfulness to one of optimism. Werner now looks towards a successful season rather than one wasted on rebuilding.

After seeing his sophomore group in action—among themselves rather than the opposition—Werner feels there is no necessity for rebuilding alone. He believes that his team is capable of giving all Lion opponents a stiff contest—he does not predict an undefeated season, just a good one.

Moran, Schoenebeck, and Kerr are definitely the top runners on the club, Moran holding a slight edge over the other two. This was proven in both workouts Werner held under the clock—Moran won the handicap race last Saturday with Kerr and Schoenebeck tied for second, and in the first time workout, all three finished with identical times.

The key to a successful or unsuccessful season lies in the legs of Woodrow and Thompson—possibly Lewis. If both runners—or all three, for that matter—come through as Werner hopes they will, the Lions could present a well-balanced team for each engagement.

Both Woodrow and Thompson have given slight indications of improving when they finished fourth and fifth in the handicap race.

Lewis is a question mark in the minds of Werner and his assistant, Norm Gordon. He has been looking fairly good in practice, but remains, along with Kirby and Jones, of darkhorse potential.

Alpha Sig Downs Phi Ep In 'B' Bowling Action

The fraternity "B" intramural bowling league began initial action Wednesday night when defending champion, Alpha Sigma Phi downed Phi Epsilon Pi, 4-0.

In other action in the 12-team league, Alpha Chi Sigma defeated Triangle, 4-0; Phi Kappa white-washed Phi Mu Delta, 4-0; and Sigma Chi was victorious, 4-0, over Alpha Epsilon Phi. Winning 3-1 were Kappa Sigma over Delta Theta Sigma and Theta Chi over Delta Chi.

Ed Lyman, Sigma Chi, was high individual game bowler with 211 and top man in three game competition for the night with 553 points. Alpha Sigma Phi captured the single game team score title with 812 points.

Sigma Chi and Alpha Sigma Phi rolled the highest total number of pins per five man team, 2337 points. In the closest match of the evening, Theta Chi defeated Delta Chi, 3-1, although Dave Bucke of Delta Chi bowled highest single and three game individual totals. As a team, Delta Chi rolled to 708 points in the second frame of the three game set. Next Wednesday night will have Alpha Chi Sigma opposing Theta Chi; Triangle meeting Phi Epsilon Pi; Delta Chi seeking its first victory by hosting Kappa Sigma. Other pairings include Alpha Sigma Phi encountering Phi Kappa; Delta Theta Sigma rolling against Alpha Epsilon Pi and in the final game Phi Mu Delta opposing Sigma Chi.

on two first half touchdowns. Early in the game, Joe Nudge intercepted a Sigma Pi aerial and returned it 23 yards to the one yard line to set up the tally.

Leon Eshelman passed to Paul Felton for the touchdown but Eshelman's attempted placement was not good. Again in the first half, AGR received another break when Nudge intercepted a pass and ran it back to the Sigma Pi 20 yard line.

A pass, fumble, and recovery notched AGR its second TD when Eshelman threw to Bob Neff, who fumbled, but Paul Felton alertly recovered the loose pigskin in the end zone. Eshelman's placement was good for the extra point.

In Wednesday night play, defending champion Navy won its second game, downing the Nittany Classers, 34-0. Also victorious in independent action was the Barnard Cats over the Calder Alley Cats, 20-0.

Sigma Nu defeated Chi Phi, 1-0, on the laurels of three first downs after a scoreless thirty minute contest. Phi Kappa Sigma, defending fraternity champion, trounced Delta Tau Delta, 27-0, in the fourth game of the evening.

Coaches Act as Scouts

With two exceptions, scouting assignments occupy Penn State's assistant coaches on weekends throughout the football season. The exceptions are Joe Paterno and Jim O'Hara, who have been assigned to stay with head coach Rip Engle and the team both at home and on the road.
