

Syracuse Tests Booters Today

Morning Soccer Game Opens Athletic Program

By LOU PRATO

Penn State's unbeaten but once-tied soccer team makes its second appearance on home soil this morning against Syracuse University in part of the weekend homecoming celebration.

Game time at the Beaver Field soccer turf is set for 10 a.m. (EDST).

Coach Ken Hosterman's booters have not been defeated in their last 20 games. Last week, however, the Lion soccer team had a 19-game winning streak stopped in a 0-0 double overtime duel with West Chester State Teachers College.

But that disheartening setback has not left the Lion booters without any initiative. They still have a three-year undefeated string to protect.

Hosterman is planning only one change in his starting lineup for today's game. He will insert sophomore Herb Hertner into the left halfback position in place of Walt Krauser.

Hertner, a transfer from Ogontz Center, occupied a reserve role against Bucknell and West Chester. In pre-season practice Hertner was listed as a possible starter by Hosterman but it wasn't until the West Chester game that he lived up to expectations.

Another switch in the starting array may occur at the last moment. Per Torgeson, one of the sophomores who has been expected to bear the brunt of the Nittany scoring attack, was injured in the West Chester game and may not be ready for Syracuse.

If Torgeson's injury keeps him out of the contest, than Hosterman will call on either Tom Nute, Dave Haase, Jim Benford, or Jim Forsythe to fill Torgeson's inside left position.

Nute and Haase are also battling for the center forward post. If Nute gets the starting nod at center forward and Torgeson does not start at inside then Haase will probably be in Torgeson's position.

The rest of the Nittany lineup will find John Lawrence at the goal; Otto Rosenberger and Ralph Brower at fullback positions; Steve Flamporis, Dave Hill, and Hertner in halfback slots; and Jim Hedberg, Mike Stollmeyer, and Dutch Walz filling out the three other front line slots.

Hosterman's bench strength includes Dave Davis, Paul Bauer, Don Dougald, Don Meyer, Jim Edmonds, Bruce Walsh, and Gerry Moyer.

Hosterman is a little optimistic about this morning's game. He thinks the Lion booters can defeat the Orange with a little hustle and aggressive ball handling.

Only one time in the series between the two schools, which dates back to 1920, have the Nittany Lions been beaten. That was in 1932 when the Orange won by a 2-1 count. Overall, the State booters have won 25 and tied five with Syracuse.

In the last six games of the series, Syracuse has managed to score only five goals against the Lions while permitting the goal-happy Nittany soccer team to run up a total of 42.

Last year the local booters took a 14-1 decision from the New York school. Tom Nute is the only booter on the current Lion team to score in the 1955 goal. His three goals were second to only Dick Parker and Dick Matacia.

Scheffing New Manager

CHICAGO, Oct. 12 (AP)—Bob Scheffing, 41, a rangy ex-catcher whose mild personality belies his nickname of "Grump," today was named field manager of the bedraggled Chicago Cubs with a one-year contract.

Scheffing last season led Los Angeles to the Pacific Coast League pennant.

Freshmen Travel to Frostburg

Coach Dave Bishoff and his freshman soccer charges travel to Frostburg, Md. to open their two-game season against the Frostburg State Teachers College varsity today.

Bishoff, in his second year as head of the frosh squad, has two high school soccer stars who made the All-Philadelphia team for three straight years.

But one of the All-Philly players, Al Shane, will not compete in the Frostburg contest due to a knee injury.

Shane's Philly counterpart, Bill Fiedler, will be found at the center forward position at the opening whistle.

Moving over to Shane's vacated inside left will be an Argentine product, Van Raffelghem.

Three experienced high school halfbacks form a solid middle line for Bishoff. Included among the three is lanky center halfback Garry Miller.

On the outside of Miller will be Wayne Rogers on the left and Pete Wadsworth on the right wing.

Bishoff seeks repeat win. A battle royal looms between Harry Burd and Johnny Smith for the outside left spot while Jim Hockenbrock apparently has the outside right position to his own.

Ralph Beeker will be in the nets for the frosh and Bob Sterner and Jim Knipe will hold down the fullback berths.

With two weeks of practice and only one member of the team on the injured list, Bishoff hopes to cool off the Frostburg varsity for the second straight year with his red-hot frosh eleven.

WRA Hockey Club Elects President

Carolyn Briggs, junior in physical education from Catonsville, Md., has been elected president of the Women's Recreation Association's field hockey club.

Other officers are Patricia Ulrich, sophomore in home economics from Mechanicsburg, vice president; and Barbara Blake, sophomore in home economics from Wayne, publicity manager.

The annual fall field hockey play day is scheduled for Oct. 20, when the University will host Bucknell University, Lock Haven State Teachers College, and Lycoming State Teachers College.

Lion Harriers Crack Year-Long Dive, 26-29

By VINCE CAROCCI

The losing streak is at an end. Penn State's cross-country team broke a year-long losing streak yesterday by beating the Cornell harriers, 26-29, at Ithaca, N.Y. The Lion freshman lost, however, 25-30.

Although the best the Lions could do in the individual standings was a two-way tie for second between sophomores Fred Kerr and Clem Schoenebeck, they placed enough men in the top ratings to grab the win.

Cornell co-captain Mike Midler won the five-mile race in 27:50. Kerr and Schoenebeck tied with 28:13.5 times.

No further information on individual standings was available at press time.

Coach Chick Werner and his team had expected to meet some tough opposition from the Big Red squad, but were confident that they could come up with a win.

The victory stopped a two-year Lion losing streak at the hands of the Cornell runners. The two losses—1954 and 1955—were the only times Werner had been beaten by Cornell in his 20 years here.

Kerr and Schoenebeck's surprising showing definitely gives the club a much-needed shot in the arm. Both had figured highly in Werner's plans, and yesterday's performances certainly add to the team-balance efforts that the Lion coach had been stressing all season.

They, plus sophomore Ed Moran, give Werner three outstanding men to base most of his scoring on. Moran's place in the meet was not available.

The Cornell match was a big hurdle that the Nittany runners had to leap over if hopes for a successful season were to remain intact.

A loss to the Big Red could have been a stiff blow to team morale. The club's spirit was one of the big factors influencing the slightly optimistic outlook for this year. The win definitely builds up this spirit—an intangible item which could tell the difference between a successful or unsuccessful year.

The meet adds to the belief that sophomores will tell the difference during the season.

Pigskin Coin Flips... Out On a Limb

Fearless Fran Fanucci and his fellow-predictors have finally agreed to disagree! The wide area of difference apparent in The Daily Collegian's fourth weekly football poll indicates such a trend.

Opinion is particularly divided on the outcomes of four games. In the Florida-Rice battle, Vicious Vince Carocci and Lucky Lou Prato pick Florida. Vicious and Lucky also agree on California over Oregon State.

Patrick makes a valiant bid to resurrect the coaches by picking Illinois over Ohio State and Purdue over Notre Dame.
