

Supreme Court Favored by AIM

By Terry Leach

The Association of Independent Men Board of Governors last night by a 19-10 vote went on record as opposing abolition of the Supreme Court.

The vote was contrary to a 20-minute appeal by Lash Howes, AIM president, favoring abolition of the court.

Class Group Backs Court On 15-4 Vote

The Senior Class Advisory Board voted 15-4 last night in favor of the retention of the Supreme Court, with recommendations for improvements.

Before this motion was approved, the board defeated a motion to stand in favor of retaining the Supreme Court as it is now organized.

Rebecca Zahm, arguing against the retention of the court in any form, said that members of All-University Cabinet are the best informed students on campus.

She said as far as she knows no members of Tribunal or Judicial, whose senior members comprise the Supreme Court have been to any Cabinet meetings this semester.

Easier to Sway

Board members in opposition to the continuation of the Court felt that it is a lot easier to sway an uninformed group, as they claim the Court is, than it is to sway members of Cabinet.

Members of the board in favor of the Court's retention said members of Cabinet are prejudiced, therefore cannot be relied upon to judge legislation which they have already passed.

Prejudices Said Likely

Curtin Schafer said it is possible that members of the Supreme Court may be just as prejudiced as seniors on Judicial or Tribunal. These seniors, he said, may be in other activities from which prejudice may occur.

In recommendations for improvement of the make-up of the Court, Jo Fulton suggested introducing a lower appellate court made up of juniors to hear cases brought up for court action and to decide whether they are important enough to go before the Supreme Court.

Rushing Chairmen To Address Frosh In Dorms Tonight

Forty fraternity rushing chairmen will conduct informal discussions on rushing and the fraternity system tonight in freshman men's residence halls.

Each rushing chairman will speak to two groups of freshmen and new students, at 8:15 and at 9 p.m. One meeting is scheduled for 9:45.

At the conclusion of their talks the chairmen will distribute rushing registration cards, which will be compiled into a master list to be given each fraternity.

Hugh Moore, Interfraternity Council rushing chairman, has requested freshmen and new students who cannot attend the meetings or who live outside the dormitories to fill out a rushing registration card at the Hetzel Union desk or the dean of men's office by Monday.

APHIO Will Construct Boy Scout Council Ring

Members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will begin construction of a council ring at Seven Mountains Boy Scout camp Saturday afternoon.

The ring, similar to bleachers, will be made of cement and take approximately a month to complete.

Cool Weather, Rain Forecast

With rain forecast for today the temperatures should drop somewhat.

The University weather station predicts rain and cooler temperatures for today. This will be quite a change from the spring-like weather of the last few days.

The warm weather continued yesterday, temperatures reading in the upper 70's. The high was 76 degrees and the low at 5:30 a.m. was 38 degrees.

Today's temperatures are expected to fall in the lower 60's by this afternoon with tonight's low nearly 34.

Friday is forecast to be fair and warm.

Students to Appeal Town Parking Ban To Traffic Group

Student representatives will appear before the Borough Traffic Commission today to request abolition of the 2 to 6 a.m. parking ban due to go into effect Nov. 1.

The commission, which may recommend action to the Borough Council, will meet at 4 p.m. in the Municipal Building.

Charles F. LeeDecker, president of the Borough Council, has said he does not believe the council would overrule any action the commission might recommend.

LeeDecker made the statement Oct. 9 at an informal meeting of five prominent townsmen with four students, including Daniel Land, Interfraternity Council president, and Lash Howes, Association of Independent Men president. Both Land and Howes are members of the traffic commission.

Frosh to Practice With Flash Cards

Freshman volunteers for the flash card system will practice promptly at 6:45 tonight.

At a meeting last week only 150 students were present, 154 short of the 304 students needed for a flash card section.

Representatives from each hat society will also meet tonight. The system will be used for the West Virginia game Oct. 27.

Art Designs Exhibited

Russell G. Whaley, instructor in theatre arts, is represented in an exhibit currently at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Whaley entered designs for the Penn State Players production of "An Inspector Calls."

Cabinet Will Vote On Court Future

All-University Cabinet, after much discussion pro and con, has scheduled a showdown vote tonight on the future of the Supreme Court.

Cabinet will meet at 7 tonight in 203 Hetzel Union to decide the fate of the court, to which Cabinet legislation can be appealed. Debate has been postponed from Oct. 4.

A recommendation to abolish the court was made at September's Student Encampment.

Abolition of the court is favored by All-University officers Robert Bahrenburg, president; William Clark, vice president; and Leonard Richards, secretary-treasurer.

Favor Court

Several student organizations, including the junior class advisory board, Women's Student Government Association, and the Agriculture Student Council, support the constitution of the judicial body.

The elimination of the court will be presented in the form of an amendment to the All-University constitution. If the amendment is passed, it will be added as a revision of the constitution. Should Cabinet defeat the amendment, a substitute motion stating retention of the court will be included in its place.

Court Established

The Supreme Court was established several years ago to judge the constitutionality of Cabinet legislation. It is composed of the senior members of Tribunal, men's judicial body, and Women's Student Government Association Judicial.

When presenting the recommendation, the Encampment workshop "Regulations and Controls" said that the composition of the court does not insure impartiality nor does it assure that its members are well informed on the purpose of Cabinet legislation.

Cabinet is the supreme governing body at the University and it cannot be superseded by a lesser organization, it said.

Also included on the Cabinet agenda tonight will be the Encampment report "Penn State's Future," to be presented by Robert Steele, chairman.

Harry Martini, junior class president, will report on the Junior Prom, scheduled for Oct. 26 in Recreation Hall. The Glenn Miller orchestra, under the direction of Ray McKinley, will play at the Prom.

Mardi Gras Chairmen

Chairmen of groups participating in the Mardi Gras, sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's hat society, will meet at 4 p.m. today behind the study lounge of McElwain.

Rally Tonite To Send Off Grid Squad

The football team will leave directly for the Ohio State game from the "Beat-the-Buckeyes" pep rally in front of Recreation Hall tonight.

Pre-game speeches by players and coaches will highlight the rally, which is scheduled to begin in front of the hall at 7:30.

The Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps Pep Band will march across the campus before the rally, assembling at 7:15 at a site across Shortlidge road from Simmons Hall.

Band Route Cited

The band will move down Pollock road and will march through the West Halls quadrangle, past the "tri-dorms" to Curtin road, and from there to the rally.

Cheerleaders will lead the crowd in school songs and cheers and will direct a sendoff for the football players, who will embark on their bus trip to Columbus, Ohio after the rally.

Chaffetz To Speak

John Chaffetz, head football manager, will introduce the players, including Billy Kane, Dick DeLuca, and Ray Alberigi.

The freshman flash card practice session, beginning at 6:45, is expected to end in time for the participants to attend the rally.

The pep rally is sponsored by Delphi, sophomore men's hat society, and Chimes, junior women's hat society.

Patrol Office Is Remodeled

The office of the Campus Patrol, 320 Old Main, is taking on a new and roomy look these days.

Formerly a combination of office, locker, and storage room, it is now solely the official headquarters of the Campus Patrol.

Facilities for storage and patrolmen's locker rooms have been moved to a room directly below its previous location.

The office will be occupied by the newly-appointed chief of the Campus Patrol, Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, Capt. Philip A. Mark, and secretaries.

Bolduc said he has no plans of changes in the handling of the patrol's policy. He said, "the Campus Patrol is doing a fine job and there is no reason for policy changes."

Boston University Receives Plaque

A bronze plaque in memory of the late Dr. Samuel Silas Curry, father of Dr. Haskell B. Curry, professor of mathematics, has been presented to Boston University.

Dr. Curry was founder of the scientific method of speech. The plaque was presented by friends and former students of Dr. and Mrs. Curry.

The inscription on the tablet cites Dr. Curry as an inspired teacher, author, and poet, and ends with "Accept thy dream and dare to obey it."

Adlai Blasts GOP 'Big Three'; Lumps Ike With Nixon, Dewey

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Adlai E. Stevenson fired a double-barreled blast at Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Thomas E. Dewey tonight and then lumped them with President Dwight D. Eisenhower as the Republican "Big Three."

He called Nixon "a rash and inexperienced... man of many masks" and a spreader of international ill will.

'Hokey' on Dewey

And, in a speech prepared for delivery only 24 hours after Dewey spoke here, Stevenson labeled the 1944 and 1948 Republican presidential candidate a purveyor of "hokey"

with a long record of "discourtesy, epithets, and abuse."

Stevenson's speech in this industrial center wound up a whistle-stop train tour of Michigan in which he attacked the Republicans on peace and foreign policy issues.

Adlai Scorns Peace Claim

He said the GOP has made a false and "most shameless" claim that it has brought about world peace. And he denied Eisenhower's statement, last night that the Democrats are not giving "straight talk to the farmers."

Then in the Flint speech Stevenson described as "hokey from Mr. Dewey" the criticisms voiced here last night by Dewey of Stevenson's proposal that this country take the lead in seeking international agreement to halt hydrogen bomb tests.

"Such a solid facade—the Big Three of the ruling party in this country—will not be reassuring to those abroad who still look hopefully to the United States for leadership."

Adlai Fires at Nixon

Stevenson centered his fire on Nixon, however, asserting the vice president has changed position repeatedly on such matters as the Korean war.

"There is no man, he said, who can safely say where the vice president stands. This is a man of many masks. Who can say they have seen his real face?"

"And I think he used last month just the right words to describe his own conduct during the Indochina crisis—he was 'rash and irresponsible.'"
