

Lions, Buckeyes Feature Strong Lines

If any one factor has been instrumental for both the Nittany Lions and Ohio State having winning records thus far this season it can definitely be traced to the line play of both teams.

While the Buckeyes feature one of the most potent offensive forward walls the Lions' forte is defense. The Nittanians are third in the nation in total defense, after limiting Holy Cross to 45 yards rushing and 35 yards through the air Saturday. Army is the only team to gain over 100 yards against the Lions this year.

In rushing defense, the Lions are tied with Georgia Tech for sixth place, allowing 324 yards in three games. Another asset to the Lions' defense is the excellent punting of Milt Plum, who is fifth in the nation with a 43.6 punting average.

Ohio State, meanwhile, has scored 93 points in three games and has allowed 32. Led by All-American guard Jim Parker the Buckeyes have used strictly a ground attack. Parker is credited with "cleaning the way" for Ohio State's backfield brigade.

The other Buckeye guard, Aurelius Thomas, is also highly rated by the Lion coaching staff. Thomas was the number one replacement last year and is one of the fastest linemen on the squad.

The Buckeyes might have one of the heaviest middle of the lines in the country but when it comes to ends theirs is one of the lightest.

Both ends—Fred Kriss and Leo Brown—are probably the lightest ends in the last few years for Ohio State. Kriss is 187 pounds while Brown is 168, which is regarded as small for a back. But lack of weight has no apparent effect on their playing. Tor Toret, Lion scout, said that both are exceptional blockers and good defensive men.

Buckeye tackles are Bill Michael and Dick Guy, both returnees from last year's championship team. Michael has been a varsity end for two years, but was switched to tackle to alleviate the shortage of manpower there. He started all nine games last year and led the team in total playing time, with 491 minutes.

Guy is the only returning tackle with experience and should be at right tackle in tomorrow's game. Both Guy and Michael are over 210 pounds and each stand 6-2.

Another weak spot on the Buckeye line is center, where Thomas Dillman prevails. Dillman was third string last year but moved up to the top spot this season, being the only center with any experience. He won the "most improved player" award for his play in spring drills. He is a fine pass defender, when at the linebacker spot, and is considered a good blocker.

Lion Coach Rip Engle and his staff put the Lions through light drills, before leaving for Ohio State last night.

The team will put in a light workout at Columbus today and then go over plans for tomorrow's tilt tonight.

Game time is 2 p.m. (EST), which is 3 p.m. State College time.

2 Fraternities, 2 Indies Win; 37-Yard 'Goal' Kicked Barefoot

In a night packed with excitement and climaxed by a 37 yard field goal—barefoot—Pollock 12, Phi Epsilon Pi, Pollock 10 and Theta Xi emerged victorious.

King Lit Ching, Pollock 12's southpaw quarterback, played the entire game barefoot, and booted a 37 yard field goal to lead his team to a 3-0 triumph over Nittany 34's Mighty Mounties. A touchdown pass that covered 43 yards for Pollock was nullified by an off sides penalty, depriving spectators of another glimpse of the toe of Ching, who was sure to attempt the extra point kick.

A punt return and pass play from Arnie Rosenthal to Jerry Epstein, which traveled 50 yards for a first down and settled on the six-yard line, gave Phi Epsilon Pi an early 1-0 lead and later a 2-1 win.

In easy scoring position, with four downs to go, Phi Ep muffed the chance and lost nine yards. Another loss and an intercepted pass kept the Theta Chi goal line out of danger. Shortly after Phi Ep threatened again as Howie Felt threw complete to Kurt Ehrman for 19 yards, one short of a first down. But once again the Theta Chi line held, and pushed the opposition back to the 46 to the attack still trailing 1-0 as the game neared its close.

A 25 yard pass from Jim Star to Jack Miller tied it up for Theta Chi at one first down apiece. The game proceeded into overtime and on the first of six alternating plays, Theta Chi moved into enemy territory, and remained there for the next four. On the sixth and final play of the overtime period Phi Epsilon Pi's Kurt Ehrman threw a pass into a crowd of receivers. After 10 seconds of screaming and general confusion, Rickey Lippe climbed out of the pile with the ball and ended the game with a pass complete to the Theta Chi 48 yard line.

Pollock 10 shut out Nittany 41, 13-10. For the first score, Pollock, on its own 20 yard line, turned four laterals into a 30 yard gain and a first down. Elmer Knizer then passed to Lee Leacock who ran to the five and lateraled to Jim Allias for two more yards. On the next play, Knizner scored from the three. The conversion was missed and Pollock led 6-0. Midway in the second half, George Edwards took a Nittany punt at midfield and passed 40 yards to Tom Wutka for the second Pollock TD.

The point after the touchdown was good as Allias threw complete to Edwards, a sleeper, in the end zone.

In the final contest of the night Theta Xi, after being held in check by the Theta Delta Chi line, scored a touchdown late in the game to notch a hard-fought 6-0 victory. Theta Xi scored its touchdown on a pass from Jim Machlan to Jim Wentz, good for 20 yards and the six points.

Before the score both teams featured tight defenses with fine plays dominating action throughout. Ron Falk, Theta Delta Chi, was outstanding for his team while Machlan and Wentz were the sparkplugs of the Theta Xi offense.

Fans Question ND Defense

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 18 (AP)—What's wrong with Notre Dame's football team? It has lost two of three games and figures to be a lamb led to slaughter this Saturday and the following against the nation's two top teams Michigan State and Oklahoma.

Even the most partisan Irish fans will concede Notre Dame's defense has been sieve-like in losses to Southern Methodist and Purdue and even in victory over Indiana.

This hits the nub of Coach Terry Brennan's problem, racing against time to teach defense.

Griffith Favors Senators Shift

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—Move or stay put? The Washington Senators decide tomorrow.

Directors of the Washington American League baseball club vote tomorrow in what is expected to be a tempestuous session, on whether to move to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minneapolis, Louisville or continue here.

President Calvin Griffith is trying to engineer the shift. Reports say that Griffith—who wants to switch to Los Angeles—can swing a majority of the five-man board his way. H. Gabriel Murphy, a director who owns 40 per cent of the stock, loudly opposes a transfer.

C.A. ARTHUR - PRESIDENT

IS THIS THE MAN WHO STARTED IT?

There are some who dispute the fact that President Chester A. Arthur was the first man to wear the Oxford Button-Down shirt. They are right, he wasn't. Van Heusen has discovered that its originator was actually Arthur A. Chester, who, oddly enough, used the button not to keep his collar down, but to keep his shirt up. Whatever its purpose, the Oxford Button-Down (or Button-Up) shirt wowed Mr. Chester's crowd on sight and has been a staple of fine wardrobes ever since.

Today, Van Heusen's Oxford Button-Down is still in the authentic Chesterian tradition . . . but with a wonderful difference. The cloth, woven of fine long-staple cotton, is as soft as a co-ed's smile, yet exceptionally long-wearing. Superbly tailored in the smart Van Heusen way, this Oxford Button-Down enhances your looks, whether you're involved in class, tugs of war or midnight brawls. $5.00.
