

White Has Praise For Mountaineers

The Lion football team gained national recognition this week, jumping to 18th in the nation after upsetting Ohio State, but, according to scout J. T. White, "they could drop just as fast as they climbed by taking this week's contest with West Virginia too lightly."

"West Virginia has a good solid team," White said, "with a rugged line and a speedy backfield. I think they have more overall speed than they did a year ago."

The Lion end coach also pointed out that the Mountaineers use a two-platoon system similar to the Lions, and achieve practically the same results. They have been beaten twice this year, but one by one point and one by only a touchdown. Pitt and Syracuse were the only teams to beat them.

Forward Wall Strong

White pointed out, for special mention, the West Virginia forward wall, singling out center Chuck Howley, guard Bob Guenther, and end Joe Konisky.

Another lineman, tackle Bill Underdonk, was also praised for his exceptional play during the season. It should be remembered that Mountie Coach Art Lewis commented at the beginning of the year that Underdonk "is better than Bruce Bosley and Sam Huff," both of whom were All-America selections in '55.

Praises Trimarki

In the backfield White said that Mickey Trimarki is a good quarterback. "He is a good passer and a good runner," White added, "and like our own quarterback, Milt Plum, he gets every possible yard out of his team's offense."

Both Trimarki and Underdonk understudied potential All-Americans last year and consequently were unable to display their wares. According to the Mountie coaching staff, Underdonk is "out to prove he is as good as Bosley or Huff."

Trimarki was behind Freddie Wyant and didn't see a great deal of action until the final three games of the season when Wyant was injured. But he is considered a very good field general, tricky ball handler, good faker, and a top passer.

Schleicher Sprains Elbow

Lion coach Rip Engle, meanwhile, was given some enlightening news yesterday when it was discovered that reserve fullback Maurice Schleicher had only a "sprained elbow" and will be ready for the Syracuse game, and could possibly see action this weekend.

Varsity fullback Babe Caprara and second team center Steve Garban are also improving, although Garban will be unable to play until the Syracuse game. Caprara's sprained ankle is almost up to par and he will probably start at the FB spot this week.

Reserve halfback Andy Moconyi, who suffered an infection of the thigh in the Ohio State game, will also see action this Saturday.

Colt Grid Captain Arrested Yesterday

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23 (AP)—Bill Pellington, 230-pound captain of the Baltimore Colts, was arrested early today for disorderly conduct after an argument with a policeman over a parking ticket.

Pellington was jailed for about an hour until an unidentified person came in and posted $51.50. Pellington failed to appear at a hearing several hours later, and the bail was forfeited.

Carocci Regains Poll Lead

Little did Fearless Fran Fanucci realize Saturday as he was witnessing a stunning upset at Columbus, Ohio, that he had dropped into second place in the Daily Collegian's football poll.

Fearless went out on a limb picking Army over Syracuse, and lost, dropping him into a second-place tie with Lucky Lou Prato.

Vicious Vince Carocci, now in first place, Lucky Lou, and Tor

Toretti, Lion coach, all picked nine games correctly. Fearless picked eight.

Vicious Vince's 49-26 (.653) leads by one over Lucky Lou and Fearless, both 48-27 (.640). The coaches still lag at 46-29 (.613).

Navy Cops 3rd Win In IM Grid Action

By BILL JAFFE

A hustling and well-drilled Navy ROTC football squad stole the show last night in the Intramural football league when it coasted to a 35-7 victory over Barnard Street. In other third round action, Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Alpha Gamma Rho, 1-0, in overtime.

The Hoyas took a 10-0 halftime lead and held on to down Penn Haven, 17-6, while Phi Kappa Sigma defeated Sigma Nu, 20-0. Led by the passing of Dick Barath and the receiving of ends Ray Tuleya and Ron Kriebler, Navy completely dominated play in sweeping to a convincing win. Barath passed 25 yards to Tuleya for the first tally, and hit Kriebler in the flat for two touchdowns.

Art Miltarberger raced 40 yards for a six pointer on three successive passes while Art Lloyd scored on a 20 yard pass after a Navy interception. Harry Davidson converted five times for the Navy.

Barnard Street's lone touchdown was scored by Andy Pagnani on a 30 yard aerial from Ron Glazin. Bob Zeider's extra point attempt was good.

SAE tallied a first down in the overtime period of their contest with AGR, to win 1-0.

Alpha Gamma Rho's down came on a 23 yard pass play from Leon Eshelman to Bob Neff, while a Bill Myers' pass to Charles Muse recorded a first down for SAE. On the final play of the regulation game, SAE recorded a first down but gambled for the touchdown and lost as the ball was fumbled.

On the first encounter of the overtime, Myers passed 22 yards to Muse in the right flat.

A 14 yard field goal by Dick Kmetz gave the Hoyas an initial lead early in the contest against Penn Haven, and they continued their dominance by scoring twice. Jim Kelley passed to Kmetz in the end zone for the score.

Early in the second half, Kelley completed a seven yard aerial to Bill McDonna for a T.D. Kmetz converted twice in addition to kicking a field goal. With 30 seconds left in the game, Penn Haven tallied on a Ward Nickals to Andy Moses pass play.

In the final game of the evening Phi Kappa Sigma downed Sigma Nu, 20-0. Carmen Palmiero caught two touchdown passes and Phil Sanders scored the other.
