

AIM-Judicial Suggests Probation for 3 Frosh

The Association of Independent Men's Judicial Tuesday night recommended judicial and office probation for two freshmen and board probation for a third freshman.

The board also recommended that letters be sent to the parents of the first two freshmen, who were involved in the same incident.

Guest Prof Will Speak On 'Scrolls'

Dr. Moses Bailey, professor of Old Testament at the Hartford Theological Seminary, will deliver a series of lectures to faculty and students on the recently-discovered Dead Sea Scrolls Sunday and Monday.

"Our Faith and the Dead Sea Scrolls," the topic of the first of the three lectures to be delivered by Dr. Bailey, will be presented at 8 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

Groups Sponsor Talk
The University Christian Association and the State College Friends Meeting are the co-sponsors of the lecture.

He will speak on "Our Faith and the Dead Sea Scrolls" at 4 p.m. Monday in the Memorial Lounge of the Helen Eakin Eisenhower Chapel; and at 8 p.m. in the lounge his speech will be "New Light Through the Dead Sea Scrolls."

The Monday talks will be sponsored by the chaplain's office and the College of Liberal Arts.

Taught in Mission Schools
Dr. Bailey has taught in mission schools in Palestine and Lebanon and has traveled in many Arab nations.

His lectures will air the puzzling and controversial questions which the discovery of the scrolls has created.

Banner Contest to Be Held At W.Va.-State Pep Rally

Seven sororities and 13 fraternities will compete for trophies in the banner contest which will be held at the West Virginia-Penn State pep rally tonight.

The rally, which is being sponsored by the junior class advisory board, and the junior hat societies, Chimes, Androcles, and Druids, will begin at 7 p.m. in front of Recreation Hall.

Book by Art Prof Gets High Rating

"Creative and Mental Growth," a book published in 1952 by Viktor Lowenfeld, professor and head of the department of art education, has been rated one of the top books in the art education field.

The rating was done in a survey conducted by D. Kenneth Winebrenner, editor of School Arts magazine.

Nearly 200 leading art educators were asked to make a list of 100 books in the art education field which they could endorse.

"Creative and Mental Growth" appeared on 125 of the lists while "Your Child and His Art," also by Lowenfeld, was fourth on the list.

Another book by Lowenfeld, "The Nature of Creative Activity," was mentioned on 77 of the lists submitted.

Trophies will be awarded for the best men's banner and the best women's banner.

Judges for the contest and the groups they represent are:

Barbara Rilling, Chimes; James Benford, Druids; George Wills, Androcles; Thomas Schneider, Blue Key; and Joseph Hennessey, Audrey Sassano, Marianne Maier, Leslie Schultz, and John Olsen, junior class advisory board.

Cheerleaders will lead the group in songs and cheers. They will be accompanied by the Air Force Reserved Officers Training Corps Pep Band.

Representatives of the coaching staff and the football team will be on hand for the rally.

The junior groups are sponsoring the pep rally in connection with Junior Week, which includes tomorrow night's Junior Prom.

Dancing was not permitted on the campus until 1890 when the Trustees, on petition of the students, lifted the ban.

Grad Journ Society
The Graduate Society in Journalism will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the home of Dr. Frederick B. Marbut, professor of journalism, Pennsylvania Furnace.
Ralph W. McComb, University librarian, will speak to the society.
