

ACS, Alpha Sig, Raiders, A's Win

Intramural circles are getting tighter in both brackets and now only the talented or lucky or both head into the quarter-finals. Two members of the predicted top ten clashed head on last night and Alpha Chi Sigma came out on top of Pi Kappa Phi, 6-0. In other games, the Raiders squeezed by the Warriors, 7-0, the Hamilton A's trampled all over the Dueces Wild, 25-0, and Alpha Sigma Phi beat Alpha Zeta, 14-7.

The inaugural contest started out in much the same manner as it finished with the Raiders in possession and driving toward a touchdown. However, their drive following the kick-off stalled on the Warriors eight when Larry Lutz stole John Lewis' aerial. The rest of the half was a see-saw affair with Lewis and Lutz exchanging punts on numerous occasions.

The Raiders took over just after the beginning of the final half. Bill Larsen bagged a Lutz pass and chucked to Ed Lough for 41 yards and a touchdown. Bob Brown booted the point.

The Pi Kappa Phi-Alpha Chi Sig game was the big one of the evening. Both teams were evenly matched, but the Chemists managed to crash the scoring column late in the game for the second-round triumph.

Harry Holm operated the tailback post in place of absent Ron Rainey and did a creditable job, but Joe Knock, the winner's passer, was a bit more accurate on the short ones which finally proved decisive.

Alpha Chi Sig grabbed the second half kick-off and went all the way to score on a combo pass from Knock to Don Featherman to Ken Christianson. Gene Capriotti was sensational on defense for the winners, accounting for four interceptions.

The Hamilton A's featured a balanced attack in lambasting the Hamilton Dueces Wild, 25-0.

Bill Dewitt led the winning attack from his tailback slot, passing for all four touchdowns and kicking the bonus point. The first

Pick Mounties To Beat Lions

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—Emotionalism, a throwback to the Thirties when locker room oratory and the Die-for-Dear-Old-Watchamacallit spirit flowered, has replaced the cold slide rule as the measuring stick in college football games.

Here goes:
Notre Dame 20 Oklahoma 7: The Fighting Irish will have the spirit of Knute Rockne riding with them in this over-the-head effort. Paul Hornung, one of the nation's finest backs, has a day of glory.

Baylor 13 Texas A & M 0: Baylor, idle last week, had extra time to prepare, should win defensive battle from Aggies who went all out against TCU.

West Virginia 13 Penn State 7: The Mountaineers bring the Penn Staters rudely to earth after the big upset over Ohio State.

Leo, Indians Confer

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—Leo Durocher will meet with Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg next Monday to discuss the possibility of his managing the Indians next year.

'Birdie' Manager of Year

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—George 'Birdie' Tebbets, who instilled a bit of his own inspirational hustle into the Cincinnati Redlegs, today was named National League Manager-of-the-Year for 1956.
