

Opera Star to Open Community Concerts

Eileen Farrell, soprano of the San Francisco Opera Association, will open the 1956-57 series of programs for the State College Association at 8:30 p.m. Monday in Schwab Auditorium.

Membership cards, which will be required for admission to each of the five concerts scheduled for this season, have been mailed to the 1230 members of the association.

2 Speakers To Address Ed Meeting

Dr. Earl McGrath, director of the Institute of Higher Education, Teachers College, Columbia University, and Dr. John Russell, chancellor and executive secretary, New Mexico Board of Educational Finance, will be two of the key speakers at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities.

The meetings open on Sunday and continue through Tuesday morning at the University. More than 50 representatives of Pennsylvania colleges will attend.

Dr. McGrath, former U.S. commissioner of education, will speak at the dinner meeting Monday night while Dr. Russell, former assistant U.S. commissioner for higher education, will speak on "Space Utilization" at the Tuesday morning business meeting.

The meetings will open Sunday night with a buffet dinner, followed by a reception by President and Mrs. Eric A. Walker. Monday morning the program includes business meetings and a tour of the campus including observation of the closed-circuit television system in operation.

The new president of the Association will be installed at the Monday night banquet.

Her career began in 1950 when she made an overwhelming and triumphant New York debut recital in Carnegie Hall. This was followed by 61 solo performances in five separate engagements with the New York Philharmonic Society.

Miss Farrell's program will include Johann Sebastian Bach's "Mein Glaubiges Herze", the aria Ernani Involami from "Ernani" by Giuseppe Verdi, "Freundliche Vision" by Richard Strauss and the aria "To This We've Come from 'The Consul' by Gian-Carlo Menotti.

Career Began in Radio
Born in Willimantic, Conn., Miss Farrell received her training in this country. Her career began in radio but concert managers and orchestra conductors were quick to recognize the magnificence of her lyric-dramatic soprano voice and she soon became a soloist with many major orchestras as well as a concert artist.

She sang 55 performances in two engagements when the Philharmonic Society made its first trip to Broadway's Roxy Theater. Following this she sang the part of Elektra in the American premiere of Milhaud's "Les Choeurs," an all-Wagner Easter Sunday program.

Miss Farrell is also known as guest star of The Telephone Hour and other major radio and television programs. Her voice was used for the sound track of the motion picture, "Interrupted Melody," the film biography of the Metropolitan Opera soprano, Marjorie Lawrence.

Miss Farrell became an opera star last year debuting as Leonora in "Il Trovatore" with the San Francisco Opera Association. More recently she has been winning acclaim for her role in the San Francisco Opera's presentation of "The Flying Dutchman."

Through the Looking Glass

by Jan

This is Conglomeration Time. Just a smattering the various and sundry items that can be found Through the Looking Glass while just browsing.

JUST FOR FUN

If you've just barfed a blue-book, what you really need is something to cheer you up, or even if you've gotten A's on all of them. Why not buy some little extravagance that isn't necessary, but that's just unique! Just for fun!

How's about a tiny glass perfume vial, encrusted with rhinestones... or maybe you would prefer a match box in a brass case that has an embossed beetle perched on the front.

PILLS, PILLS, PILLS

Big headaches from little annoyances grow. Are you a periodic pill-taker? Ethel's has a new pill-timer. It's a small round pill-case in black and gold that looks like the face of a clock with rhinestone numerals. You just set the little gold hands to the time you're supposed to down the next pill... clever, n'est-ce pas?

Do you like personalized or monogrammed possessions? Self-adhering, rust-proof metalgrams are, for you, then. They're small black and brass initial discs that will adhere to anything. They come in three sizes: 3 for $75, 3 for $1.00, and 3 for $1.25. They'll look great on leather flask cases.

DIRECT STEAL...

Does your room lack color? Are your walls drab and dingy? Do you hate to study in your abode because of the atmosphere? Don't be dissatisfied and dismayed. Ethel's has just the thing for you. Toss pillows galore! In colors straight from a Picasso canvas. You'll never complain again. Fabrics, sizes, shapes and prices to fit your every mood. Take your friends with you Through the Looking Glass to browse, or even sniff the sample perfumes. Mmmmm. See you there!
