

Council Nominations—

Nomination blanks for the Chemistry and Physics Student Council are available in the lobbies of Osmond, Whitmore, Pond, and Walker Laboratories. Elections will be held from 8 to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday in the lobby of Osmond Laboratory.

To Be in HEC Lobby
Freshmen majoring in home economics or hotel administration may be nominated in the lobby of Home Economics Building. Elections will be held in the same lobby from 8 to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Nominations are closed for students in the Colleges of Physical Education and Athletics, Education, Business Administration, and Liberal Arts.

The College of Physical Education and Athletics will hold elections during freshman physical education classes Tuesday. Voting for representatives from the College of Business Administration will take place Tuesday and Wednesday in the lobby of Sparks.

Joint Elections
The Colleges of Education and Liberal Arts will hold elections jointly. The ballot boxes will be on the Mall in front of Sparks Building. In case of rain, they will be moved into the lobby of Sparks.

The College of Agriculture is not holding elections at this time because its organization differs from that of the other eight councils. Representatives to the council are chosen by college agriculture clubs from their own membership.

Freshmen were once required to present a barrel of cider to the junior class without being caught by the sophomores.

COME TO CHURCH

The Way They See It

Every man and woman ascribes worth to something beyond the self; a principle, a nation, a person, a god. That to which he ascribes most worth is his god. Jews and Christians alike believe that God only is worthy of their complete devotion. They ascribe this worth-ship in Services of Worship. You are welcome to express yours by worshipping in Church, Synagogue, or Chapel.
