PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26 (AP)—Coach Walt Kiesling, smarting over the Pittsburgh Steelers' 38-10 loss to the New York Giants last Sunday threatened at least a dozen players with fines of $100 to $200 if their play doesn't improve.

A club spokesman said Kiesling issued the threat of fines in a fit of anger at a clubhouse meeting last Wednesday after he and his assistants viewed the movies of the game.

"There's been no bite on anybody's paycheck," the spokesman asserted. "It is one of those things that happen after a team loses. It was only a threat—that's all."

Warns Players
"Naturally if the players' lackadaisical attitude continues something will be done. But nobody's been fined. We want to make that point clear."

The spokesman declined to name any of the players involved. But Kiesling made no bones about how he felt after the game. He fired Fred Glatz, the team's punter, and promised a "shakeup in the rest of the personnel." Glatz last year played with Pitt.

Said Kiesling: "It was the worst game we played all season and that includes our exhibition games. Our secondary, the entire group, was terrible."

Ford Blasted
"Three touchdowns went over the head of Henry Ford. The Giants aren't that good. We simply made them appear good because we were so lousy."

The Steelers opened the season with an impressive 30-13 victory over the Washington Redskins but then lost 14-10 to the Cleveland Browns, 35-21 to the Philadelphia Eagles and 38-10 to the Giants.

Rooney Has Hopes
At the start, owner Art Rooney figured his team could finish one, two or three—he was that confident. Rooney still feels the team is "better than our showing."

The Steelers' owner was out of town and unavailable for comment on the latest developments. Kiesling also declined to comment further.

The Steelers play the Cleveland Browns at Cleveland on Sunday and are 6½ point underdogs. The Browns record also is 1-3.

Radakovich Improved
Rip Engle, Penn State coach, rated his 195-pound senior center, Dan Radakovich, of Kennywood, the most improved player on his squad. "He's playing top quality football, both on offense and defense," the Lion mentor says.

Nats Lack Veterans
Syracuse, thin in veterans beyond Paul Seymour and Dolph Schayes, will have to rely on rookies Joe Holup of George Washington and Forest Able of Western Kentucky to improve last season's third place finish.

Rochester has the young look. With Maurice Stokes, last season's top rookie, the Royals have Si Green, the Duquesne All-American; and Kentucky's Bob Burrow among a bunch of newcomers.

60 Bands to Play
Sixty high school bands from a 27-county area will participate in the traditional Band Day at Penn State Saturday, Nov. 10. More than 4500 bandmen will assemble on the field at the half.

White Sox to Start Hunting For Successor to Marion

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox will start hunting in earnest next week for a managerial successor to Marty Marion, who resigned yesterday.

"We won't get down to actual cases until after the weekend," Vice President Chuck Comiskey said today. "Maybe I'll do a little telephoning this afternoon or Sunday."

Al Lopez, who resigned as Cleveland pilot recently, is most strongly mentioned as Marion's replacement. Lopez at his Tampa, Fla., home yesterday said he had not been contacted by the White Sox. At the same time, he conceded he wanted to get back into baseball.

Although Comiskey declined to identify prospective candidates, the names of Jimmy Dykes, former Sox manager and now a Cincinnati coach, and Kerby Farrell of the Indianapolis Indians have been tossed in the hopper.

EDIBLE SPORT SHIRTS?

Among the sort of sport shirts that Van Heusen refuses to make are the following:

Sport shirts that light up in the dark: These are the kind that flash messages, like "Hey, baby, you're a honey," or "Pass the ashtray, please." Useful for parties, faculty teas and cotillion balls. But they tend to commercialize the graceful art of conversation.

Sport shirts with road maps on them: Too dangerous. Say you're driving from campus to the big city. You don't know whether to turn left or right at the turnpike, so you look down at your shirt to check. Crash!

Edible sport shirts: Too misleading. You're sitting under a shady tree with your favorite co-ed. She rests her head gently on your chest. You think she's fond of you. Suddenly you hear "munch, munch," and there goes your delicious shirt! It was it she craved, not you!

But the sport shirts that Van Heusen does make are fascinating. Dashing checks, interesting plaids, splendid stripes, solids in some very unusual colors. Their cut is free and comfortable... their style is original and flattering. Thumb through the collection that your campus haberdasher proudly displays.
