

International Scene Tense

Eisenhower Will Go to UN With Israeli-Egypt Controversy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—President Dwight D. Eisenhower said tonight he is taking to the United Nations tomorrow morning the Israeli military penetration into Egypt.

At the same time, in a statement issued after an extraordinary night conference at the White House, Eisenhower said the question of whether to call a special session of Congress "will be decided in the light of the unfolding situation."

Eisenhower said "we shall honor our pledge" to assist the victim of any aggression in the Middle East.

This pledge is contained in the U.S.-British-French declaration of May 25, 1950.

Meets With Officials
The President met at the White House, in his second floor study, for 90 minutes with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Allen W. Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as well as other officials.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—What looked like one of the best stock market rallies of the month was erased in waves of late selling today on news that Israeli military forces had struck across the Egyptian frontier.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty issued this statement on Eisenhower's behalf to some 100 reporters at the White House:

"The President recalled that the United States under this and prior administrations has pledged itself to assist the victim of any aggression in the Middle East.

"The United States is in consultation with the British and French governments, parties with us to the tripartite declaration of 1950, and the United States plans as contemplated by that declaration that the situation shall be taken to the United Nations Security Council tomorrow morning.

"The question of whether and when the President will call a special session of the Congress will be decided in the light of the unfolding situation."

'News Not Good'
While the conference was in progress, Israeli forces were reported to have struck to within 18½ miles of the Suez Canal.

Eisenhower, who only yesterday issued an extraordinary appeal to Israel and the Arabs to avoid warlike acts, seemed to be unsmiling as he stepped off his plane at the end of the day of campaigning that had taken him as far south as Miami.

Revolts in Hungary Dim Olympic Hopes

LONDON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Hungary's bloody revolt today appeared to have hamstrung the little country's hopes of Olympic glory—even if the Hungarian team with its many stars ever gets to Melbourne.

A London report said that Tata, the country's Olympic training camp, has been the scene of heavy fighting. Josef Czermak, who won the Olympic hammer throwing title at Helsinki in 1952, and Ferenc Puskas, Hungary's world-famed soccer captain, were reported killed. A later broadcast, however, reported Puskas was alive and uninjured.

War Fears—

(Continued from page one)
State John Foster Dulles called on Britain and France to join the United States in taking the Israeli attack to the UN Security Council.

2. President Eisenhower summoned Dulles to an emergency conference. Sen. Walter F. George (D.-Ga.) said the Sinai attack may necessitate an immediate special session of Congress.

3. In London, Prime Minister Anthony Eden called an emergency meeting of top Cabinet ministers to discuss the crisis.

4. In New York, UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold consulted urgently with Security Council members.

Russian Troops Reported Leaving From Budapest

VIENNA, Oct. 29 (AP)—The Hungarian army high command announced tonight that Russian troops have begun to withdraw from Budapest.

The battle of Budapest appeared to be ending, but rebellion still blazed in the countryside. Budapest radio carried an announcement by the army command saying the defiant young rebels in the capital will surrender their arms by 9 a.m. tomorrow as the Russians carry out their evacuation.

This followed earlier word from Premier Imre Nagy's government that the rebels had agreed to turn in their arms and the Russians would leave within 24 hours.

Troop Evacuation Begun
But the high command announcement said Hungarian troops were already replacing Russian troops in the industrial section of southern Budapest and that the evacuation of that area would be completed by dawn.

The high command added that replacement of Soviet troops by Hungarians and "unmolested withdrawal from Budapest" of the Russians were conditions for additional evacuation of Russian forces.

Withdrawal to Continue
"Withdrawal of Soviet troops will be continued throughout tomorrow in agreement with the pact with the rebels," the high command declared.

The agreement reached for the 20th Dist., the southern Budapest industrial section, contrasted with earlier Radio Budapest announcements that the rebels would surrender their arms at the same time as, or before, the Russian troop withdrawal.

The promise to withdraw Russian troops and to replace them by Hungarian troops in the district, while the rebels still had their arms, was viewed here as another concession to the rebels by the Nagy government.

Revolutionaries in control of the countryside urged that the rebels disregard the agreement in Budapest.

Leader Warrant Postponed

HARRISBURG, Oct. 29 (AP)—A Harrisburg constable today put off serving a warrant charging Gov. Leader with criminal contempt of court in the Pennsylvania Turnpike Manu-Mine case.

Army Classes Dropped

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—An Army report said today off-duty educational classes have been dropped by three Southern Army posts since orders last spring banned racial segregation of the soldier-students.

Adlai Says Israeli Conflicts Disprove 'Good News' Report

BOSTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson said tonight that President Eisenhower's reports of "good news" from the Middle East "have been tragically less than the truth" in view of today's developments in the Israeli-Egyptian conflict.

He had a cheering, clapping, confetti-throwing crowd of 7,900 for his nationally televised speech in the old Mechanics Building.

And it was a booing crowd, too, when he mentioned Vice President Nixon. There also were scattered boos when he referred to Eisenhower.

'Not Popular by Contest'
He got his biggest cheer when he interpolated in his prepared speech, "This is not a popularity or a beauty contest. This is an election."

Stevenson didn't go into detail on the news from Jerusalem that the Israeli army had driven deep into Egyptian territory.

He said it is hard "to speak about today's ominous and confusing developments in the Middle East."

Hits 'Peace Complacency'
"But I must say this," Stevenson said, "and it is only to repeat what I have been saying throughout the campaign: "The government in Washington has been telling us that all is well in the world, that there is peace, that there is—as the President announced only a few days ago—"good news" from the Middle East.

"These reassurances—as today's news confirms—have been tragically less than the truth."

"During four critical years of onrushing history, we've been patted on the head and told that everything's all right. "This is dangerous—dangerous to our very survival in a troubled world."

Stevenson's nationally telecast speech climaxed a busy day in Boston. The Democratic presidential candidate earlier combined an attack on Eisenhower's stand on the hydrogen bomb with a confident prediction of victory next Tuesday.

Here is the way Stevenson summed up his complaint against Eisenhower:

"The President is a man of good will and good intentions. But this is a great and fateful election, and the one and last chance to audit the books, to cast up the accounts, for four more years.

"And in the last four he has turned over more powers than any president before him to the men around him—men not elected by the people—and has himself withdrawn increasingly from active direction of the government."

Church Situation Abnormal
The Vatican newspaper said the church's situation in many Polish dioceses remains abnormal. Through the antichurch laws, the newspaper said, Poland's Communist state sought to "enslave the church to the arbitrariness of public powers openly inspired by militant atheism."

While the country's Catholics rejoiced over the cardinal's return, there were growing indications that Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, Poland's defense minister installed by Stalin, is finished.

Polish Cardinal Released After 3 Years House Arrest

WARSAW, Poland, Oct. 29 (AP)—Hundreds of Roman Catholics gave a cheering and singing welcome to Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski today in his first public appearance since his release from three years of house arrest.

The crowd finally hushed after the 55-year-old primate of Poland stepped out on the balcony above the main entrance to his palace and told them:

"I thank you for your prayers. Now, when we are sure that we have won, let us work for peace in our country because peace is the guarantee of our freedom."

Appears on Balcony
Time and again the freed archbishop appeared on the balcony in response to cheers from the throngs in the courtyard. Despite his confinement in a rural monastery, he looked vigorous and healthy in his long black robes. He wore a red skull cap. On his breast hung a cross of silver and ebony.

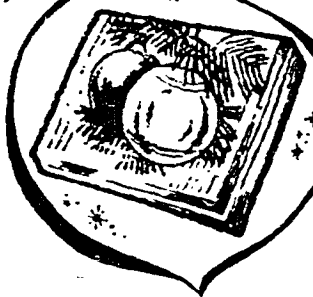

In Vatican City, L'Osservatore Romano hailed his release and expressed hope that it might be the signal for repeal of Poland's antichurch laws.

FOOD! FOOD!
Evening Snacks and Carry-Out

- I Steaks
- T Sandwiches
- A Hot Sausages
- L Bar-B-Q's
- I Hamburgers
- A Pizza
- N Milk and Coffee & Tea

MORRELL'S
112 S. Frazier St.
Phone AD 8-8381
Open Until Midnight

10 Hallmark cards for only 29¢

A choice of many clever designs distinctively Hallmark in creation . . . 10 cards all alike conveniently cello-packed. When your friends receive your Hallmark Christmas greeting, they'll know that "you care enough to send the very best."

McLanahan's Drug Store

AT-TEN-SHUN!

Military men keep posted. Your BIG day is coming. Keep watching

electrical engineers mechanical engineers
physicists

Let ARMA talk with you about YOUR future in the Dynamic and Challenging Field of Electro-Mechanical Instrumentation

See ARMA when our representative visits your campus shortly. Ask your Placement Officer for details.

Or you may send inquiries to:
Mr. Charles S. Fernow
Administrator of Technical Education

ARMA
Division American Bosch Arma Corp.
Garden City, Long Island, N. Y.