Michigan State Routs Nittany Runners, 15-40

It was simply a case of a champion living up to its reputation once again when the Michigan State harriers shut out the Nittany Lions, 15-40, Saturday on the University golf course.

The Spartans were just too much competition for the Lions to cope with. They won the first five places easily, the first three runners breaking Arnie Sowell's old course record.

It was simply a case of a one's mind that the record would line, arriving in 27:18. Captain Don Woodrow was the next to finish with a 27:52 time. Sophological modernment of the way.

He set a tremendous pace by running the first mile in 4:48, matching it in the second, running 5:20 in the third, dropping to 5:03 in the fourth, and finishment of the lish, he looked almost as strong last that most of the fans were wondering if it could keep up the pace over the five mile course. All doubts were second to Kennedy in 25:44, while Cay Denslow finished third in Moran and Kerr both stayed course record.

Kennedy Sets Mark

Henry Kennedy, the IC4-A and intercollegiate champion last year, proved to everyone there that he was every bit the champion he was acclaimed to be by winning completed the Spartan rout in lover. Werner must mold bis second of the half-way mark.

Gay Denslow finished third in Moran and Kerr both stayed among the leaders for approximately the first half of the race. Moran was the first to fall back fourth record-beater when he fin-with Kerr dropping to sixth later on.

Warner must mold bis

Moran and Kerr both stayed among the leaders for approximately the first half of the race. Moran was the first to fall back with Vers drawing to sixth leave.

was every bit the champion he in 26:43. Sophomore Ron Wheeler Now that the Spartan meet is was acclaimed to be by winning the race in 25:50.2—1:08 faster than Sowell's time of 26:28.

Kennedy left no doubt in any
State runner to cross the finish meet here next Saturday.

Early Touchdowns, Field Goal Feature IM Touch Grid Action

Early scoring featured last night's intramural football encounters. Mike Mazucak's there e touchdowns sparked Pollock 12 to an 18-0 win over the neighboring Lions from Pollock 10; the Violators notched a TD in each half to down the Dinks, 14-0; and Terry Hutton's field goal gave Phi Gamma Delta a 3-0 decision over Kappa Delta run-pass to Tom Witucka from stripe. Hutton first tried a fielder from the 16, which the KD Rho's blocked, but an alert recovery by the night of the Lions were from the 12's plant from the 12's plant from the 12's plant from the 12's plant from the 24 for the Phi Gam triumph.

In the second half, KDR's Pat Rielly fired a 30-yarder to Bill Edwards, moving the ball to their the points, and returned a punt field goal gave Phi Gamma Delta a 3-0 decision over Kappa Delta. a 3-0 decision over Kappa Delta lator six-pointer.

Rho.

Mazucak shared the spotlight with King Lit Ching, Pollock 12's mina pitched to Dean Stabley for the tally.

Kickoffs, and defensive work played a major part in "12"'s whitewash win.

After Bruce Hoffman scampered to the Dink 28, Tony Taornina pitched to Dean Stabley for the tally.

A 65-yard Taormina-to-Terry aerial pushed across an insurance whitewash win. whitewash win.

tempt was wide.

The 12's added another marker early in the half, after an interception by Ching on his own 47-yard line. A 20-yard run-pass play from Ching to Ed Lubanski gave "12" a first down on the Lion 25. Then, a n o t h e r Meley-Mazucak agrial netted a george with Malayara and the same and won going away.

Hutton's game-winning placement followed a Don Ferguson-to-Bob Bookman pass, which placed the ball on the KDR 30-yard agrical netted a george with Malayara and the same and the s missing the PAT try. Ching was wide with a 31-yard field goal attempt as the half ended.

The game, but outclassed Lions battled back in the opening min-utes of the second stanza. Jim Alias picked off a Pollock 12 pass on the Lion 43, before a 24-yard

(Continued from page six) Kane crossed .the goal line to

Kane started the drive with nine yards. Alberigi got the first down with a two-yard plunge. Plum, on a keep, drove to the 39, followed by Kane and Alberigi, who took the ball to the 48, setting the stage for Kane's 52-yarder seconds later. Plum kicked the extra point, giving the Lions a 7-0 lead at 7:20 of the first quarter quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff the Mountaineers were penalized back to their one yard line for a clip-ping penalty and were unable to move. On the attempted punt the ball sailed over the punter's head for a safety.

With only a few minutes rewith only a few minutes remaining in the quarter the Lions started another drive. Kane, Alberigi and Babe Caprara combined to take the ball to their own 41. Plum then hit Walters for the TD.

ending the scoring.

The Mountaineers, in a gallant comeback in the second half, scored when Krutko and Jack Rabbits spearheaded them from their own six for the score. Krutko from his 30 broke away for 48 yards before being caught by Kane on the Lion 22. Rabbits followed with a 20-yard run to the two and Krutko dove over for the score. The extra point try by Trimarki was no good.

Another Mountie touchdown, a Trimarki pass to Rabbits, was called back because of a penalty.

counter for the violators.

Pollock 12 tallied on their first series, with a 35-yard pass from Dick Meley to Mazucak capping the drive. Ching's conversion attempt was wide tor 28, but the V's stout defense, led by Terry and Chuck Zaleski, regained possession and won go-ment followed a Don Ferguson-to-Bob Bookman pass, which placed the ball on the KDR 30-yard

Back with the latest fashions!

National Association of Sportswear Buyers Show in New York City. Mac has been

Mac has bought a lot of merchandise in large quantities so it can be sold at budget prices. The merchandise will arrive between Nov. I and Nov. 12.

Some of the merchandise has arrived. There is a wide selection of ties in authentic tartan plaids, repps, wool shalley in and many of Nationally advertised Lou Foster toggle and car coats are selling at budget prices.

Christmas shopping early? Mac has a large selection of wallets and pocket secretaries originally priced at $7 and $5, now selling for only $2.98.

A FASHION TIP—heavy all wool Ivy League crew neck sweaters will arrive between Nov. 2 and 6. They will come in all the char Ivy tones and all shades of grey. The sweaters will sell for only $5.95.

I could go on for hours. But why don't you drop in and browse around.

Danks ε Co.

Men's Shop

Entrance on W. Beaver Ave.

The contest ended with a sub-

Big Wheel On Campus

More fun than a barrel of monkeys and "x" times as practical. Takes you anywhere at about 40 m.p.h., gets over 100 miles to the gallen, rides like a dreamtorsion bar suspension. Mechanically magnificent, down to the last sub-assembly. Really something to write home about ... or for!

to get places on campus get a

ambrella CLARK Motor Company

120 S. PUGH

Hickman Receives TD Club Award

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (P)—Herman Hickman, onetime Yale coach and now a TV and radio football commentator, was named to inner of the Touchdown Club's award for 1956 today.

It is given annually to the person judged by the past presidents of the club to have done the most for football over a period of years. H. O. (Fritz) Crisier, director of athletics and former coach at award for 1956 today. award for 1956 today.

Michigan, was the winner in 1955.

Boston U. Tickets Go on Sale Today

Recreation Hall. Tickets are $3.50 each,

Two thousands tickets for the Five thousand high school band Boston University football game, members will be in attendance Nov. 10, will go on sale at 8 a.m. for Band Day. Seats are available today at the ticket window, 238 in the east sections from the 30yard line to the end zone.

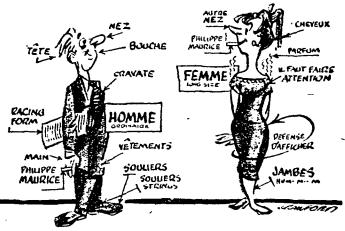

Syracuse tickets are sold out.

LANGUAGE MADE SIMPLE: No. 1

In this day of swift international communications, like radio, television, and the raft, it becomes increasingly important for all of us to have a solid grounding in foreign languages. Accordingly, I have asked the makers of Philip Morris whether I might not occasionally forego levity in this column and instead use it for a short lesson in language.

"Of course, silly!" chuckled the makers, tousling my yellow hair. Oh, grand men they are, the makers of Philip Morris, just as full of natural goodness as the cigarettes they make. "Of course, fond boy, you may occasionally forego levity in this column and instead use it for a short lesson in language!" said the makers and tossed me up and down in a blanket until, rosy with laughing, I bade them desist, and then we all had basins of farina and smoked Philip Morrises and sang songs until the campfire had turned to embers.

For our first lesson in language, let us take up French, which has often been called the lingua franca of France. We will approach French in a new manner, because, to be brutally frank, the way it is taught in our colleges is archaic and obsolete. Why all this emphasis on grammar? After all, when we get to France does it matter if we can parse and conjugate? Of course not!

So for the first exercise, translate the following real, true-to-life dialogue between two real, true-to-life Frenchmen named Claude (pronounced Clohd) and Pierre (also pronounced Clohd):

CLAUDE: Good morning, sir. Can you direct me to the nearest monk?

PIERRE: I have regret, but I am a stranger here myself.

CLAUDE: Is it that you come from the France?

PIERRE: You have right.

CLAUDE: I also. Come, let us mount the airplane and return ourselves to the France.

PIERRE: We must defend from smoking until the airplane raises itself.

CLAUDE: Ah, now it has raised itself. Will you have a Philippe Maurice?

PIERRE: Mercy.

CLAUDE: In the garden of my aunt it makes warm in the summer and cold in the winter.

PIERRE: What a coincidence. In the garden of my CLAUDE: Ah, we are landing. Regard how the airplane depresses itself.

PIERRE: What shall you do in the France?

CLAUDE: I shall make a promenade and see various sights of cultural and historical significance. What shall you do?

PIERRE: I think I shall try to pick up the stewardess. CLAUDE: Long live the France!

Et vive aussi la Philippe Maurice, la cigarette très bonne, très agréable, très magnifique, et la sponsor de cette column-là