

Hungarian Air Force Threatens Red Troops

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Oct. 30 (AP)—Hungary's harassed government turned against its Soviet military supporters and in effect hauled down the Red flag today.

Its air force threatened to attack Russian troops and tanks involved in the battle of Budapest unless they leave the capital within 12 hours. The ultimatum, issued at 3 p.m. Budapest time, accused the Russians of "constantly violating the cease-fire."

Adlai Blasts Eisenhower Campaign

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson said tonight the Republicans are running a "phony and deceitful" campaign to reelect President Dwight D. Eisenhower on his record so "another man—or group of men—can run the country."

The Democratic presidential candidate made this assertion in a speech prepared for delivery at the Palestra, the University of Pennsylvania's sports arena.

"If a Democratic president rolled up a record like that Eisenhower's, every newspaper in the country would call for his impeachment."

Hammers Away
Stevenson, here for a last try bid for Pennsylvania's 32 electoral votes, kept hammering away on a theme he has stressed all week:

"That the President is not providing the leadership that this nation needs."

Tonight Stevenson went stronger on a point he hasn't hit before.

"The men who are really running the store," he said, "believe they can sell anything. And in this campaign, I must say they are giving that theory a bold test."

'Developed Myth'
"They have developed a myth and they're trying desperately to make it last—just seven more days."

Admitting that his words may seem like "blunt or angry talk," Stevenson said:

"I'm fed up with eight weeks of this mealy-mouthed Republican campaign talk, this squeaky chorus—peace, prosperity and progress."

Soviets Concerned Over Middle East

Moscow, Oct. 30 (AP)—Foreign diplomats today quoted Soviet leaders as being gravely concerned over the Middle East and supporting submission of the problem to the UN Security Council.

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party leader Nikita Khrushchev spoke to the diplomats about the Israeli-Egyptian clash at a Kremlin reception for Afghanistan's Prime Minister Mohammed Daud.

"The Soviet leaders definitely are worried over the situation," one Asian diplomat said.

Moscow radio said tonight the Israeli attack on Egypt is "all part of a British-American plan to take over the Suez Canal."

Premier Imre Nagy, bidding to end a week of bloody civil war, announced the Communist one-party system will be abolished and called on the rebels to join in preparing for free elections taking in long-suppressed Hungarian political parties active before the Reds seized control in 1946.

"The powerful uprising of the Democratic forces has brought us to a parting of the ways," the once-purged Communist leader said in a broadcast over Radio Budapest.

"The national government in complete agreement with the chairmanship of the Hungarian Communist party, has taken an important decision for the life of the nation. In the interests of furthering democracy in the country, the one-party system will be abolished."

The government not only recognizes the provincial autonomous governments set up by the rebels, Nagy said, but "begs for their support."

He announced the formation of a "little Cabinet" including men from five parties to run the country while the election is being prepared. He proposed the formation of a coalition government similar to that established just after the end of World War II in 1945. The parties are the Communist, Small-holders, Peasant, Social Democrats and a fifth not identified.

Nagy and his ministers made these further announcements:

1. The Premier called on the Soviet army command to begin the troop withdrawal immediately. He said a start was made at 4:30 p.m. (10:30 a.m. EST.) There was no indication, however, that the Soviet units were going any farther than their Hungarian bases.

2. Peter Kos was fired as Hungarian delegate to the UN. A new delegate is to be sent to New York to replace Kos, who supported Soviet Russia in opposing discussion of the Hungarian rebellion by the Security Council last week.

3. Supreme State Prosecutor Georgi Non, charged with being mainly responsible for the establishment of martial law, was removed from office.

Israeli Front Extends to 70 Miles

ISRAELI ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Tel Aviv, Oct. 30 (AP)—The Israeli army said tonight Israeli troops developed their slash into the Egyptian Sinai Peninsula on a 70-mile front.

But Israeli military spokesmen refused to pinpoint the location of Israeli troops or confirm reports that an advance spearhead had reached within 20 miles of Suez, at the southern end of the Suez Canal. Unofficial reports said a column had pushed to 18½ miles from the canal.

Brings Air Power
The thrust in the developing Middle East battle brought the air power of both Israel and Egypt into action. Israel was under its first countrywide blackout since the Arab-Israeli armistice eight years ago.

The Israeli army headquarters made a few official statements.

In one of them, it said Israeli units had captured the Egyptian town of Kusseima, 10 miles inside the Egyptian border, about 80 miles northwest of the Gulf of Aqaba and 70 miles south of the Mediterranean.

Troops Cross Border
In its first communique Monday night, the army said other troops crossed the border at Ras el Naaed, 10 miles north of Aqaba, and at Kuntilla, 40 miles north.

This clearly indicated the 70-mile front stretching from Ras el Naaed to Kusseima.

The area is mostly barren land, dotted with oases and military blockhouses.

About noon Tuesday, the army announced the only officially reported casualties as Israeli and Egyptian air forces went into action against convoys.

The army said Egyptian planes strafed an Israeli convoy in the southern Negeb Desert area, causing some casualties. It said one light Israeli plane was shot down.

Mindszenty Liberated by Hungarians

VIENNA, Austria, Wednesday, Oct. 31 (AP)—The official Hungarian news agency announced today that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty has been liberated by Hungarian revolutionary troops and is on his way to Budapest.

The Roman Catholic primate of Hungary was arrested the day after Christmas 1948 by the Communist government of Hungary. He was sent to prison for life on treason and black market charges after a trial in February 1949. Announcement of his release came in a teleprinter message from Budapest to the Austrian press agency here.

The cardinal has been reported held recently under house arrest in a church village near Budapest. He has refused in recent months to endorse the program of the Hungarian Communist regime in return for full freedom, according to reliable informants.
