

Middies Sink Soccermen, 2-1

National Title Aspirations Practically Diminished

By LOU PRATO

Navy's once-beaten soccer team just about ended Penn State's chance for a third successive national soccer championship yesterday afternoon at Annapolis when they came from behind to score a 2-1 victory over the Lions.

Coach Ken Hosterman's booters will skip over to Washington, D.C. this afternoon to play their first game in history against Catholic University.

It was the second loss of the season for the Nittany booters who will almost need a miracle or an early visit from Santa Claus to retain their two-year title.

By winning, the Middies have placed themselves into a position where they could succeed the Lions to the national crown. They sport a 9-1 record, losing only a 1-0 decision to Yale, and have only the annual Army classic left on their schedule.

For only the second time this season, Penn State's opponent outshot them. Navy took 26 cracks at the Lion goal while the Nittanians attempted 17 against the Middies. Corner kicks were even at four-all.

Navy's key to victory may have been the "botting up" of Tommy Nute, the Lions' leading scorer. It kept the senior center forward as inactive as a football stadium in the middle of winter, holding him scoreless and preventing him from getting more than two shots at the Navy goal.

Mike Stollmeyer, one of Nute's sophomore scoring partners, was the only Lion able to break past the Navy defense. He tallied the first goal of the game in 5:30 of the first period after taking a pass from Per Torgeson—the other member of the Lions' usually potent scoring trio.

Navy's two scores came in the next quarter. Chuck Harlow whipped the ball past Lion goalie John Lawrence at the 2:18 mark to tie the score and 16 minutes later Dick Abington put the Middies ahead to stay, with a 12-with top-notch versatility. But if passing is made impossible today the Nittanians will fashion one of the best running games in the East against their visitors from below the Mason-Dixon line.

Ray Alberigi, who pulled up lame with a charley horse last Saturday, is in excellent condition and will be at left halfback today. The other portion of the strong Nittany attack is Billy Kane, who leads Alberigi by 28 yards in the rushing department, 418 to 390.

Emil "Babe" Caprara, who is undoubtedly the best faking back on the team and who is largely responsible for Kane and Alberigi chewing up large chunks of ground, will be at fullback.

The Wolfpack backfield, although light, boasts the fastest set of backs the Lions will face this year. Halfbacks Dick Hunter and Dick Christy are both speed kings and lead the team in rushing, while quarterback Tom Katich passes, boasting a 10 for 16 record. Tony Guerrieri will be the NCS fullback and the biggest man in the backfield at 178 pounds.

North Carolina State has not beaten the Lions in four outings and have been able to score only six points in that span, which could be added incentive for winning today.

What probably will give the Lions added confidence today is the famed two-platoon system they boast. Engle uses his "other team" at three or four spots in the game and it eventually wears down the opposition. This could be a deciding factor in today's game.

Frosh Coed to Play In Hockey Finals

By LIL JUNAS

Being named to one of the top eight field hockey teams in the country is great, but achieving this honor as a freshman is even greater.

Maxine Hampton, right fullback on the Nittany Lion field hockey club team, is the first Penn State coed to be selected to play in the United States field hockey finals.

She was named to the right fullback position on the Mid-East second team as a result of her excellent defensive play and flashy stickwork with the Central Pennsylvania team at Mechanicsburg Saturday.

Three years ago, Barbara Lewis, then a senior at the University, was named as an alternate on the Mid-East third team. However, the alternates do not go to the finals unless to replace a member of the first or second team.

Maxine rose to the first step of success when she was chosen for the Central Pennsylvania team Nov. 3 along with three of her Penn State teammates—Carolyn Briggs, Sally Jervis, and Barbara Knight.

During the Thanksgiving weekend Maxine will play, as a member of the Mid-East's second team, against teams from the other seven sections of the country at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Two games will be played each day, beginning on Thursday, Nov. 22 and ending on Sun. Nov. 25. Individual performance will be watched and the best 22 coeds will be selected as the United States' first two field hockey teams. The two United States teams will tour other countries to play their teams and will also represent the United States against teams coming to this country.

A first semester education major from Darby, Maxine has been playing field hockey for six years—since she was in junior high school.

Four Cop Swim Wins

Tau Kappa Epsilon, Phi Kappa Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi, and Alpha Tau Omega advanced to the semifinals of the fraternity IM swimming tournament by virtue of their victories last night.

Al Rossi and Karl Snyder led TKE to a 27-14 win over Delta Chi. Snyder captured the freestyle in :32.4. Rossi took the backstroke in :39.4 and the dive with :21.9 points.

TKE's Snyder, Paul Johnston, Ed Rohm, and Al Ely won the relay in 1:02.7. Jim Hepler copped the butterfly in :41.0 for the short-handed Delta Chi's only first place.

Van Heusen asks: DO YOU GO WITH YOURSELF?

*It was an ancient haberdasher
And he stoppeth one of three.
"By thy long grey beard and glittering eye,
Whuffo thou stoppest me?"*

*"Your hankies don't match
your shirts, my friend,
Your ties clash with your eyes.
And your shorts are simply awful, sir,
—Wrong color for your thighs."*

Familiar story, eh? This kind of thing happens oftsoons. Don't let it happen to you. Just go down to your Van Heusen dealer and have him show you our harmonized, integrated wardrobes. In these handsome wardrobes, shirts, ties, handkerchiefs, sport shirts—even shorts and pajamas—are co-ordinated perfectly. There are checks, plaids, solids, stripes to pick from. All fine. And they give you that well-matched look at a surprisingly moderate price.
