Campus Chest Collects $1017.61 After Official Campaign Ends

Contributions totaling $1017.61 were turned into the Campus Chest after the official close of the five-day solicitations campaign Friday night.

Despite the additional contributions, the drive fell short of the $12,000 goal established by the Campus Chest executive committee by $8600.

Total contributions to date amount to $3400, with money from approximately 200 solicitors still expected. The average contribution per person was 62 cents, in contrast to last year's average contribution of 45 cents.

Still Accepting Money

Edward Long, tabulations chairman, said money can still be returned to members of the Campus Chest executive committee from 1 to 10 p.m. today in the lounge opposite the Hetzel Union desk.

The winner of the sorority trophy was Sigma Delta Tau, with 33 girls contributing $135. Runner-up was Kappa Kappa Gamma with 49 members contributing $88.

Winners of the fraternity trophy and of the independent living unit trophy will not be announced until after Thanksgiving vacation, Robert Gellman, chairman of the drive, said, because fraternity and independent returns have not been completed.

Praises Sororities

In praising the winner and the runner-up of the sorority trophy, Gellman said:

"These coeds did an excellent job. I attribute their success in raising funds for Campus Chest to the fact that they both sponsored special events last week."

Members of Sigma Delta Tau conducted a shoe-shine booth at the Main Gate and also shined shoes in fraternity houses last week, and members of Kappa Kappa Gamma shined 100 cars at fraternity houses.

At the time the drive officially closed at 11 p.m. Friday, $2382.39 had been turned into members of the Campus Chest executive committee. Additional contributions were turned in Saturday and yesterday.

$90 Collected for Hungary

A total of $90 to be used by World University Service for emergency aid to Hungarian students was collected at Beaver Field during the Penn State-North Carolina State game Saturday, according to Adelaide Nacamu, University WUS co-chairman.

Miss Nacamu, a sophomore in education from Peekskill, N.Y., said she received a letter Friday from the Philadelphia regional WUS office asking that funds be collected for Hungarian aid. Campus Chest allotments to WUS do not cover this situation, she said. The collections already have been sent to the Philadelphia office.

Future fund-raising drives will be conducted on campus, Miss Nacamu said, but added she did not know exactly what plans would be made.

Assisting Miss Nacamu in collections at Beaver Field were Jarmilla Weisl, sophomore in applied arts from Rome, Italy, and Gertrude Hammel, freshman in education from Glenshaw.

World at a Glance

Sitdown Started By Hungarians

BUDAPEST, Nov. 19 (AP)—Hungarian workers shifted strike weapons today in the passive revolt that has followed armed rebellion. They ended their general walk-out in favor of a sitdown on the job.

Between 30 and 50 per cent of Budapest's factory hands went back to their plants under pressure from the Soviet army, its Communist Hungarian allies and the prospect of misery in the approaching winter. But they did little except stand around and talk.

The military situation seemed unchanged. There was no confirmation here for a Vienna report that the Russians were replacing their tank troops in Hungary with 20 fresh infantry divisions.

Ambassador Luce Drops Italian Post

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce resigned today as ambassador to Italy, asking President Eisenhower to relieve her of her duties "at the earliest convenient moment."

James D. Zellerbach, 64-year-old San Francisco industrialist, is reported to be under consideration as Mrs. Luce's successor in Rome. Zellerbach was U.S. foreign aid director in Italy.

Eden Suffers Overstrain

LONDON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden took his doctors' advice in the midst of the unresolved Suez crisis tonight and announced his withdrawal from public engagements. The royal family's physician, Sir Horace Evans, said Eden was suffering from overstrain.

Road Conditions Seen Favorable For Home Trek

Students leaving the area for Thanksgiving vacation will have no worry of hazardous driving conditions, according to the University weather station.

The weather is forecast to be partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow morning with a slight chance of rain tonight but on a whole, traveling conditions throughout the state are reported as good.

Thanksgiving recess will officially begin at 11:50 a.m. tomorrow and will end at 8 a.m. Monday.

Residence halls will be closed to students at 5 p.m. tomorrow. Lunch will be the last meal served in the dormitories before the beginning of the vacation.

Dorms Reopen Sunday

The dormitories will reopen at 1 p.m. Sunday. Monday morning breakfast will be the first meal served in the dining halls after the recess.

The Hetzel Union Building will be closed Thanksgiving Day. The building will remain open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, according to George L. Donovan, director of associate student affairs.

Lion's Den to Close

The Lion's Den will close at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow and will reopen at 3 p.m. Sunday. The Terrace Room will close for Thanksgiving Day but for the remainder of the vacation will retain its regular hours.

The Pattee Library will close at 5 p.m. tomorrow and will remain closed Thanksgiving Day. It will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday and from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday. The library will be closed all day Sunday.

The Waring Hall Snack Bar will close at 1 p.m. tomorrow. It will reopen at 9 a.m. next Monday.

Foreign Student Visits

Twenty foreign students from the University will leave tomorrow afternoon for Pine Grove, a small industrial community in Schuylkill county, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with the townspeople of Pine Grove.

The plan, which was originated last year, was devised because veterans in the Pine Grove area expressed the belief that more should be done to help people in this country learn to know more about people of other countries.

The visit will also give the foreign students a chance to learn more about life in an American home.

The students will enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving dinner in various homes, a trip to the Hershey Chocolate Corporation, and a square dance.

Part-time Campus Jobs Available for Vacation

Students who desire part-time jobs on campus during the Thanksgiving vacation should report tomorrow to the Student Employment Service in 112 Old Main.

The office will be open from 8 to noon and from 1 to 5 p.m.

'Late' Rule Will Face Vote Today

Members of the House of Representatives of the Women's Student Government Association will meet at 12:30 p.m. today in 209 Hetzel Union for a possible final vote on the proposed revision of the coed lateness rule after the sign-in hour.

The revision, suggested five weeks ago, would do away with the 3-minute grace period and substitute in its place a total of 20 minutes to be used throughout the semester, in cases of emergency.

Recommendation Tabled

Two weeks ago a recommendation on the revision was brought back from the committee and then tabled.

At the present time, the revision read as follows:

"In replacement of the 3-minute grace period now in effect, we propose 20 late minutes per semester excluding traveling lateness. This is applicable to 9:15, 10, 11, 12, 1 and 2 o'clock permissions. Any lateness after this 20 minutes will be dealt with by Judicial."

Report to Be Tabled

The representatives are to hear a report on the organizational meeting of the Housing Committee which was held Nov. 8.

The dormitory housing chairman of each dorm, headed by Katherine Vyse, junior in arts and letters from Winnetica, Ill., met with Otto E. Mueller, director of housing, to discuss any grievances which may have arisen concerning housing.

Alumni to Sponsor Smoker, Grid Ball For Pitt Weekend

Two annual events, a smoker and a Gridiron Ball, will highlight the Pittsburgh football weekend.

The annual smoker, under sponsorship of the Penn State Alumni Club, will be held Friday evening in the Pittsburgh Room of the Penn-Sheraton Hotel. The program will begin with a Blue Band concert at 8 p.m.

The Penn State Lions, young alumni group of the Pittsburgh area, will sponsor its third annual Gridiron Ball from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday at the University Club in Oakland.

Music for the dance will be provided by Brad Hunt's Huntsmen. Tickets are $4 per couple.

Reservations should be made in advance by writing Tom McCallum, Penn State Lions, P.O. Box 32, Pittsburgh 30, or phoning GR 1-2140.

Students may attend both affairs.

No Paper Tomorrow

The Daily Collegian will not be published tomorrow because of the start of the Thanksgiving recess. The next issue will appear Tuesday.

NC State Grid Movies To Be Shown Tonight

Another look at the most exciting three minutes and fifteen seconds of Penn State football this year will be available at 7 tonight in 121 Sparks.

John Chaffetz, head football manager, will narrate the films of Saturday's North Carolina State thriller.

Lodge Reports On Deportation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 19 (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. told the UN today the Soviet Union has deported 16,000 Hungarians from Budapest. He said many would die just as victims of Nazi concentration camps died and he heatedly demanded that the Russians stop this "inhumanity" immediately.

The U.S. chief delegate spoke to the UN Assembly after Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov angrily accused the United States and the non-Communist world of instigating the Hungarian troubles. The two diplomats clashed in the first round of Assembly debate on a resolution by Cuba calling on the deportations of Hungarians.
